The Baptism of the Lord

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In today's gospel, ( Luke 3;15-16, 21-22 ) as in the other gospel accounts of Jesus's Baptism, we hear John the Baptist address the confusion of the people who thought that John might be the messiah. In response, John contrasts the baptism that he performs with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that some one will come and baptize with the Holy Spirit. The type of baptism that John performed was not yet a Christian baptism ; it was a preparation for the Christian baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

Today's gospel from Luke marks a change in focus from the ministry of John the Baptist to that of Jesus. John himself knows his place. He is unworthy to help Jesus take off his sandals. John also knows the difference between the baptism each can perform. John baptizes with water, a common practice at that time, but Jesus will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. Jesus's Baptism will be greater than John's.

In the second part of the gospel we have a statement about all the people John baptized, including Jesus. On the basis of this statement, Jesus's baptism appears to be just like everyone else's. However, we see Jesus praying and we hear of the Holy Spirit coming upon Jesus from heaven. Finally a voice from identifies Jesus as " my beloved son ".

Jesus's baptism by John was the same as everyone else's. But it led to something entirely different. His baptism would mark the beginning of new period in his life. Interestingly, Luke places the genealogy of Jesus immediately after his baptism. Following the genealogy is the story of Jesus's temptation in the desert. Luke begins the temptation narrative noting that Jesus returns from the Jordan filled with the Holy Spirit. The Spirit never leaves Him throughout His journey to Jerusalem, and empowers him to fulfill his mission.

The spirit we receive at baptism does the same for us. Through the Spirit and through frequent prayer modeled on Jesus's prayer, we draw closer to God as God's beloved sons and daughters.

~ Fr. Francis

An Inspirational Message

Are you forgiving to those who hurt you? Or do you tend to hold grudges against those who have mistreated you? Think about the Lord's merciful love. We are all sinners, yet He extends a compassionate arm toward us every time we participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. How can you be more loving and forgiving like Him? Consider reflecting on your life and finding wounds you need the Lord to heal. Allow Him to touch your heart so that you can forgive others as He forgives us.

Do you ever think about the gift the Lord extends to us? He desires a relationship with us, yet so many of us take it for granted. He does not have to a relationship with any of us, yet He allows us to draw closer to Him through the sacraments. Spend time with the Lord today in prayer or participate in the celebration of daily Mass so that you can draw closer to the Heavenly Father.

What is the first thing you do when you wake up? Do you immediately grab your phone and start scrolling through social media or your email/other messages? Instead of reaching for your phone, reach out to the Lord through prayer. Spend a few minutes in conversation with Him so that you can start your day being fulfilled by His presence.

Please contact Joe Mikulan at 672-5272.

Memorial Flowers Program

Prince of Peace has established a “Memorial Flowers Program”, through which your memorial or personal intentions can be visibly observed at Mass and you and your intentions will be acknowledged in the parish bulletin for that week.

We will begin this program in January 2022.

This is a wonderful way to remember a loved one, offer thanksgiving for a special grace, or simply to help beautify our sanctuary.

With the exception of the periods of Advent and Lent, memorial flowers may be requested for any of the Sundays and Holy Day throughout the year. Your memorial flower arrangement will be delivered to the church in time for the Vigil Mass for that Sunday or Holy Day.

The floral arrangement will be ordered and delivered through a local florist for the cost of $100.00. If you wish to request live memorial flowers for your intentions, please stop by the parish office or call the office at 386-672-5272.

Mass Offerings

You can have a Mass offered for a Deceased Member of your family, or for a Special Intention. Stop by the parish office or call the parish office 672-5272.
