Meet Our New Pastor

Rev. Benjamin Berinti, CPPS. is a Missionary of the Most Precious Blood and currently serves as Pastor of Immaculate Conception Church in Melbourne Beach. Rev. Berinti will be serving our St. Joseph Parish as of August 1st.

In his nearly 37 years of priestly ministry, Fr. Ben has served as a university professor of religion and humanities; Dean of Catholic Campus Ministry at the University of Central Florida; on the pastoral team at the San Pedro Spiritual Center; co-director of Lay Ecclesial Ministry formation; and parish pastor. Fr. Ben has ministered in the Diocese of Orlando for over 25 years.

A well-respected teacher, retreat leader, pastor, author and theologian, Fr. Ben writes for the Florida Catholic's Sunday Word column; works with Catholic radio programming on WDMC; teaches with the Loyola University New Orleans Institute for Ministry; and has written three collections of spiritual essays, as well as three hand-made limited edition spiritual chapbooks.

In his spare time, he serves as Vice-Provincial of the Cincinnati Province of his religious congregation, Vicar for Religious in our Diocese, and as a member of the Orlando Diocese Priests' Council.

Welcome to the Missionaries of the Precious Blood

The Missionaries of the Precious Blood are a worldwide religious congregation, serving God's people in nearly 20 countries. The largest unit is a province. In total, there are seven provinces, four vicariates, and six missions. Our general leadership is located in Rome, Italy, but we also serve in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America and North America.

While our mission and ministries are varied with the needs of the Church, many Missionaries of the Precious Blood minister to the people of God in parish life as pastors or associate pastors. Whether in the U.S. or in other countries, C.P.P.S. pastors live, pray and work alongside the people of God as together they walk the path that God has laid for them. It is through parish life that many people find their true faith family. Our C.P.P.S. pastors are there to lead, guide and walk alongside the people of God in their everyday lives.

Whether at urban, suburban or rural locales, our hope is that the faithful find our Precious Blood parishes to be places of hope, welcome and spiritual nourishment.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

We become a welcoming person when we can step aside from our own needs and desires to create space for someone else. Welcoming involves a quality of listening and presence that communicates to another person that what they are sharing and who they are have importance. When we shift attention and focus from ourselves and direct it toward someone else, positive things can happen. When someone knows that their story matters, it can be life changing and life-giving. Hospitality brings forth life and celebrates relationships. Whether we are actively tending to the business of serving the needs of others or opening ourselves to listening to their story, devotion and attentiveness are friends of love. Becoming anxious and preoccupied with one's personal agenda leaves no room for the creative, nurturing and spontaneous power of God's love.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsdotter. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden.

Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget's Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband's death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today.

Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun's habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370.

Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe.

Thank You for your support

A huge thanks to all of you for your generous donations in support of the missionary work of the Franciscan Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary based in India. I was truly honored to have had the opportunity to celebrate the Eucharist with you on the weekend of 24/25 June 2022. On behalf of the sisters whose dedication drew me to be a priest, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Please do continue to pray for the mission of the sisters especially to the cause of the poor girl children's education, food, clothing and shelter.

May God be gracious to you and to your family!

With love

FIRST READING

"Please do not go on past your servant. Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest yourselves under the tree." (Gn 18:3-4)

PSALM

He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord. (Ps 15)

SECOND READING

In accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God, the mystery hidden from ages and from generations past. But now it has been manifested to his holy ones. (Col 1:25-26)

GOSPEL

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part." (Luke 10:41-42)

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

"Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God's unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis)." While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the "details" of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!

What to do with unwanted SACRAMENTALS

Do you have sacred items in your possession that you are looking to dispose of such as bibles, sacred vessels, or anything that has been blessed?

Sacred items should not be thrown away. The only acceptable way to dispose of a sacred item is either by burning or breaking up the item and then burying the ashes or fragments. Please bring any unwanted sacred items to the church office.

Relics are NEVER to be disposed of. If you have a relic that you do not want to keep, please bring it to the church office .

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Be Ready for God to "Stop By"

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren't.

For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called "stopping by." They would be passing by a friend's house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. "I was just in the neighborhood," they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn't an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

"Crazy," you might exclaim. "People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?" Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today's readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They're about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they're about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

This time of year, I attend a lot of weddings. Why do Catholic weddings need to take place in a church?

Answer:

Technically, there is a clause in Church law that could allow for weddings to take place outside of a church, in a suitable space under special circumstances, but it requires the rare permission of the bishop. But the meaning of marriage goes very, very deep, and the Church has a vested interest in protecting that meaning. As Catholics, we don't see a wedding as an event that needs a pleasing backdrop.

Marriage is a sacrament, both an occasion of joyful promise and symbolic solemnity. It is a spiritual event. The loving bond of marriage symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and his Church. The man and woman profess lifelong vows of fidelity, and they receive supernatural grace from God to keep their promises. Receiving the sacrament of Marriage in a church has broader symbolic meaning for the couple as well. Marriage isn't simply two people in isolation from the world around them. Marriage is the joining of families and the beginning of a new, holy mission in the life of the couple. Weddings are sacred occasions, and it's fitting that they occur in sacred spaces.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Thank you so much to our St. Vincent DePaul donors!

Your ongoing assistance has helped feed the many needy and hungry people of our community. The need has continued to grow during these economically difficult times.

Food can be dropped off at St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry Mon-Fri, 9:30 am-12pm, at 2824 Palm Bay Rd. NE, Palm Bay FL 32905.

Pull up to the back door of the food pantry and beep your horn. Someone will come out and collect the food.

If you cannot come during our functioning hours, call Bruce at 660-438-5345 and he will make other arrangements.

If you'd like to make a monetary donation, please mail it to: PO Box 60443, Palm Bay, FL 32905.

Thank you for your generosity and remembering those who are hungry!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

God created work for each of us to do, and it is important to do it. But Martha was upset because she forgot to stop and make time for Jesus. Mary had the right idea. She took a break from her work to listen to Jesus. Time with Jesus is precious, so we need to make time to rest and enjoy his love.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for reminding me to stop and enjoy time with you.
