

He saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him.

*And a voice came from the heavens,
“You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”
John baptized Jesus with water.*

The Spirit broke through Earth’s boundaries, rushed into the world of time, and told our universe again that God is with us

Spirit, tear open the heavens. Break through our set-in-stone boundaries, and descend into the depths of our hearts. Pour rivers of grace on all of us.

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Priests, Prophets, Kings

Loving Father,
at our Baptism we were anointed
in Christ's name
to be priests, prophets, and kings.
Our mission is his.
Help us to worship you, Lord God,
and to offer our whole lives to you.
Embolden us to share your love and salvation.

Empower us to seek your kingdom
of justice and peace.
When the light of our faith wavers,
and our white garments become stained and torn,
cleanse us and renew your Spirit within us.
Guide us each day along the way of your Son
so that we, your beloved children,
may be pleasing to you in all that we do.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Mission

Today's Readings: Isaiah 55:1–11; Isaiah 12:2–3, 4bcd, 5–6; 1 John 5:1–9; Mark 1:7–11 or Isaiah 42:1–4, 6–7; Psalm 29:1–2, 3ac–4, 3b, 9–10; Acts 10:34–38; Mark 1:7–11. Jesus, in his humanity, had to discern how to best offer his life to God. He drew inspiration from the promises God had made to Israel and, through Israel, to all people—promises of prosperity, justice, and peace. Jesus may have especially identified with the mysterious servant spoken of by the prophet Isaiah. This servant bravely brings God's salvation to everyone. As John the Baptist urged people to prepare for the next stage of salvation, his words would have resonated with Jesus, who was baptized as a sign of his commitment to the mission that was taking shape within him.

Our Baptism immerses us into the life of Christ, into his earthly ministry, his sacrificial death, and his union with God the Father. As members of Christ's body, we ask ourselves, "What is my mission? For what good work has God's Spirit descended upon me?" Perhaps God is calling us to spend time with someone who is struggling. Perhaps our mission is to change an unhealthy work environment. Our mission might be to address injustice in our community. In all these ways and more, we, God's beloved children, participate in the mission of Christ. In fulfilling our mission we, too, will hear God declare that he is well pleased with us.

THIS WEEK AND BEYOND

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

During Ordinary Time this year we will hear most often from the Gospel of Mark. However, the Gospel passage for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time is always from John. Matthew, Mark, and Luke present Jesus' identity through the lens of his ministry, but John's focus is mostly on Jesus' identity as God's divine Son.

The Christmas season is filled with feast days that highlight Jesus' divinity. The passages from John's Gospel that we hear on the Second Sundays in Ordinary Time transition us from an emphasis on Jesus' identity to his public ministry. As we accompany Jesus in his ministry, today's passage reminds us to stop and spend time with the Lord so as to discover and rediscover all that he is.

Gospel/Ignatian Contemplation

Popularized by St. Ignatius of Loyola, Gospel contemplation is a way to pray with the Scriptures. It works best with passages in which there is some action, such as a healing. Because Mark's Gospel is filled with short passages in which people are doing something, it is well suited for Gospel contemplation.

To begin, read the passage you have chosen several times. Note the people, setting, and any dialogue. Let the scene take ever clearer shape in your mind. Then imagine that you are there, in the story. You might be one of Jesus' disciples, a person in the crowd, or someone who seeks healing. Notice who is with you, what you say and do, and, most especially, how you interact with Jesus and how he interacts with you. Gospel contemplation is one way to meet our Lord in our sacred texts. It might be helpful for those who are hesitant to try it to remember that the Gospels were written so that we, like generations before us, may encounter Christ and find salvation in him.

The Gospel of Mark

Since it contains very little teaching and few parables, the Gospel of Mark is the shortest and most fast-paced of our four Gospel accounts. It is also the darkest. The shadow of the cross looms from the first chapter as we hear Jesus begin his ministry right after John the Baptist has been arrested (1:14). Jesus' first miracle is casting out a demon, a symbol of the evil he must confront (1:21–26). Chapter 2 consists entirely of stories in which people challenge Jesus and object to his or his disciples' actions. By chapter 3 people are already plotting his death (3:6). As the Gospel continues, Jesus will face opposition from his family, the villagers of his hometown, and his disciples.

The portrait of Jesus that emerges from this threatening narrative is a Jesus who struggles and suffers. He is the messiah, but he is a suffering messiah. "Suffering messiah" is a contradiction, an oxymoron. No one expected the messiah, God's chosen one, to suffer and be killed. Christians today are so familiar with the story of Jesus' passion and death that we forget how shocking it was, how horrible and horrifying. St. Mark reminds us.

As we move through the Gospel of Mark and hear how Jesus is challenged, misunderstood, ridiculed, and physically attacked, we're reminded that true discipleship has costs. Seeking the reign of God brings us into opposition with others who either don't understand how we're trying to live or who downright reject the kingdom of God that we seek. Jesus knows this. He has been through it. He now stands with us as we continue striving for his kingdom, confronting evil in all its forms until at last he raises us up to life with him in his kingdom forever.

Please join us Saturday January 30, 8:45 am - Noon for a zoom workshop
on the life and teaching of Teresa of Avila

Objectives for the Retreat: To introduce St. Teresa of Avila's life and context, to reflect on passages from her spiritual masterpiece, The Interior Castle, to experience Teresa's passionate, bridal mysticism.

Why Teresa? According to James Finley from the Center for Action and Contemplation, , Teresa is a trustworthy spiritual guide because she is an excellent teacher of the contemplative path. Like us, Teresa lived during a tumultuous time in the world and within Christianity. Leaning into her experience can lead us to hope, healing and oneness in this challenging time.

The morning will consist of reading, reflecting, large and small group discussion and silent prayer. Pre-Registration is required and the deadline to register is January 20.

To register please email Susan Holm @ sjeholm@me.com This event is limited to 25 participants.

This is a free will offering from your fellow contemplatives in the Tampa Bay/Sarasota/Venice area.

Pray for the Sick

Our book of the sick is located in the church near the Tabernacle. Please call the Parish Office if you would like to have an intention listed. We will add it for you.

Weekly Virtual “Oratory” Playground

“Run, jump, shout, but do not sin!” said St. John Bosco, Patron Saint of young people. The Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco are offering a “virtual oratory” every Saturday, 2:00 - 4:00 pm for children ages six through 14. Some of the leaders will include religious sisters from St. John Neumann Catholic High School in Naples.

This oratory will give young people around the country a chance to meet new friends, play games, pray together, and engage in wholesome activities through Zoom, all with the accompaniment of the Sisters. Every Saturday, the afternoon will start with prayer, ice breaker games, singing and an oratory pledge. This will be followed by large group activities and small breakout groups, by age, that will include anything from movement to virtual field trips and trivia games.

There is no cost to participate. To sign up, please visit www.salesiansisters.org/weekly-virtual-oratory or for more information email salesiansisterscamp@gmail.com.

Do you hear God calling?

We are looking for faith filled men and women to pass on their faith stories. We are in need of people who can help families, children and teens preparing to receive First Eucharist and Confirmation and to walk with our high school aged young people. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "I received so much more than I gave as my own faith grew and I learned from those I taught." We provide you with training, materials, and support. Whether you can help occasionally or on a regular basis, we need you.

please contact Robbie Anderson at robbie@stthomasmoresrq.org

How precious is the family as the privileged place for transmitting the faith.

Pope Francis

St. Thomas More Faith Formation attempts to equip parents to pass the faith on to their children. We meet monthly with families, having parent sessions and age appropriate sessions for their children. During the challenges we are facing with COVID19, we are using a virtual platform, Zoom. Parent sessions will begin 45 minutes prior to the sessions with the children. Parents then share faith with their families at home, using the resources provided in a flexible schedule. With busy lives filled with commitments and parents who are constantly driving to and from events, this type of programming recognizes the need for faith to be integrated into our busy lives. It is our hope that families will have many faith discussions in their homes as a result. They will accompany each other on their journey of faith.

We are fortunate to be able to offer Family Faith Formation Mentors beginning January 10th. Each family will be assigned to a mentor who will be on hand to help navigate the resources, answer questions and make suggestions for sharing faith.

Diocese of Venice News

Anniversary Masses - All couples celebrating 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, or more than 50 years of marriage are invited by Bishop Frank J. Dewane to an Anniversary Mass in their honor to be celebrated in two locations.

This year, considering the ongoing COVID-19 Pandemic, each location will have two Masses to allow for appropriate social distancing. The Masses are 10:00 am and noon on Saturday, February 6 at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Ave. W., and 10:00 am and noon, March 6 at St. Leo the Great Parish, 28290 Beaumont Road, Bonita Springs.

All registration is being handled through your local Parish. Please reserve seats at least one week before the Mass you wish to attend.

To you, St. Joseph, we bring all the fears and anxieties that weighs us down. This pandemic has attacked God's people, bringing much illness, sorrow and death. We ask you, dearest St. Joseph, to be our guide along this very dark path, for you are the model of faith, courage and fidelity that we need so desperately. May the Lord send forth the purifying fire of the Holy Spirit, to end this outbreak of disease and renew the hearts of the faithful. Guide us to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, your beloved bride, and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the hope of all humanity. O St. Joseph, pray ceaselessly for us during this time of suffering, fear and great mourning. May this current pain inflicted upon mankind be transformed by the power of Christ's cross and lead to a new springtime of hope and devotion. Amen.

January 2021

Dear Brother and Sisters in Christ,

The Faithful of the Church in Latin America face many challenges. For the past 55 years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has helped the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean through an annual collection. This assistance has addressed barriers faced in increasing the growth of the Faith, including lack of resources, shortage of vocations, and poor infrastructure making relatively simple things difficult.

Many projects are needed in Latin America to offer the family, the basic unit of any society, a way to be strengthened and affirmed, as well as to celebrate their life together in faith. With the Church continuing to point the way to Christ as the source of love and healing within the family and society, they are offered a new and hopeful vision for a deeper relationship with God and with one another.

The annual collection for the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean this year will not only provide for pastoral initiatives, priestly formation, and educational programs, but will do so in the context of the COVID Pandemic. As historical assistance has been provided to our brothers and sisters in our Southern Hemisphere, let us again respond to this challenge with charity and compassion.

In the parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice, the Collection for the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean will take place the weekend of January 16 and 17, 2021. For the poor and the economically distressed living in this region, your support will truly make a difference. Please be generous!

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings for your safety in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for your support of the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
