LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

The wait is almost over! We will be relaunching Ministry to the Sick very soon, and we are calling back all past members of Ministry to the Sick that are able to help. New members are welcome to join as well, and we would be happy to set you up with the necessary training to do so. This is a very rewarding ministry. Many of our parishioners who are in assisted living facilities, nursing homes or homebound, really look forward to receiving the Eucharist from our Ministry to the Sick team.

This Ministry is for appointed and trained lay Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHC). To participate in the Ministry, an EMHC must make a request in writing to serve as a Eucharistic Minister of Holy Communion to the Sick, also be interviewed by Pastoral Care Coordinator (or equivalent) and approved by the Pastor.

There are some workshops for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion upcoming at St. Luke's (Jan 22) and Holy Name of Jesus (Feb 26).

If you are interested in being part of our team, please contact Annie O'Neill in the church office at 321-727-1565 or by email, oneilla@st-joe.org.

Our Social Activities Committee would like to invite you to join our meetings. We will be sharing ideas for fun, engaging events for the entire parish. We meet on the first Tuesday of most months in the church office at 6:30 pm. All are welcome! Please call the church office if you would like to join us or if you need more information. 321.727.1565
