LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them “feel good,” wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it in her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.

Congratulations Greg Kapral!

West Point graduate, Gregory Kapral, is originally from East Lyme, Connecticut. He served 21 years as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Army. When he met his future wife on CatholicMatch.com, he moved to Florida to be closer to her. He and Missy, a registered nurse, were married one year later.

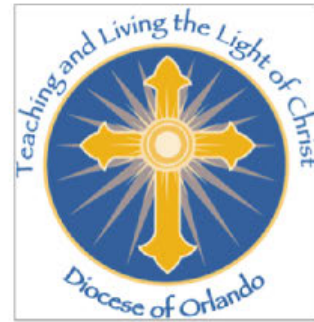

Following retirement from the Army, Kapral held a variety of positions in the corporate world before accepting employment at St. Joseph Parish in Palm Bay, where he serves as director of operations for finance and human resources. For the past six years of formation, he has served with the St. Vincent de Paul Society, the bereavement ministry and ministry to the sick. His experiences caring for his own family has given him a special love and compassion for the elderly.

"My focus on this specific area stems from the fact that, in the eight years of our marriage, we've cared for Missy's mom, my parents, and my elderly aunt in our home, with my dad and aunt being wheelchair bound and requiring total care," said Kapral, who together with his wife has since buried three parents, a brother, and an aunt. "I have witnessed the importance of bringing the love of God to the elderly, especially those at end of life. Despite the challenges we have faced in the short time we've been married, our faith in God and love for each other have carried us through."

He noted the relationships developed during the six years of formation "have been an incredible blessing and source of strength for us." As Ordination approaches, "I step out in faith and like the servant at the wedding feast in Cana, I listen for the voice of our Blessed Mother to 'do whatever He tells (me).'"
