LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Did you ever find yourself wishing that God would just step in and fix all that is wrong with the world? After all, how much longer can all of this go on? There is so much inequity in life. Our world's political, economic, and environmental systems do not always serve the best interests of people. We read stories about injustice, disregard for human life, greed, heartache, and people being hurt and deprived every day. People are still starving and there is often little regard for human life. This is not the way God intended it to be. Realizing that we have caused most of these problems ourselves, we look to God for an answer and a way out of the difficulties we have created. Taking responsibility for our actions is not something that comes easily. What we fail to see is that God has already sent the answer in the person of Jesus Christ. God did fix our problem! Mary had to set her needs aside in order for the Son of Justice to come into the world. We need to do the same. It is only by believing in, listening to, and acting upon what God has spoken that true peace will ever come to be, and God's fix be made known.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Born in Holland, St. Peter Canisius (May 8, 1521 – December 21, 1597) was a preacher, teacher, and writer throughout his whole life. At the age of 19, he received a master's degree from the university at Cologne. Soon afterwards, St. Peter met Peter Faber, the first disciple of Ignatius of Loyola, who influenced him so much that he eventually joined the Society of Jesus.

St. Peter Canisius founded colleges and seminaries, served as a missionary, cared for the sick or imprisoned, and wrote close to eight volumes of letters — many about St. Cyril of Alexandria and St. Leo the Great.

A man blessed with many talents, St. Peter Canisius is a wonderful example of a man who developed his talents to further God's work here on earth.

Volunteers Needed for the Parish Finance Council

The Parish Finance Council assists with the responsible stewardship of parish resources and assists the Pastor in assessing present and long-term needs of the parish. The council serves in both a decision-making and advisory capacity, working closely with the Pastor, and is accountable to the Pastor and the Bishop of the Diocese of Orlando. There are open positions on the council that need to be filled. Members must be an active parishioner and must be qualified in financial and/or business administration. The time commitment is minimal. Financial reports and other business are distributed and discussed via email. There is one Zoom meeting each month in the evening which lasts an hour or less. If you are qualified, please consider sharing your talent with your parish. Please contact Dan Wonak (321-724-0986 dwonak@bellsouth.net) for more information.

Merry Christmas!

AND THE WORD BECAME FLESH

JOHN 1:14

Remembering Our Priests

Please pray for the eternal repose of the souls of our diocesan and religious priests who died in the month of December

- Msgr. Vidal Arboleda (d. Dec 2, 2015)
- Rev. Stephen Phillips (d. Dec 5, 2008)
- Msgr. William Mullally (d. Dec 13, 1971)
- Rev. William O'Farrell (d. Dec 21, 1997)
- Rev. Vincent Smith (d. Dec 22, 1981)
- Rev. Gerard Granahan (d. Dec 22, 2010)

Eternal rest grant unto them , O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed , through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Baby Jesus' Wish List

Odds are you've got a Christmas list going by now — gift ideas for everyone from your nephew to your goddaughter to your mailman. But what about the birthday boy? What's the gift Jesus gets from you this Christmas?

If you've ever read the Book of Leviticus, you know all about the sacrifices God asks of the Israelites, referred to in the reading from Hebrews today. Leviticus can be a chore to read — a little repetitive, a little intimidating. There's a lot of very specific actions that God asks His Chosen People to complete to make up for whatever they have done wrong. In essence, it's a bit of a wish list for gifts.

But it's a wish list that can really confuse you. What's God going to do with a cereal offering? The kidneys of an animal? If you look closely, what God is doing here is beautiful. He's customized his wish list to only those things He knows the Israelites can give. It's God saying, in what amounts to theological baby-talk for folks who barely know of Him and His ways, exactly how they could be stewards. "Do this, but don't do that. If you do that, do this and you will find My mercy."

Our guide to stewardship — the Gospels of Christ — is less precise because by the time of Christ, God's people have grown in understanding of love and mercy and relationship with the divine. Through Christ, we find out that God's real wish list didn't really consist of cereal offerings and the kidneys of various animals. It's far simpler, but luckily, it's something we still have on-hand. All He wants is our whole heart.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

Answer:

Epiphany means "manifestation," or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew's infancy narrative differs from Luke's account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph's long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

“ We love our Catholic faith, but do we know how to share it? For many of us, the thought of explaining to people why we love Jesus Christ, and why they should too, intimidates us. Let’s change that.

Join us for the 2022 Ministry Formation Conference, Into the Deep, to discover how we can accompany others to a meaningful relationship with Jesus Christ. How do you know what to share with somebody who has never heard the gospel? What do you share with people who were raised Catholic, but have fallen away? Is there one thing you can do for anyone, no matter where they are in life, that will help them recognize God’s presence in their life?

We will answer these questions and more at Into the Deep. Use the link to the left/Scan the QR code to find out more and to register today!
