Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory who cannot pray for themselves. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Saturday, January 22, is the 49th anniversary of the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade, legalizing abortion throughout our country. As we mourn the loss of 60 million American children killed through abortion since this date in 1973, we have particular cause for hope this year. As you may know, the Supreme Court heard oral arguments last month in the case of Dobbs v. Jackson, which revolves around a recent Mississippi law that outlaws abortion after 15 weeks. This law stands in direct contradiction to the doctrine of Roe, which sets the standard at “viability,” which has only gotten earlier and earlier in pregnancy over the ensuing decades. The justices continue to deliberate on this case until a decision is released later this year. This case represents a tremendous opportunity for the protection of the unborn. It is, indeed, possible that Roe v. Wade may be overturned, and the abortion issue returned to the states, many, if not most, of which (South Carolina surely being one of them) would proceed to outlaw this heinous procedure. And even if the justices do not go that far, it is still a very real possibility that the Mississippi law will be upheld, and thus, the standard reduced from the vague “viability” to 15 weeks, with the result being that any state would now be able to enact and enforce similar laws.

Several years back, the US Bishops declared January 22 to be a special day of penance. In light of this, I would encourage you offer some kind of voluntary penance that day (e.g. giving up meat, fasting, praying an extra Rosary, etc.) in reparation for the sin of abortion, in prayer for its end, for the conversion of all the doctors who have committed this act, and the healing of the women who have been harmed by it.

In the Heart of Jesus
