REFLECTION

If we look at the Gospel of Mark, we see that the evangelist comes right to the point: Jesus was told about the woman's condition, he went over to her, "grasped her hand and helped her up and the fever left her. Jesus "helped her up" - this is the same expression in the New Testament that is often used in the resurrection stories. Mark is implying that this person is being given a new life, a life that only the risen Jesus can give.

The phrase "helped her up" is better translated, "raised her up" and this links the cure to the real completion of the mystery of suffering. Mark tells us that she becomes a disciple and that the process of discipleship is first the healing encounter with Jesus that enables service in his name. We, the church, the modern-day followers of Jesus, must recognize our responsibility to stop suffering as much as we can. In today's Gospel, Jesus is a sign of God's desire to deal with suffering. We do not deny the presence of suffering and the tragic in our lives; in fact, we do what we can to overcome it. But while Jesus deals with suffering and cures illnesses in these Gospel stories, he doesn't eliminate all pain from the world; somehow we deal with that suffering and its causes as we can, and are left with the awesome mystery of what remains.

That mystery rests in Jesus' proclamation that the "kingdom is at hand." The first major adjustment that the early Christian community had to make was recognizing that the world was not coming to an end and that service to others was to be the order of the day. The person of faith lives in and daily deals with the reality of this world - with all of its goodness and splendor as well as all of its suffering and death. Our task is to keep alive that proclamation that is finally affirmed in Jesus' life, death and resurrection. The new life we so desperately seek is not so much to be found in the "next life" but firmly rooted in this life, given us so freely by God.

And what does this new life look like? We are told when she was healed, the woman "began to wait on them." It sounds like she is doing household chores, "woman's work," but the word Mark uses is "diakonia," the word for "church work," or Christian ministry. So in reality, she is "waiting" on the community and does the work of building community. When people experience this new life from Jesus, they are willing and able to serve others. What one receives one wants to share. This woman is quick in her response and her "work" isn't taken on grudgingly, but with a sense of joy.

There is no "solution" to the mystery of suffering. We, too, long for a place in the shade. But we listen to today's Gospel and we know that unlike the innocent Job, Jesus is the sinless one who takes on our suffering; who suffers so others can be set free. This is the truth to be embraced and celebrated in our own discipleship. What Jesus did for Simon's mother-in-law he does for us, individually and as a community. He extends a hand to us, raising us up from sin and death to a new life.

And this new life gives us the power to see the needs of others and to respond with trust and joy. http://ecatholicism.org/

Stewardship Prayer

Lead Me, Lord

My Lord, Jesus
When the rich man asked
What it was you wanted of him,
You asked him to sell all he had and come follow you.
Help me not to walk away as he did
But to not let anything
Keep me from you.
Out of love for me, you have Given me what I need.
Out of love for me, you have
Trusted me with all good gifts.
Help me to realize what I have and
To always be aware and grateful.
Lord Jesus, you are the Source of all and I am your steward.
You have called me, I will answer.
Lead me Lord, I will go.

PRAYER & WORSHIP

READING 1: JB 7:1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying:
Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?
Are not his days those of hirelings?
He is a slave who longs for the shade,
a hireling who waits for his wages.
So I have been assigned months of misery,
and troubled nights have been allotted to me.
If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?"
then the night drags on;
I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.
My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.
Remember that my life is like the wind;
I shall not see happiness again.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

R. (cf. 3a) Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.
Praise the LORD, for he is good;
sing praise to our God, for he is gracious;
it is fitting to praise him.
The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem;
the dispersed of Israel he gathers.
R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.
He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
He tells the number of the stars;
he calls each by name.
R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.
Great is our Lord and mighty in power;
to his wisdom there is no limit.
The LORD sustains the lowly;
the wicked he casts to the ground.
R. Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

READING 2: 1 COR 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters:
If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast,
for an obligation has been imposed on me,
and woe to me if I do not preach it!
If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship.
What then is my recompense?
That, when I preach,
I offer the gospel free of charge
so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.
Although I am free in regard to all,
I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible.
To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak.
I have become all things to all, to save at least some.
All this I do for the sake of the gospel,
so that I too may have a share in it.

To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak, I have become all things to all, to save at least some.

–1 Corinthians 9:22

GOSPEL: MK 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue
Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John.
Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever.
They immediately told him about her.
He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up.
Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons.
The whole town was gathered at the door.
He cured many who were sick with various diseases,
and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed.
Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you."
He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also.
For this purpose have I come."
So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consub-stantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Children's MASS

Father Pagano and the St. John Paul II community are very excited to bring back the Children's Mass every Sunday at 12:00 starting February 14th!

We are looking for help during this Mass from the youth and young adults. There is a need for participation in all parts of the Mass including:

- Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers
- Altar Servers
- Lectors
- Ushers/Greeters

Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers need to have completed Confirmation, Altar Servers need to have completed First Communion and Lectors and Ushers can be any age as long as they can communicate and deliver the job effectively.

If you or your child are interested in helping in any of these areas please contact Amy Ayres at AmyAyres@verizon.net.

St. Josephine Bakhita

The saints are more than lovely pictures on a holy card. If we dig a little deeper, their lives can challenge and transform our own. On February 8th, the Church celebrates St. Josephine Bakhita. As a young girl, St. Josephine was kidnapped from her family in Darfur and sold into slavery at age nine. She was introduced to Catholicism as an adolescent and experienced a profound love for Jesus Christ. St. Josephine eventually gained legal freedom and entered religious life. Though she bore over one hundred scars beneath her habit, St. Josephine forgave her enemies and became known in the convent for her humility and joyful spirit.

Author Fr. Jeff Kirby writes, "Saint Josephine gives us all a scarred and human face to the evils of human trafficking, racial tension, and of the brutality found in the peripheries. Her life demands a response." As we approach the season of Lent, let us recall our own call to conversion and an active concern for those who suffer.

Men of Saint John Paul II Catholic Church – Please Consider Joining Your Saint John Paul II Knights of Columbus Council 16492

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal organization that was founded on the vision and goals of taking care of families and those in need in our community.

As a Catholic Man, the Knights are a great way to grow in your faith with your men of the parish, to support our Pastor and church community, and to help those in need in our own community through the "good deeds" the council accomplishes.

Becoming a Knight has become extremely easy at this time due to the covid19 pandemic. You can go to https://www.kofc.org/secure/en/join/join-the-knights.html and sign up to become a Knight or simply contact us about becoming a Knight.

If you have additional questions about the Knights of Columbus please contact:

PARISHIONER SPOTLIGHT

A belated "Thank you" to some very generous young parishioners who had a bake sale during the summer of 2020, and donated the proceeds to the Cornerstone Campaign. Your donation of $163.81 is very much appreciated!

Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal

Our Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal (BASA) is now underway. If you are a registered member of our parish or another parish in our diocese, you may have received a mailing from Bishop Estévez, asking for your support and participation in this year's Annual Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the Appeal using gift options on the response card mailed to you or by completing a commitment envelope at Mass next weekend.

Our annual theme, "One Faith, One Family" reminds us that our faith community is made up of a network of parishes. Bishop Estévez invites each of us to join together in support of the beautiful mission of the Church, as we are called to be good stewards of what we have been gifted with. We have the opportunity to proclaim His love and faithfulness through sharing the blessings we have gratefully received from Him. We ask that you commit this invitation to prayer and if your circumstances allow, please come prepared to respond next week. Your gift should be in addition to what you are already giving to your parish. Please know that every gift is important, especially as the Church continues to serve during these times of great need.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

THE AUDACITY OF HOLINESS

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness "a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness."

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that "the fever left her and she waited on them." Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?
