

Chalking the Door

An Epiphany tradition to share with your family!

As a way of celebrating the New Year sometime during this week, gather family and friends at the main entrance to your home and ask God's blessing on your dwelling and on all who live or visit there.

The traditional blessing uses a piece of chalk to mark the following inscription at the top of the main doorway: 20+C+M+B+21 The "20" is the beginning two numbers of the new year, the four "+" symbolize crosses which are a sign of blessing, the three letters "C," "M" and "B" stand for the Magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar, or the three Latin words, "Christus mansionem benedicat," which means: "May Christ bless this home," and the "21" stands for the last two numbers of the current year. Once the doorway is marked, pray a prayer of blessing together.

A Blessing for Your Home

Lord God of heaven and earth, You revealed Your only begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this home and all who live here.

Fill us with the light of Christ that our love for one another and our concern for all others may reflect Your love.

Be my shelter, Lord, when I am at home, my companion when I am away, and my welcome guest when I return. And at last receive me into the dwelling place you have prepared for me in your Father's house, where you live forever and ever.

Amen.

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY

At Our Rising

God of glory,
at its rising, the star drew Magi
who traveled to Jerusalem bearing gifts for your Son.
At his rising, your Son appeared
to his followers,
who traveled to distant lands
bearing the gift of salvation for everyone.
At our rising each day may we, your people,

move forward in faith and hope.
May we become gifts for each other,
gifts that enrich, that guide, heal, console,
and uplift
so that at our rising from the dead
you may receive us into the light of your eternal glory.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

One God, One People

Today's Readings: Isaiah 60:1–6; Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 10–11, 12–13; Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6; Matthew 2:1–12. When God led his people out of Egypt, they believed in the existence of many gods. In the centuries that followed, they would come to know that there was only one God, the Lord of heaven and earth. The First Reading reveals that not only the Jews but all people come to believe in the Lord alone. People from all across the world bring gifts and sacrifices to Jerusalem to pay homage to the one true God.

The arrival of the Magi in Jerusalem fulfills Isaiah's prophecy. By undertaking the long journey to pay homage to the newborn king, these Gentiles venerate the God of Israel. They reveal that "the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body." In Christ, God invites all people to share in his divine life and glory.

The revelation we celebrate today is thus not only about who God is, it is also about the people God empowers us to become. The images in Isaiah's prophecy portray people acting in unity, in harmony, and with a common purpose. They praise God, which means they acknowledge all that God is and embrace all that God stands for: kindness, patience, compassion, truth, mercy, justice. As we pay homage to the newborn king and strive to imitate his selfless love, we become part of this epiphany, part of God's great love, and we help others who are lost in the darkness to find and follow the light.

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Monday, January 4 Still Shining

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, whom we celebrate today, was the first person from the United States to be canonized. She also founded the first Catholic school for girls and the Sisters of Charity. St. Elizabeth found ways to participate in the ministry of Jesus, spread God's kingdom, and keep the light of Christ shining. Learn more about St. Elizabeth. Ask for her intercession as you discern how you can more fully receive and share the light of Christ. Today's Readings: 1 John 3:22—4:6; Psalm 2:7bc–8, 10–12a; Matthew 4:12–17, 23–25.

Tuesday, January 5 This Is Love

God's love is boundless and tireless. God loved us into existence. God incarnated his love in Jesus, who revealed God's love in every aspect of his ministry, from urging love for our enemies to healing and feeding people. Through Christ, God loves us into eternal life. If we have received this love, our lives will overflow with love for others. Share God's love today by volunteering at a soup kitchen or visiting someone who is sick or homebound. Today's Readings: 1 John 4:7–10; Psalm 72:1–2, 3–4, 7–8; Mark 6:34–44.

Wednesday, January 6 Perfecting Love

We're told that "there is no fear in love," and yet the disciples are terrified of Jesus as he strides toward them on the surface of the sea. We love God, and yet we are frightened of his power, his greatness, and even his love. The more we encounter God's love, the more imperfect we feel. Our fears will fade only when we accept God's love, when we welcome that love and remain in it every day, every hour, every moment of our lives. Meditate on a crucifix or other image of God's love. Today's Readings: 1 John 4:11–18; Psalm 72:1–2, 10, 12–13; Mark 6:45–52.

Thursday, January 7 Look Around

St. John insists that our love for God, whom we do not see, must overflow into love for others, whom we do see. Too often, however, we don't see the people who most need our love. Jesus points them out in today's Gospel passage: they are people in prisons, homeless shelters, treatment centers, orphanages, and nursing homes. They live in the poorest part of town, the places we never see, the places we won't go. Look at a map of where you live. Who are all the "hidden" people in your area? Today's Readings: 1 John 4:19—5:4; Psalm 72:1–2, 14 and 15bc, 17; Luke 4:14–22a.

Friday, January 8 Sharing in the Victory

Eternal life flows from God the Father through his Son to the world. The leper who met Jesus experienced this new life. All that he suffered—physical pain, loneliness, hunger, sorrow—was lifted from him at the word and gentle touch of Jesus. What in your life needs to be healed, cleansed, and restored? Pray Psalm 130, and imitate the leper by prostrating yourself before the Lord. Today's Readings: 1 John 5:5–13; Psalm 147:12–13, 14–15, 19–20; Luke 5:12–16.

Saturday, January 9 Belong to God

As we conclude our reading of the First Letter of John, we are reminded that sin and evil persist in our world. God's Son became human and shares his light and life with us, yet even we who are baptized in his name sometimes fall back into sin. We continue to need his light, his word, his Church. During the Sacrament of Reconciliation, celebrate all the ways God has incarnated his love in your life. Ask forgiveness for those times when you have failed to receive and to share this love. Today's Readings: 1 John 5:14–21; Psalm 149:1–2, 3–4, 5 and 6a and 9b; John 3:22–30.

During these challenging times, Centering Prayer is a way to draw closer to God. It is a Christian form of silent meditation that serves as a method of movement into contemplative prayer, a way to open oneself to the Divine Presence and, through the healing of the Holy Spirit, to be of greater service to those around us.

And St. Thomas More's Centering Prayer Groups are now meeting weekly on Zoom! Thursdays from 10:30-11:30 am and 5:00-6:00 pm. If you are interested in joining the Thursday morning group please contact Noreen Delaney at npolidoro@comcast.net or 941-228-1799
For the Thursday evening group, please contact Bob Ferkenhoff at bferken@verizon.net or 941-350-6920.

A Gracious Christmas Thank You!

The celebration of the Christmas season at St. Thomas More was made joyous and bright with the willing hearts and hands of the volunteers and staff of the parish.

Thank you to:

- All those who used their creative gifts working with Marcia in making our worship space so beautiful.
- All liturgical ministers - Sacristans, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Ministers of Hospitality and our Priests - for your dedicated service at all our Masses.
- All our cantors and sound assistants who worked with Alex preparing the music for all the Christmas Masses.
- All of the Knights of Columbus who “freshened up” our pew spacing/social distancing guides in the church.
- All of you who came to participate wholeheartedly in prayer and song - your presence and participation filled these liturgies with peace, love and joy!

We are also very grateful to all who graciously donated to the Christmas offertory. Your kind donations at Christmas, and throughout the year, provide the financial support needed to continue the liturgical, pastoral and outreach ministries of the parish. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

"The generous will be blessed, for they share . . . with the poor."

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

January 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Diocese of Venice is blessed with many generous and dedicated priests who have followed the call of Christ to act in His person in the priesthood. The Diocese is further blessed with vocations to the priesthood, evidenced by our present number of 16 seminarians. Your support of the Annual Seminary Collection continues to be crucial as challenges increase for a proper formation environment and education of our future priests.

This special collection ensures that we continue to have good priests to serve you and your family. It supports the Church's mission of cultivating and fostering priestly vocations, as well as supporting the next generation of Diocesan priests. Funds are needed to assist our future priests with tuition, room and board, health care, transportation, and other expenses, including inviting more men to consider the priesthood. Your gift to the Seminarian Collection helps offset these costs.

Parishes of the Diocese of Venice will conduct this annual second collection for Seminary Support the weekend of January 2 and 3, 2021. Your gift provides vital financial support for the future of the Church in Florida.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for the support of our seminarians.

Seminary collection envelopes are in parishioner envelope packets. Additionally, if you wish to make a donation, make checks payable to St. Thomas More Catholic Church and note Seminary collection in the memo section. You may also use our online platform, WeShare, to set up a singular or reoccurring donation.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
