HELP US CREATE THIS SANCTUARY

We humbly ask you to pray for the success of this campaign and to consider making a financial contribution to participate in bringing this vision to reality.

"Now more than ever, in a world that is often without light and without the courage of noble ideals, people need the fresh, vital spirituality of the gospel." – St. John Paul II

REFLECTION

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

This Gospel and the feast of Epiphany are not intended to offer us figures to admire, but a journey to join. The Magi's quest reveals the need for a guide and the discipline of discernment.

As someone who has taught adolescents for more than 40 years, I am struck by how important it is for students to have reliable guideposts as they make their way to spiritual and intellectual maturity.

The Magi realized that the star was their GPS. They needed it especially when their guidance system was "hacked" by Herod and his dark forces of envy and control. They needed to discern the nature of the deceit and exploitation they encountered, elements that continue to assail today's searchers. How stark is the contrast between the secret plots of Herod in his palace and the brightness of the star that shines for all to see on the way to Bethlehem.

I have learned a few saving lessons from the Magi and from generations of my students who have made a similar quest for truth. We need the comfort and diversity of fellow travelers to help keep us on course. And we need to discern between the sinful intent of figures like Herod, who hide behind secrecy and privilege, and the innocence of a Christ child, who offers himself in simple surroundings.

When we acquire that gift of discernment, we more readily do what the Magi did—we bow down and offer our gifts. In the flow of grace that comes from that encounter, we come to discern correctly the voice that guides us where we are meant to go.

BIBLE STUDY RESUMES JANUARY 13, 2022

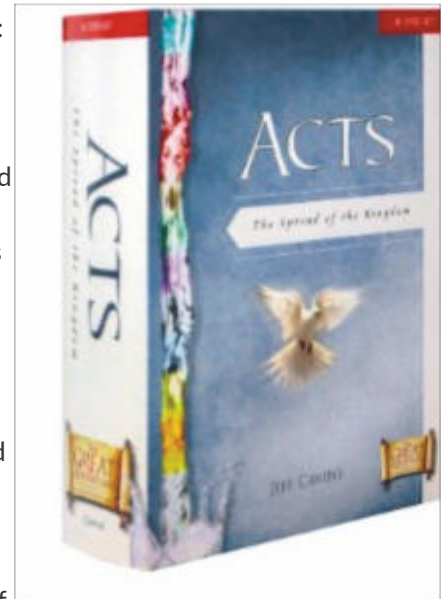

NEW DATE

It's not too late to join our study on “Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom” each Thursday at 9:30am in the church. It will help you to see your place in the Church as a disciple of Christ. We have completed 8 of the 20 sessions, so begin your New Year with a purpose. Review and outlines for the first sessions will be available.

Acts is the story of how a few Christians, empowered by the Holy Spirit, were chosen to bring Christ and the Good News to the ends of the earth. They faced secular forces, internal strife, and hostile crowds, and despite all of this, they brought the kingdom of God to a broken world and the love of God to the hearts of men. Presenter Jeff Cavins shows how the joys and struggles of the early Christians in living the life of Christ apply to us today.

All are welcome. Contact Marsha Slick at chsmss2@live.com or 904-395-3638 to register or more information.

FINANCIAL PLANNING BIBLE STUDY

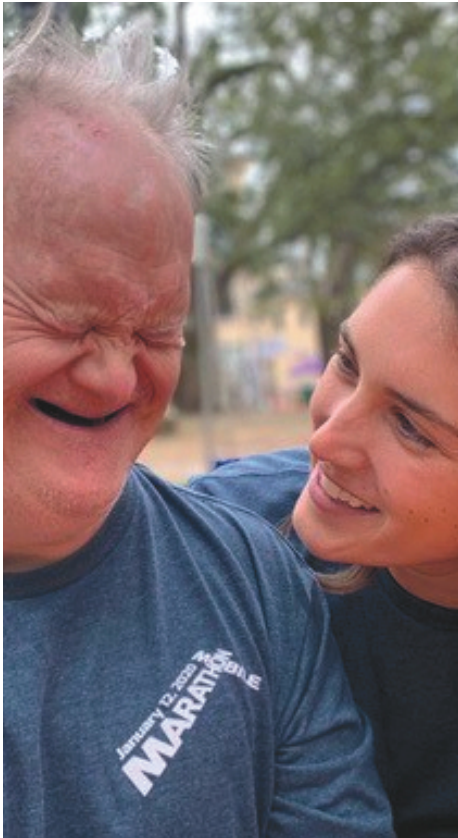

FAITH & MONEY MATTERS

A fully Catholic 6-week Bible Study which teaches a faith perspective about personal finances, will begin soon.

Participants read and answer questions about Bible verses, which are discussed in the meeting. Learning is enhanced through personal financial exercises, which helps implement biblical principles in our everyday lives. Topics include: God's Role as Owner and Our Role as Stewards; Debt, Co-signing; Honesty; Seeking Godly Counsel; Generosity; Work; Saving; Investing; Crises; Contentment; and Eternity.

Today's secular world drives us to focus on material things, blurring the lines between needs and wants. In this situation, money can become our number one priority. Faith & Money Matters delves into these important issues, teaching us how to focus on God's Word in handling our finances.

For more information, contact Ted Brauch, ted.brauch@yahoo.com / 904-534-9548.

EPIPHANY

QUESTION:

Besides the Wise Men, what is significant about the Epiphany?

ANSWER:

Epiphany means “manifestation,” or public display. The feast is usually celebrated January 6. In the US, it is celebrated on the Sunday nearest to January 6. It originates from a story unique to Matthew (2:1-12). Magi from the East come to offer homage to the newborn King, presenting him with gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

This part of Matthew’s infancy narrative differs from Luke’s account of the birth of Jesus. In Luke there are no Magi, star, nor gifts. Luke has Jesus being born in a stable after Mary and Joseph’s long travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem. Matthew seems to have the family living in a house in Bethlehem, where the Magi find them.

Why these differences? They stem from the needs and concerns of the audience the authors were addressing, as well as the theological stance of each author. Knowing the original intention helps get at the correct interpretation of the text.

Since Matthew was writing primarily to a Jewish community, his concern was to show that Jesus did not come just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. From his very birth, Jesus not only manifests himself to Jews, but also to Gentiles, who are prominently included in the manifestation, symbolized by the Magi and their journey. This is the most significant aspect of the feast of Epiphany. How do you manifest Jesus to all with whom you come into contact?

ST. ELIZABETH ANN SETON, JANUARY 4

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph’s Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter’s Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of “saint.”
