January 23 2022
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's gospel reading (LK 1:1-4; 4:14-21) combines two separate passages taken from the gospel of Luke. First we hear the opening verses where Luke establishes the purpose of his gospel. His style is typical of polished Greek and Roman language. In this passage, we learn that Luke may have written to a specific person, Theophilus; But the word Theophilus may also be a general reference, meaning dear reader. In Greek the word Theophilus translates as the lover of God.

In chapter four of Luke's gospel, we hear that Jesus is in his home town of Nazareth, attending the synagogue on sabbath, which is said to be his custom. In this account, we find another important clue that Jesus lived as a faithful observant Jew. We will continue to read from Luke's gospel for the next two Sundays.

As Jesus stands in the synagogue, he reads from the scroll handed to him; it contains the words of the prophet Isiah. At this early moment in his ministry, Jesus announces his mission in continuity with Israel's prophetic tradition. This reading from Isiah defines Jesus's ministry. We will find more evidence of this as we continue to read from Luke's gospel throughout the year. Jesus's ministry will include bringing glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, freedom to the oppressed, and proclaiming a year acceptable to the Lord.

Through this text from Isiah, Jesus announces God's salvation. In this passage Jesus not only announces God's salvation, he brings this salvation about in his person. Jesus is God's anointed one, filled with the spirit of God. The kingdom of God is at hand. It is made present in Jesus, in his life, death and resurrection. Jesus will send the Holy Spirit so that the kingdom of God can be fulfilled. The Holy Spirit is Jesus's gift to the church. The holy spirit enables the church to continue the mission of Jesus. When we do what Jesus did - bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, healing to the sick, and freedom to the oppressed - we serve the kingdom of God.

Fr. Francis

Free Conference for Seniors to Access Health, Legal and Leisure Information in the Daytona Beach Area

Members of the public are invited to hear speakers in healthcare, hospice, funeral planning, senior health resources, legal advice and leisure services.

WHAT: Daily, people over the age of 50 are moving to Volusia County in growing numbers. Many have questions about local services for seniors and how to access them. The Help is On the Way Conference is designed to assist individuals in the Daytona Beach area with navigating complex issues such as:

- finding the right doctor
- caring for an aging parent
- planning for end-of-life issues legally, financially and logistically
- downsizing your home
- locating places where seniors can connect and enjoy leisure time

Speakers from each presenting organization will give a 10-minute speech and be available for one-on-one conversations with any of the conference attendees. The Help is On the Way Conference is free and open to the public. Registration is recommended to reserve your seat. <https://tinyurl.com/ycktkjpy>
