REFLECTION

Our daily lives are filled with a routine and a lot of daily tasks. In our daily lives, sometimes, without knowing it, or even when we are aware of it, we can get locked into our own world, our particular situation, and our daily routine. We can forget about or lose sight of the fact that we are part of a much bigger world, a bigger reality, and a universal community of faith.

In the Gospel today, in our celebration of the Transfiguration of Jesus, Jesus takes some of his apostles away from their daily routine, inviting them to go with him up a mountaintop. Although, on the surface, this does not seem unusual, because Jesus sometimes goes off to places like the mountains to pray and to get away. Jesus became transfigured before the apostles, which is something special and unusual. He clothing became as white as light. Imagine the surprise and the shock on the part of the apostles. Most importantly, the apostles heard a voice from the clouds say: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." These words are meant for us to hear today as well. Today, we are bombarded by so much noise and so many messages in the world. We have 24 hours news programs, 24 hour internet, and 24 hour social media. We have smart phones that link us to so many things instantly. News from around the world arrives in seconds to us. We hear so much news, but a lot of it is not good news. Some of it is not even real news. So much of what we hear in the media today is slanted opinion, not objective fact. The word and message that Jesus speaks to us and offers us today are life-giving and life-changing. The words of Jesus are there to nourish us, to nurture us, and to sustain us. However, we need to open our hearts and our lives to hearing his words and the message contained therein. Yes, it is only the Lord who has the message of eternal life.

As we hear the Gospel of the transfiguration today, we are in the midst of challenging reality, that is for sure. However, there are many blessings in our lives as well. There are blessings that have come with the pandemic. We have to be open to seeing those blessings.

*To Our Beloved Church Family,
Thank you doesn't begin to express our heartfelt gratitude for your prayers, support, generosity, and gracious love. We could have never imagined walking this devastating journey of grief we now find ourselves on as we mourn the loss of our sweet saint Sarah Collins. Your encouragement, words of compassion, and most importantly prayers demonstrate the grace of the Holy Spirit. This grace is carrying us through this time, you have all been the hands, feet, and heart of Jesus for us. The community that we are building at our truly blessed church is a gift from the Lord, a treasure from heaven above, and we look forward to serving you in the way that you have served us as brothers and sisters in Christ.
All our Love and Prayers,
The Limbaugh Family*

Stewardship Prayer

Lead Me, Lord

My Lord, Jesus
When the rich man asked
What it was you wanted of him,
You asked him to sell all he had and come follow you.
Help me not to walk away as he did
But to not let anything
Keep me from you.
Out of love for me, you have Given me what I need.
Out of love for me, you have Trusted me with all good gifts.
Help me to realize what I have and
To always be aware and grateful.
Lord Jesus, you are the Source of all and I am your steward.
You have called me, I will answer.
Lead me Lord, I will go.

PRAYER & WORSHIP

READING 1: GN 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test.
He called to him, "Abraham!"
"Here I am!" he replied.
Then God said:
"Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love,
and go to the land of Moriah.
There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you."
When they came to the place of which God had told him,
Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it.
Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son.
But the LORD's messenger called to him from heaven,
"Abraham, Abraham!"
"Here I am!" he answered.
"Do not lay your hand on the boy," said the messenger.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 116:10,15,16-17,18-19

R. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."
Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

O LORD, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid;

READING 2: ROM 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us?
He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

"Do not do the least thing to him.
I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son."
As Abraham looked about,
he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket.
So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.
Again the LORD's messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said:
"I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son,
I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command."

you have loosed my bonds.
To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.
R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.
My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people,
In the courts of the house of the LORD,
in your midst, O Jerusalem.
R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us, who will condemn?
Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

GOSPEL: MK 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no fuller on earth could bleach them. Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here! Let us make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified. Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.

SANCTUS

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus
Dóminus Deus Sábaoth.
Pleni sunt cæli et terra glória tua.
Hosánna in excélsis.
Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Dómini.
Hosánna in excélsis.

MYSTERIUM FIDEI

Mortem tuam annuntiámus, Dómine, et tuam resurrectionem confitémur, donec vénias.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Lenten Lessons:

Wednesdays: March 3, 10 and 17, 2021 at 7:30pm

Join us on March 3rd at 7:30pm in the Church for our first of three Lenten Lessons.

The first topic will be on PRAYER. Join us as we present Bishop Barron's DVD entitled: "Prayer and the Life of the Spirit".

People enter into this conversation of prayer all of the time. Studies show that even non-believers pray. But what is prayer? What exactly are we doing when we pray? Prayer is multi-faceted and complex; it takes numerous forms and is expressed in countless ways.

Come join your fellow parishioners for a journey into prayer and its meaning.

Confirmation Retreat

The Confirmation Retreat at Mission Nombre De Dios was abundantly blessed! THANK YOU for all your prayers, and THANK YOU to everyone who supported this effort! There were 59 confirmandi who were able to attend and 30 teen and adult helpers. We had the day with Fr. Pagano, who celebrated Holy Mass at the historic altar; we heard many inspiring talks by young people; we had small group faith-sharing time; we were given a beautiful teaching by Dr. Mary Soha about several martyrs on the Mission site, including Roberto and Alladio--the two martyrs our parish has adopted. We also had Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament to end the day, which was a very holy time of prayer and song. God is doing great things, and we are grateful how He is preparing hearts for the reception of the sacrament of confirmation this May. To God be the Glory! Come Holy Spirit!
