Dear Sacred Heart Family

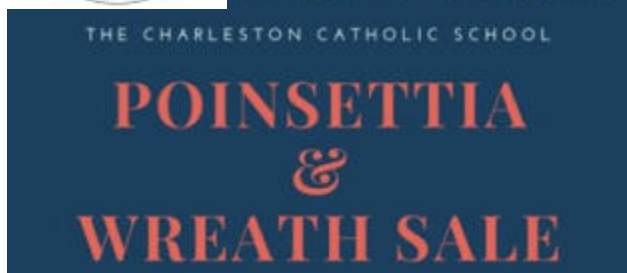

This week, I am away for a brief vacation. I'll be staying at my old seminary, Mount St. Mary's, in the mountains of western Maryland. I'll also be visiting some of our seminarians at another seminary nearby in Pennsylvania. Finally, I'll be visiting our own Fr Matthew Gray, who is now the vocations director for the Archdiocese for the Military Services. So, while I didn't intend this to be a "vocations" trip, it seems like it became one!

Given that, I thought I'd take the opportunity to ask your continued prayers and support for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Our Lord is still calling young men and women to serve him in this way, and I'm convinced that that includes some young people here at Sacred Heart! Parents, have conversations with your children regarding their vocation in life, and encourage them to spend the necessary time with the Lord in prayer, so that they might come to know what the will of God for them is.

Of course, please continue to pray for the 16 young men currently studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of Charleston. As Jesus reminds us, "The harvest is great, but the laborers are few. Pray, therefore, the master of the harvest, to send out laborers for his harvest!" (Matthew 9:37-38)

In the Heart of Jesus,

Fr West
