PRAYER & WORSHIP

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

My brothers and sisters,

As we draw close to the great Solemnity of the Nativity of our Savior, Jesus Christ, we have, in this liturgy of the 4th Sunday of Advent, beautiful readings from both the Old and New Testaments. From the Old Testament we have God questioning King David, "Should you build me a house to dwell in?" revealing through the prophet Nathan that God desires more than a constructed building to dwell in. In the New Testament we have Mary as the object of God's love, providing for us an icon to gaze into the mystery of God's desire in God revealing to us the dwelling He prefers. Isn't it interesting that, circumstantially, the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph searched far and wide in the town of Bethlehem for an inn and could not find one in preparation for the birth of Christ? At times, we can look at the nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ through the lens of tragedy in the sense that He was birthed into such an impoverished dwelling. Couldn't there have been a building, a house, an inn? Well, I would like to propose we look at the revelation differently, with eyes of faith, in order to see that God, the Father, has revealed to the entire world His desired dwelling. What manifested for us is that God desires to dwell within the sacred and fruitful confines of the warmth and love of the human family. Furthermore, God desires to dwell within the tabernacle of all tabernacles, i.e., the human heart! As we prepare ourselves to build out our church campus, to the praise and glory of God, we must take this revelation very seriously. What would these marvelously designed buildings be if within them there were no families to be fruitful and multiply in the eyes of God; in which God so clearly desires to dwell in? Consequently, my friends and family members, let us ensure that we are building our church today, always, and forever in order to please God and make a proper dwelling for Him in our familial community that we call the church.

- Fr. Pagano

Stewardship Prayer

Lead Me, Lord

My Lord, Jesus
When the rich man asked
What it was you wanted of him,
You asked him to sell all he had and come follow you.
Help me not to walk away as he did
But to not let anything
Keep me from you.
Out of love for me, you have Given me what I need.
Out of love for me, you have Trusted me with all good gifts.
Help me to realize what I have and
To always be aware and grateful.
Lord Jesus, you are the Source of all and I am your steward.
You have called me, I will answer.
Lead me Lord, I will go.

PRAYER & WORSHIP

READING 1: 2 SM 7:1-5, 8B-12, 14A, 16

When King David was settled in his palace, and the LORD had given him rest from his enemies on every side,
he said to Nathan the prophet,
"Here I am living in a house of cedar,
while the ark of God dwells in a tent!"
Nathan answered the king,
"Go, do whatever you have in mind,
for the LORD is with you."
But that night the LORD spoke to Nathan and said:
"Go, tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD:
Should you build me a house to dwell in?'"

"'It was I who took you from the pasture and from the care of the flock to be commander of my people Israel.
I have been with you wherever you went,
and I have destroyed all your enemies before you.
And I will make you famous like the great ones of the earth.
I will fix a place for my people Israel;
I will plant them so that they may dwell in their place without further disturbance.
Neither shall the wicked continue to afflict them as they did of old, since the time I first appointed judges over my people Israel.
I will give you rest from all your enemies.
The LORD also reveals to you that he will establish a house for you.
And when your time comes and you rest with your ancestors,
I will raise up your heir after you, sprung from your loins,
and I will make his kingdom firm.
I will be a father to him,
and he shall be a son to me.
Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me;
your throne shall stand firm forever.'"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 89:2-3, 4-5, 27,29

R. (2a) For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever;
through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness.
For you have said, "My kindness is established forever";
in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
"I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David my servant:
Forever will I confirm your posterity and establish your throne for all generations."
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
"He shall say of me, 'You are my father,
my God, the Rock, my savior.'
Forever I will maintain my kindness toward him,
and my covenant with him stands firm."
R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

READING 2: ROM 16:25-27

Brothers and sisters:
To him who can strengthen you,
according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret for long ages but now manifested through the prophetic writings and, according to the command of the eternal God, made known to all nations to bring about the obedience of faith, to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever.
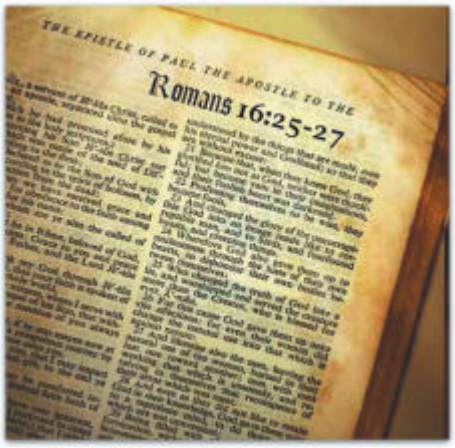
Amen.



GOSPEL: LK 1:26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph,
of the house of David,
and the virgin's name was Mary.
And coming to her, he said,
"Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you."
But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.
Then the angel said to her,
"Do not be afraid, Mary,
for you have found favor with God.
"Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son,
and you shall name him Jesus.
He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High,
and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever,
and of his kingdom there will be no end."
But Mary said to the angel,
"How can this be,
since I have no relations with a man?"
And the angel said to her in reply,
"The Holy Spirit will come upon you,
and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.
Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God.
And behold, Elizabeth, your relative,
has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren;
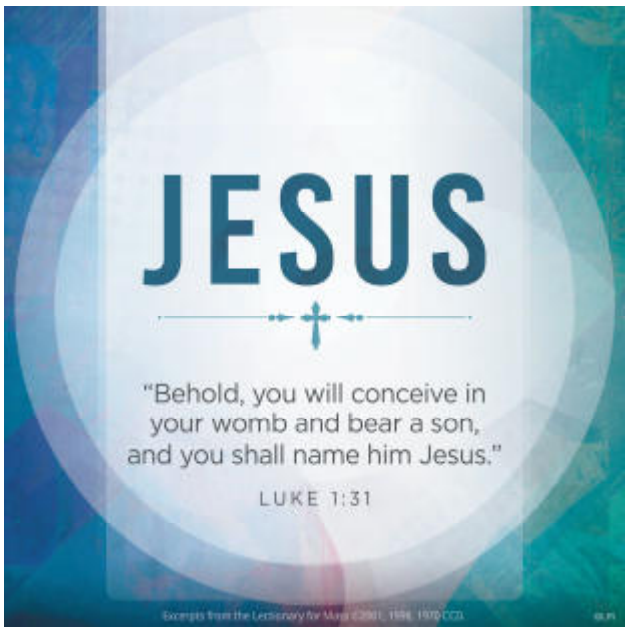
for nothing will be impossible for God."
Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
May it be done to me according to your word."
Then the angel departed from her.



THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the proph-ets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

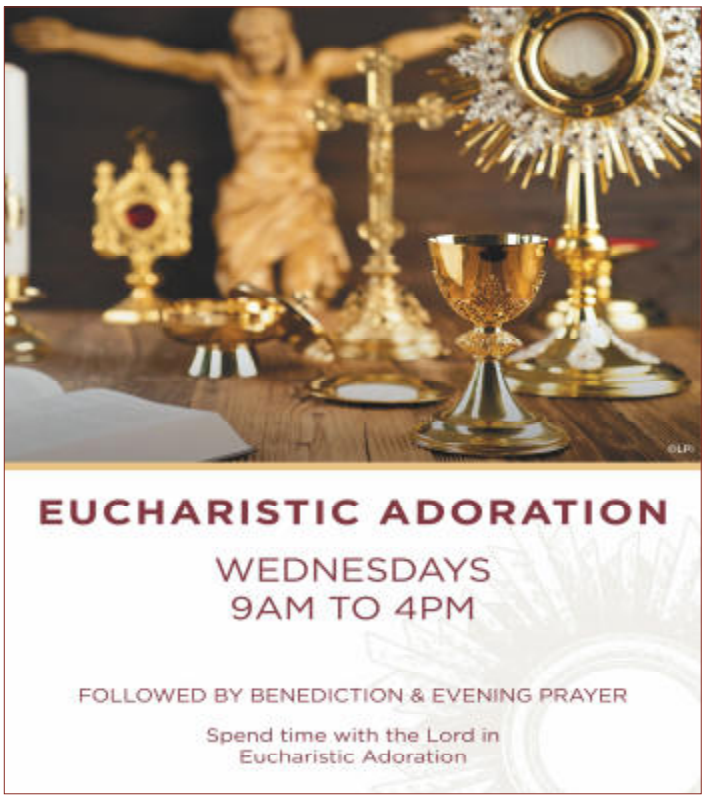
Amen.



Sock Collection

Sponsored by the Outreach Committee of the Parish Council

Please drop off new pairs of adult socks in the black bins in the church gathering area between now and December 27th.

Donations will go to help people in our community.

Thank You!

PARISH COMMUNICATION

The Year 2 Confirmation program "Chosen" is based on the discipleship model and we need our Parish community's support! The author of the book of Hebrews described Jesus' disciples as a "cloud of witnesses" that surrounds and encourages us to be rid of burdens and sins so we can fix our eyes on Jesus (Hebrews 12:1). YOU are those witnesses!

Each week we would like to have a dinner for our candidates to show them God's love and bond them in community. To do this we need Meal Teams to donate meals by preparing and serving dinners (or purchase to deliver) to our confirmation students. You can sign up for one date or many and feel free to invite friends to sign up too!

You can find the sign up at signupgenius.com and place this e-mail address in the search bar: Lorriejanderson@gmail.com. It can also be found on our parish website https://www.nocateecatholic.com/confirmation.

Thank you for praying for and encouraging these young disciples!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Christmas Gifts

Question:

Why do we give gifts at Christmas?

Answer:

Great events in and of themselves are not tangible. They occur in life but leave no mark behind, nothing that someone could come across and know that something significant occurred. So we mark the event with monuments, holidays, gold watches or plaques, making a meaningful event tangible and memorable.

Gifts at Christmas do the same thing. They mark the occasion of the birth of Jesus, communicating a bit of the joy of the day by allowing us to be both giver and receiver. Gift-giving sets aside the day as special and different. The special foods, customs, decorations, and gifts all help focus our attention on the importance and meaning of the day and at the same time allow us to share personally in its joy and happiness.

In giving gifts, though, we can share in the meaning of Christmas in a significant way. We imitate God in sharing with others. We give a bit of ourselves to others in the gifts we give, just as God gives us the gift of his Son. No wonder we often say that the best gifts are those that come from the heart. Given in love, these presents are wrapped in the best covering of all.
