“The Lord is in his Holy Temple; let all the earth keep silence before Him.” (Hab 2:20)

GREGORIAN LATIN LITURGY

Until 1969, the various Catholic liturgies were all of apostolic origin.

The Gregorian Latin liturgy, celebrated in this church, follows the tradition of Saint Peter, the first Pope, and has never undergone any essential change till the present time.

Every gesture, every word has been weighed and measured with the assistance of the Holy Ghost for the greater glory of God and the salvation of souls.

WELCOME VISITORS!

We thank you for coming. Whether you are just visiting us for a brief time, looking for a spiritual home, are returning to the practice of Catholic faith, or are interested in finding out more about the Catholic Church; we are happy to have you here, as you are.

Please take time to read this bulletin, to meet with the priest after Mass and to socialize.

Enter the Holy Temple of the Good Lord to worship Him. Pax vobis! Peace be with you!

“I URGE YOU THEREFORE, BROTHERS, BY THE MERCIES OF GOD, TO OFFER YOUR BODIES AS A LIVING SACRIFICE, HOLY AND PLEASING TO GOD, YOUR SPIRITUAL WORSHIP.” ROM. 12:1

Out of respect for Our Lord Jesus Christ and for the edification of our neighbor, we beg all to appear in Church attired in decent deportment and modest dress.

However, no one has the right to question others, especially visitors. It belongs to the parish priest alone to instruct the laity when they repeatedly dress or deport below expectation.

For gentlemen and lads: Neither shorts, T-shirts, nor sneakers meet the norms of modesty. For ladies and girls: Neither shorts, slacks, sleeveless, nor short or low-cut dresses meet the norms of modesty.

Furthermore, according to apostolic custom or Church law, gentlemen are bareheaded in church, and ladies are requested to cover their heads.

Thank you for your charity.

“THE BREAD THAT I WILL GIVE, IS MY FLESH.” JN 6:52

To receive Holy Communion:

- One must be a baptized Catholic, having made a good confession since the last committed mortal sin - if any - in order to be in the state of Grace.

- One must believe in the doctrine of Transubstantiation. “For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment upon himself.” (1 Cor. 11:29)

- One must observe one hour of Eucharistic fast (Water and medicine do not break the fast. However, we advise to abstain from food and alcohol for three hours and one hour for other liquid before Holy Communion).

- One must not be a public sinner (public adulterer, concubine, public homosexual), excommunicated, or interdicted.

- The most important requirement is to have a great desire to receive the Body, the Blood, the Soul, and the Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ.

You may humbly approach the Communion rail at any time after the Communion of the priest.

Open the mouth wide and extend your tongue smoothly and horizontally. Do not say “Amen.”

One should feel free to leave the pew for communion whenever.

Do not judge your neighbor who abstains from receiving Holy Communion, as there is no obligation to receive it daily. However, “Live in a manner to be able to receive communion every day!” (St. Augustine)

N.B.: In this Church, the faculty to absolve sins is directly granted to the priests by the Holy Father.

The means of consecration to the Immaculate Heart must be greatly encouraged.

- † With deep gratitude benefactors are remembered in the weekly school Masses and in the daily school prayers.

The Academy considers proposals for a new location for the boys' high school.

Unfortunately at the start of the new school year the Academy faced a great difficulty, discovering one of the school portables to be in an inhabitable condition from the heavy summer rains that damaged the aged structure. Two companies were urgently employed to repair the portables. The cost of repairs is $20,000. Through the intercession of St. Joseph, the Academy appeals to your generosity. Would you be willing to adopt a portion of portable expenses: 10% ($2000); 25% ($5000); etc.? All donations are gratefully accepted. May St. Joseph reward your generosity a hundredfold!

The Whole Truth about Fatima Science and the Facts by Frère Michel de la Sainte Trinity

And thus, this whole laborious and monotonous life was given rhythm and illuminated by the sequence of the great feasts of the liturgical cycle. There was also each Sunday, the paternal authority of the parish priest which he exercised, without dispute, over each of his sheep. After the departure of good Father Pena, who was so beloved in the village, it was the young Father Ferreira who succeeded him in 1913. Although more rigid and less appreciated, he was not obeyed any less. Fro Maria Rosa, “the word of the parish priest was the word of God, and she observed rigorously, without any discussion, the commands which he laid down” (De Marchi p. 54). Later on we will see that because of her unlimited confidence in her parish priest Maria Rosa doubted the genuineness of the apparitions for so long.

At Fatima, the devotions for the month of Mary, the month of the Rosary and the “month of the (poor) souls,” in honor of the departed, were all solemnly observed. At the call of the parish priest, the church was filled each night for the recitation of the Rosary (Canon Martins dos Reis, Sintese Critica, p. 38).

We must listen to the whole, long testimony of Maria dos Anjos, the elder sister of Lucy, to discover with astonishment what an incomparable Christian education our three young seers enjoyed, for on this point the Marto parents were hardly inferior to Maria Rosa.

“It was our mother who taught us the catechism, and she would never let us go out and play before having learned our lesson by heart. I do not want to be ashamed, she would say, when Father will have my children recite their catechism. But she was not ashamed, because Father was always satisfied with us, and at the church he would even entrust us with other children to teach, although we were still children ourselves. I was thus no older than nine years old when I became a catechist.

“But our mother was not content with the recitation of formulas at the snap of a finger; she also wanted us to understand Christian doctrine, and she gave us detailed explanations. To know the catechism, and not to know the explanations makes no sense, she would say. We also asked her many questions, and she answered as well as the priest in church. Once I asked her how the fire of hell could not consume and destroy the damned, like the wood one puts in the fireplace. She answered, “Then you don't know that if you put a bone in the fire, it will appear to burn without being consumed?” And we, very frightened, set ourselves to reflect on that point, and to take the resolution not to commit any sins, so as not to fall in this terrible fire.

“It was not only for us that our mother taught the catechism. Other children also came to the house to learn it, and not only from Aljustrel, but from Casa Velha, and even from Boleiros. Even distinguished persons came to her to have themselves instructed.

“During the month of May and the month of the dead, as well as during Lent, we would recite the Rosary every day before the fireplace, or in the common room. And when we would go out with the sheep, she would recommend that we always have the Rosary in our pockets. ‘Over there you will recite the Rosary in honor of Our Lady after you eat,’ she would say, ‘and some Our Fathers in honor of Saint Anthony, so as not to lose the sheep.’

“And we would always add some Our Fathers for the souls of our deceased relatives. In the morning before rising, and in the evening, before going to bed, after having recited the act of contrition and some Our Fathers, she would not let us forget our Guardian Angel...

“She wanted us to be humble and industrious. And woe to us if anyone caught us in a lie! It was even one of the things she was the most severe on. The smallest fib would immediately result in a beating with her broom.

“She taught us devotion to the things of the Church, and especially to the Blessed Sacrament, right from the beginning” (De Marchi p. 53-55).
