LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When Jesus was physically with his disciples, he guarded and protected them. One of his greatest desires was that they share his joy completely. God's love is the source of all things and their sustenance. As we conduct the normal routines of our lives it is easy to get caught up in the immediacies of this world and lose focus. We become very self and worldly dependent, forgetting that God wishes to guard and protect us. The joy the resurrected Christ can offer cannot be found in this world. It takes a bit of faith to realize that God's will is a constant in our lives and that God desires only the sustenance and goodness of both our bodies and our souls. We need to trust in God's constant and rejuvenating love. This radical resurrection trust allows us to experience the joy of God's presence in all of the good and the bad, positive and negative, life building and life destructive events that we encounter. God remains where love remains.

Pope Francis has declared this year to be the Year of St Joseph. But how much do we know about the earthly father of Jesus? A very popular book, Consecration to St Joseph, by Fr Donald Calloway, MIC uses the writings of saints, Church Tradition, papal writings and other sources to illustrate the person of St Joseph, the most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary. It also guides the reader through a daily method of consecration to St Joseph.

What does it mean to consecrate oneself?

Consecration means "to make holy." When one makes an act of consecration, it is made ultimately to God with the understanding that our consecration is a serious commitment on our part to respond faithfully to God's grace at work in our lives.

What does it mean for a person to be consecrated to St. Joseph?

Basically, this means that you acknowledge that St. Joseph is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely into his paternal care so that he can help you acquire his virtues and become holy.

Consecration to St. Joseph emulates the tried-and-true preparation method employed by St. Louis de Montfort in his Marian consecration, highlighting many of St. Joseph's titles, privileges, and heroic virtues. A limited supply of this book will be available at the Religious Articles Store in the narthex of the church for $13. To pre-order or to reserve a copy, please call MaryEllen Sikking at 321.543.90525 or email jmsikking@yahoo.com

You can read the Apostolic letter, PATRIS CORDE (With a Father's Heart) of the Holy Father Francis, promulgated on The 150th anniversary of the proclamation of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church at the Vatican website (http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_letters/documents/papa-francesco-lettera-ap_20201208_patris-corde.html)

A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the Pope's intentions) to Christians who, with a spirit detached from any sin, participate in the Year of St. Joseph on these occasions and manners indicated by the Apostolic Penitentiary (continued from previous bulletins):

- Everyone who entrusts their daily activity to the protection of St. Joseph, and every faithful who invokes the intercession of St. Joseph so that those seeking work can find dignifying work can also obtain the plenary indulgence. On 1 May 1955, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of St. Joseph "with the intent that the dignity of work be recognized by all, and that it inspires social life and laws, based on the fair distribution of rights and duties."

Many Catholics are familiar with the 7 Sorrows of Mary, a devotion honoring particular events in Mary's life that caused her suffering, but few know about a similar devotion for St. Joseph. This devotion recognizes seven events in Joseph's life that were difficult for him to endure. An effective means of obtaining special graces through the intercession of St. Joseph is to honor his seven sorrows and seven joys by the practicing the Seven Sundays devotion.

The Seven Sundays in honor of St. Joseph are observed by receiving Holy Communion in his honor on seven consecutive Sundays, and reciting the prayers in honor of the Seven Sorrows and the Seven Joys of St. Joseph on each Sunday

JOSEPH'S SEVEN SORROWS

1. The doubt of St. Joseph
(Matt. 1:19)

2. The poverty of Jesus' birth
(Luke 2:7)

5. The flight into Egypt
(Matt. 2:14)

6. The return from Egypt
(Matt. 2:22)

7. The loss of the Child Jesus
(Luke 2:45)

JOSEPH'S SEVEN JOYS

1. The message of the Angel
(Matt. 1:20)

2. The birth of the Savior
(Luke 2:10-11)

3. The Holy Name of Jesus
(Matt. 1:25)

4. The effects of the Redemption
(Luke 2:38)

5. The overthrow of the idols of Egypt
(Is. 19:1)

6. Life with Jesus and Mary at Nazareth
(Luke 2:39)

7. The finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:46)

Please help Nana's House in Melbourne by donating unopened packages of disposable diapers, pull-ups and wipes. (Sizes: premie, pull ups sizes 3,4 and 5 for both girls & boys).

Their mission is to provide housing and support for foster families who care for neglected, abused, needy, and abandoned children. They have eight homes housing 2 house parents and 5 children each. They provide resources to help the foster family with whatever the child may need.

The neglected or abused child in the foster system typically feels worthless. Foster parents step in and love them, teaches them they are worth something and that they were created for a purpose.

Please help this worthy cause by donating unopened disposable diapers, pull-ups and wipes.

Thank you for your generosity.
