LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Sapienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.

Meet Our New Pastor

Rev. Benjamin Berinti, C.P.P.S. is a Missionary of the Most Precious Blood and currently serves as Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Melbourne Beach. Rev. Berinti will be serving our St. Joseph Parish as of August 1st.

In his nearly 37 years of priestly ministry, Fr. Ben has served as a university professor of religion and humanities; Dean of Catholic Campus Ministry at the University of Central Florida; on the pastoral team at the San Pedro Spiritual Center; co-director of Lay Ecclesial Ministry formation; and parish pastor. Fr. Ben has ministered in the Diocese of Orlando for over 25 years.

A well-respected teacher, retreat leader, pastor, author and theologian, Fr. Ben writes for the Florida Catholic's Sunday Word column; works with Catholic radio programming on WDMC; teaches with the Loyola University New Orleans Institute for Ministry; and has written three collections of spiritual essays, as well as three hand-made limited edition spiritual chapbooks.

In his spare time, he serves as Vice-Provincial of the Cincinnati Province of his religious congregation, Vicar for Religious in our Diocese, and as a member of the Orlando Diocese Priests' Council.

Welcome to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

The Missionaries of the Precious Blood are a worldwide religious congregation, serving God's people in nearly 20 countries. The largest unit is a province. In total, there are seven provinces, four vicariates, and six missions. Our general leadership is located in Rome, Italy, but we also serve in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America and North America.

While our mission and ministries are varied with the needs of the Church, many Missionaries of the Precious Blood minister to the people of God in parish life as pastors or associate pastors. Whether in the U.S. or in other countries, C.P.P.S. pastors live, pray and work alongside the people of God as together they walk the path that God has laid for them. It is through parish life that many people find their true faith family. Our C.P.P.S. pastors are there to lead, guide and walk alongside the people of God in their everyday lives.

Whether at urban, suburban or rural locales, our hope is that the faithful find our Precious Blood parishes to be places of hope, welcome and spiritual nourishment.

RESPONDING to the Call

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Guided by the spirit

There will always be something behind us and before us. Time moves on and the world continues to rotate. Will we miss that which exists right before our eyes because they are shut while we are consumed by the past or worried about the future?

When we go about whatever work God has set for us this day, large or small, we cannot get it done if we are looking behind us. Being mindful means to live for the present. It sounds like the simplest thing in the world, but we forget it (I forget it at least once every day). We must be guided by the Spirit.

What I'm talking about here is a radical abandonment of ourselves to God — over, and over, and over again. We cannot put our hand to the plough, while our eyes are looking backward at what is left behind. We cannot turn back if we are to move forward.

When we take up the yoke of stewardship, we will never be able to bear it if we rely on our own strength. When we put our hands to the plough, we will never get the job done if we look backwards at our own track record for inspiration. There is no inspiration there. Let the dead bury their dead.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus knew that following him would not be easy. He could have made a lot of money. He could have had a beautiful home and a family to enjoy it with. Instead, Jesus chose to walk from town to town, teaching people about God. He gave up having nice things so that he could stay focused on God's work. That's what he asked his disciples to do, too.

PRAYER

Dear Jesus, thank you for giving up so much, so that I could grow close to God.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will love God more than all the things he has given me.
