REFLECTION

My sisters and brothers in Christ,
We are temples of the Holy Spirit. Christ cleanses the physical temple in Jerusalem of all that is not leading people to God. We ourselves must be cleansed of all that does not lead us to God.

The first reading today is from the Book of Exodus and gives us the commandments of the Lord. Knowing the commandments of the Lord and striving to live in our lives these commandments is one of the way of being cleansed for God. We cannot achieve our own salvation but we can strive to cooperate with what God is asking of us and has asked of His People throughout the ages. The Book of Exodus makes it clear that God wants His People for Himself and is jealous in His love for us. This is a good jealousy that leads us to salvation and assures us that God is always there striving to love us and draw us to Himself.

Lent is a wonderful time to reflect on our own responses to God's love. First we can always ask ourselves: Do I really believe that God loves me, just as I am right now? Do I believe that God is my ally in seeking to cleanse my life of all that impedes my relationship with God? Do I really trust the love of this God, who never wants to destroy me but who always wants me to be for Him?

The second reading is from the First Letter to the Corinthians. Saint Paul is clear that he proclaims Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles. We can imagine how odd it must have sounded to people of the time of Saint Paul to say that a Savior had actually come and was crucified—but that the Crucified One was and is God! Even today people find it very difficult to believe that Jesus is Lord and God. We can think of a Eastern song that proclaims: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and upon those in the tombs bestowing life! That is the heart of our Christian proclamation. We must believe that Jesus is fully human and fully God, that Jesus lived among us, that Jesus was crucified for us—and yes, Jesus rose from the dead for us.

Over and over we return to the incredible Good News: Christ rose from the dead! Christ is risen! He died for us, but He rose for us as well, to show us that there is another life and that there is life after death and that we are all invited to share in this Divine Life.

Today's section of the Gospel of Saint John reflects on the cleansing of the temple and shows us Jesus telling those who doubt Him: "Destroy this temple and I shall raise it up in three days." Those around Him did not understand until after the Resurrection. Jesus spoke to His followers and to others with clarity, even when they could not yet understand what He was saying.

Do we listen to the Lord? Can we believe His words? Lent prepares us to celebrate the death and resurrection of the Lord—when we have faith. Let us walk in the way of the Lord.

Your brother in the Lord,
Abbot Philip

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS
9AM TO 4PM

FOLLOWED BY BENEDICTION & EVENING PRAYER

Spend time with the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration

Stewardship Prayer Lead Me, Lord

My Lord, Jesus
When the rich man asked
What it was you wanted of him,
You asked him to sell all he had
and come follow you.
Help me not to walk away as he did
But to not let anything
Keep me from you.
Out of love for me, you have Given me what I need.
Out of love for me, you have
Trusted me with all good gifts.
Help me to realize what I have and
To always be aware and grateful.
Lord Jesus, you are the Source of all and I am your steward.
You have called me, I will answer.
Lead me Lord, I will go.

PRAYER & WORSHIP

READING 1: EX 20:1-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:

“I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery.

You shall not have other gods besides me.
You shall not carve idols for yourselves
in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth;
you shall not bow down before them or worship
them.

For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers’ wickedness
on the children of those who hate me,
down to the third and fourth generation;
but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation
on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.

“You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain.

For the LORD will not leave unpunished
the one who takes his name in vain.

“Remember to keep holy the sabbath day.
Six days you may labor and do all your work,
but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD,

your God.

No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter,
or your male or female slave, or your beast,
or by the alien who lives with you.

In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth,
the sea and all that is in them;
but on the seventh day he rested.
That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day
and made it holy.

“Honor your father and your mother,
that you may have a long life in the land
which the LORD, your God, is giving you.

You shall not kill.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor’s house.

You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife,
nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass,
nor anything else that belongs to him.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 19:8,9,10,11

R. (John 6:68c) Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The law of the LORD is perfect,
refreshing the soul;

The decree of the LORD is trustworthy,
giving wisdom to the simple.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The precepts of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;

the command of the LORD is clear,
enlightening the eye.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

The fear of the LORD is pure,
enduring forever;
the ordinances of the LORD are true,
all of them just.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

They are more precious than gold,
than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup
or honey from the comb.

R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

READING 2: 1 COR 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters:
Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom,
but we proclaim Christ crucified,
a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles,
but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike,
Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.
For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom,
and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

GOSPEL: JN 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near,
Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
He found in the temple area those who sold oxen,
sheep, and doves,
as well as the money changers seated there.
He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen,
and spilled the coins of the money changers
and overturned their tables,
and to those who sold doves he said,
"Take these out of here,
and stop making my Father's house a marketplace."
His disciples recalled the words of Scripture,
Zeal for your house will consume me.
At this the Jews answered and said to him,
"What sign can you show us for doing this?"
Jesus answered and said to them,
"Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up."
The Jews said,
"This temple has been under construction for forty-

six years,
and you will raise it up in three days?"
But he was speaking about the temple of his body.
Therefore, when he was raised from the dead,
his disciples remembered that he had said this,
and they came to believe the Scripture
and the word Jesus had spoken.
While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover,
many began to believe in his name
when they saw the signs he was doing.
But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all,
and did not need anyone to testify about human nature.
He himself understood it well.

PRAYER AND WORSHIP

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Lenten Lessons:

Wednesdays: March 10 and 17, 2021
at 7:30pm

Join us on March 10th at 7:30pm in the Church for our second of three Lenten Lessons.

The second topic will be on Mother Teresa. Join us as we view the movie DVD entitled: "Mother Teresa".

We follow the daily activities of Mother Teresa and her nuns, in service to the poor of India and the world. Mother Teresa attends to the basic needs of her nuns and the poor, while at the same time, balances her role as world-recognized leader. Throughout the film, we witness personal and "behind-the-scenes" events, including the blessing ceremony of a nun becoming part of Mother Teresa's "Sisters of the Poor" convent.

Come join your fellow parishioners for a journey into compassion and selfless giving.

LIVING OUR FAITH

Catholic Charities Devine Society

Catholic Charities Jacksonville has been working tirelessly to meet the sharp increase in community need due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This past fiscal year – ending June 30, 2020 – we distributed a total of 439,800 pounds of food to 21,010 clients, while serving 2,605 clients with $1.8 million in direct emergency financial assistance with rent, mortgage, and utilities.

But as our organization continues to serve the community, it does so without the ability to safely host its traditional, large-scale fundraisers – like Festival d’Vine and the Black & White Ball – which historically bring hundreds of thousands of dollars into the agency to support its mission to serve the most vulnerable in our community.

That’s why we’re inviting the community to join us as members of Catholic Charities Jacksonville’s new Divine Society – an exclusive group of compassionate individuals dedicated to supporting the nonprofit’s critical programs.

For more information about the Divine Society and membership levels or for more information about Catholic Charities Jacksonville’s programs, visit www.ccbjax.org/divinesociety

Men of Saint John Paul II Catholic Church – Please Consider Joining Your Saint John Paul II Knights of Columbus Council 16492

The Knights of Columbus is a fraternal organization that was founded on the vision and goals of taking care of families and those in need in our community.

As a Catholic Man, the Knights are a great way to grow in your faith with your men of the parish, to support our Pastor and church community, and to help those in need in our own community through the “good deeds” the council accomplishes.

Becoming a Knight has become extremely easy at this time due to the covid19 pandemic. You can go to <https://www.kofc.org/secure/en/join/join-the-knights.html> and sign up to become a Knight or simply contact us about becoming a Knight.
