

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God. - Jn 3:20-21

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Live in the Light

Loving Father,
in love you created the world,
and in love you sent its redeemer.
Early and often you called to our ancestors.
Early and often you call to us too.
Be merciful to us.
We were made in your image
and likeness.
You saw that we were very good.
We had all that we needed, yet you wanted to give us more.
This gift, which we cannot merit,
is the gift of your Son's life.
Help us to live in your light.
Guide us away from the darkness,
that we, new creations, might do the good works to which we are called.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Called to the Light

Today's readings: 2 Chronicles 36:14–16, 19–23; Psalm 137:1–2, 3, 4–5, 6; Ephesians 2:4–10; John 3:14–21. “For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.” This Scripture’s beauty, simplicity, and truth inspire people to answer the call of Jesus to spread the Good News.

Though we know that God made the world and everything in it and saw that it was good, we also see that the world is filled with darkness and difficulty. How can this be? Each of us can think of world events that break our hearts. We do not want to think about how our actions contribute to what breaks the hearts of others. In Chronicles, we hear that God sent messengers early and often to call the people away from their destructive decisions. In the Gospel, we hear that the people preferred darkness to light.

A bright light can dazzle our eyes. It can reveal things that were not visible in the dark. We might prefer to sit in the dark. But because of God’s great love, Ephesians states, we have been given a gift we do not deserve. Brought to life in Christ Jesus, we might live. We must turn away from our discomfort, our feelings of exposure and vulnerability, and go forth to do the work that we have been called to through our baptism. Is there something in your life that makes you prefer the darkness? How can you take away its power by exposing it to the light?

THIS WEEK AT HOME

Life-Giving Word

Jesus' second sign in Galilee, the healing of the official's child, occurs from a distance. Jesus' word provides healing and life to the boy, who is near death. We even hear that the fever left him at the time Jesus spoke. Jesus' word gives new life. We hear in Isaiah the prophecy of the new heavens and the new earth. "No longer shall the sound of weeping be heard there." How is this healing word of Jesus a sign of what is to come? What do you think the coming kingdom will be like? Today's readings: Isaiah 65:17–21; Psalm 30:2 and 4, 5–6, 11–12a and 13b; John 4:43–54.

Tuesday, March 16

Take Up Your Mat

Once again, Jesus' word brings healing and life. After encountering the healing word of Jesus, a man who has been ill for many years is able to pick up his mat and walk, with all the possibilities this new life suggests. Jesus' word gives life. It has power. Choose a phrase that Jesus states in Scripture and copy it three times. How is Jesus' word inviting you to new life today? Today's readings: Ezekiel 47:1–9, 12; Psalm 46:2–3, 5–6, 8–9; John 5:1–16.

Wednesday, March 17

St. Patrick

St. Patrick was a bishop in Ireland in the fifth century. He was responsible for the peaceful conversion of Ireland to Christianity. Kidnapped and sold into slavery in Ireland, he returned as a missionary to use his knowledge of Irish language and culture to evangelize. Celebrate St. Patrick, patron of Ireland, by living as a loving witness to Jesus, so that others might be brought to Christ through your love. Today's readings: Isaiah 49:8–15; Psalm 145:8–9, 13cd–14, 17–18; John 5:17–30.

Thursday, March 18

St. Cyril of Jerusalem

St. Cyril of Jerusalem was a bishop and a Doctor of the Church who lived in the fourth century. He wrote for those who were in the process of becoming Christians and also against heresies that were causing divisions within the Church. St. Cyril was a great catechist. Is there an opportunity for you to teach others about the faith? Today's readings: Exodus 32:7–14; Psalm 106:19–20, 21–22, 23; John 5:31–47.

Friday, March 19

St. Joseph

St. Joseph's vocation was one of the most important in history. God speaks to St. Joseph in dreams, but Joseph has no trouble distinguishing God's voice from other voices. He acts in accordance with the words he receives. And in so doing, he protects Mary and Jesus from the forces that wish to harm them. We can surmise that his awareness of God's voice might originate in a lifetime of attentiveness to God's presence and action in his life. In our time, just as in St. Joseph's, other voices vie for our attention and response. Ask St. Joseph to intercede for you, to ask God to help you to listen as he does. Then spend some time listening for God's voice in silent prayer, with Scripture, or in the voice of a trusted friend. Today's readings: 2 Samuel 7:4–5a, 12–14a, 16; Psalm 89:2–3, 4–5, 27 and 29; Romans 4:13, 16–18, 22; Matthew 1:16, 18–21, 24a or Luke 2:41–51a.

Saturday, March 20

Who Are You, Jesus?

As Jesus taught about the kingdom of God and did many signs, people who listened were divided about his identity. If Jesus is the messiah, raised from the dead, there is a reason for our hope. The ground of all reality is a love stronger than death. Yet often hope and trust are put in other things, and decisions are based on fear rather than love. How can you reorient your life so that your choices are guided by love, not fear? Today's readings: Jeremiah 11:18–20; Psalm 7:2–3, 9bc–10, 11–12; John 7:40–53.

Safe Haven Sunday: Thank You!

Our Safe Haven Sunday was a big success! St. Thomas More clergy and staff extend a tremendous "Thank You!" to all who made Safe Haven Sunday possible and to all parishioners for their support of the education and awareness on the issues of pornography at our Sunday celebration.

Again, thanks to our parish community for your openness to the topics of internet safety and the dignity of the human person in light of the pornographic culture. Just because Safe Haven Sunday is over for this year, it doesn't mean our efforts to make our homes safe havens is over. Stay informed at <https://www.covenanteyes.com>, and learn more about how to protect and guide your family and friends.

Bulletin Ad Space Available

Do you own a business, want to have a memorial ad for your loved, or just sponsor an ad in the bulletin that can be compliments of your family or promote a charity near and dear to you? If so, please consider placing an ad in the bulletin at St. Thomas More.

Unfortunately we have lost many of the advertisers on the bulletin during the pandemic and are now trying to rebuild the bulletin revenue. The weekly bulletin along with other printing services and the website are provided at no cost to St. Thomas More because of the generous advertisers on the bulletin.

Bulletin ads also provide monetary compensation on top of all the services provided at no cost above. If you are interested in sponsoring an ad please reach out to our Bulletin ad Rep Greg Maurer 941-243-3206, or email at gmaurer@4LPi.com

In today's Gospel, God demonstrates great love for us by sending his Son so that we may believe in him. We demonstrate our great love for God by doing good works: by reaching out to others, acting in justice and in charity.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work; far greater than you think. Know that your nickel, dime, quarter or dollar is multiplied by coins placed by others in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box (located in the church narthex).

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer is a way to draw closer to God. It is a Christian form of silent meditation that serves as a method of movement into contemplative prayer, a way to open oneself to the Divine Presence and, through the healing of the Holy Spirit, to be of greater service to those around us.

Our Centering Prayer Groups are meeting weekly on Zoom: Thursdays from 10:30-11:30 am and 5:00-6:00 pm. If you are interested in joining the Thursday morning group please contact Noreen Delaney at npolidoro@comcast.net or 941-228-1799

Please contact Bob Ferkenhoff at bferken@verizon.net or 941-350-6920 if you are interested in the Thursday evening group.

The Diocese of Venice has welcomed a number of Religious Sisters who are engaged in the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy and are dedicated to being of service to others, mostly in impoverished areas. They serve in positions such as Directors of Religious Education, teachers, School principals, catechists, Directors of Adult Faith Formation, and more. Their work has a tremendous impact on the communities they serve, especially the youth.

Your gift to the Catholic Faith Appeal ensures that these sisters continue to be present in the communities that need them the most.

Our Catholic Faith Appeal goal for 2021 is $290,000.

We can take secure credit card CFA donations.
Stop by or call the Parish Office: 941-923-1691.

— Catholic Relief Services Welcomes Pope Francis on Historic Visit to Iraq —

Pope Francis has chosen to visit Iraq as his first trip since the COVID-19 pandemic began. It's also a historic visit, the first time a pope has visited the country. Pope Francis brings his message of human fraternity, encouraging interreligious cooperation and peace. His visit comes at a time when Iraq is struggling to recover from violence.

Since 2014, Catholic Relief Services has helped more than 350,000 Iraqis affected by conflict. Work has included education, livelihoods, and shelter. CRS also supports religious leaders, communities and youth groups to work together to rebuild the trust damaged by years of violence.

"With this project, young people really feel like they are given the chance to give back to their communities and be part of a better future," Hassan Amer, a project officer for CRS in Iraq, said.

For young people who have not yet completed their education, getting back to the classroom is a priority. In 2014, when the Islamic State took control of the small village of Til Yara, 10 miles northeast of Mosul, almost everyone fled. Families in Til Yara are Shabak, a minority ethnic group that was targeted by IS for their religious beliefs and practices. When it was safe to return, residents found their village severely damaged. Til Yara Primary School, which was used by the Islamic State as a prison during their occupation, was not spared.

"The damage reached every corner of the school," said Head Teacher Mr. Mohammed. Windows were broken and doors were removed. Classrooms were set on fire.

Despite the damage, Mr. Mohammed knew it was vital for the recovery of the community that school reopen as quickly as possible. CRS repaired some of the damage, resurfaced the play yard and worked with the school to strengthen the Parent and Teacher Association.

"I can't thank CRS enough for all that they've provided the school," says Mr. Mohammed. Thanks to them, we're not only providing education to children, we're building a well-educated generation "

If you did not a rice bowl one, stop by or call the Parish Office, 941-923-1691. Consider using the change collected and convert it to a check made payable to Catholic Relief Services; dropping in a collection basket near a church exit.
