Nine Themes in Carmelite Spirituality

By Fr Patrick Thomas McMahon O Carm

# 7 Carmel is Elijan

That means we look to the prophet Elijah, the great prophet who lived on Mount Carmel eight centuries before Jesus, and we find great inspiration in him. Carmelites from the very beginning of the Order have looked to Elijah for inspiration. They saw in the prophet everything they wanted to be. He was a man of deep contemplation, one who sought solitude in the wadi Carith or in the cave at Mount Horeb. All Carmelites need to know the Elijah stories that we find at the end of the First Book of Kings, and in the Second Book of Kings in the Bible.... We see in these stories that Elijah was a restless man. He was filled with energy for God like we want to be, and he was anxious to spend the energy on God's kingdom. But he was always searching to know what God asked of him. He is the model, along with Mary, for each of us Carmelites. Elijah was a fearless prophet who stood strong and tall against the injustice of his day....The Carmelite, like Elijah stands up for the poor, for the victims of injustice, for those who have no voice of their own with which to cry out to heaven.

Love If I were to ask 100 people to define the Food Pantry I don't think any of them would come up with "love" in their answer. Love is one of the most powerful words in our language. Sadly the word love is often twisted and the real meaning distorted. For that reason, we sometimes hesitate using it for fear that we will be misunderstood.

Think of the love of our parishioners who continually fill the food basket, not because of a responsibility, but rather because of a need to share with those less fortunate.

Think about the dedication of the volunteers that share their time and effort day after day, accumulating, packing and distributing the food.

Think of the recipients that receive, and in turn share, the offerings that came blessed from the altar of God.

If you have any doubts as to the immensity of love that is generated through this ministry, come take a closer look. It is like being bathed in everlasting sunlight.

You alone have the power to command the sea, the wind and the rain. You alone bring peace, calm and safety. Father, we thank you in advance for you are our refuge. We ask this through Christ Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen
