HELP US CREATE THIS SANCTUARY

We are in the final stages of collecting responses for the Planning Survey. The results of the survey will enable us to move to the programming and concept design phase of our planning. If you have not participated in the Planning Study survey, please scan the QR code and submit your responses online. If you received the survey in the mail, you may return it to the parish office.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to St. John Paul II Church.

“Now more than ever, in a world that is often without light and without the courage of noble ideals, people need the fresh, vital spirituality of the gospel.” — St. John Paul II

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- In collaboration with the Steier Group, our Planning Study survey will gather important information about the community's response to the campus vision and our fundraising potential to support the capital campaign.
- Once we have an idea of our fundraising potential, our Building Committee will work with Michael G. Imber Architects and our architect of record to create the design of the campus based on our programming needs.
- After the design is approved, the architects will begin to develop cost estimates and analyses for the campus build out.

Father Pagano and the Staff at St. John Paul II Parish welcome our parishioners, their families, and all who are visiting to our celebration of The Nativity of the Lord.

It is a joy to have you as part of our community during this important liturgical solemnity.

We pray that you and your family have a blessed Christmas season filled with peace, joy, and love.

May God abundantly bless you today and throughout the New Year.

Christmas Prayer

God of love, Father of all, the darkness that covered the earth has given way to the bright dawn of your Word made flesh.

Make us a people of this light. Make us faithful to your Word, that we may bring your life to the waiting world.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

“A church is only as healthy as its outreach program.” — Fr. Pagano

Throughout the year our parish has supported the community through prayer, service, goods donations, and contributions. We are honored to serve the needs of our community, locally and digitally, through the many outreach programs and opportunities in which we participate.

Thank you to the St. John Paul II Catholic Church Parish for your constant commitment and support of our programing.

The Parish Office will be closed for the Christmas holiday from Thursday, December 22nd at 4:00pm until Tuesday, January 3rd at 9:30am.

Merry Christmas!

Ministry Activities

SAINT JOHN PAUL II KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

FOOD DRIVE

All Masses January 7 & 8

Please support Catholic Charities Food Bank in St Augustine and help those families, individuals, and seniors in need.

This food drive continues to be very important as St. Augustine Catholic Charities Food Bank strives to meet the increased needs of our community.

Your generous support by donating food this weekend at all Masses will help the hungry and undernourished in our community and St Johns County.

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

PRAYER SHAWL PROGRAM

The Prayer Shawl Program volunteers meet the first and third Thursdays, 2:00 - 3:30pm at St. John Paul II. New volunteers are always needed and welcomed!

Volunteers knit, crochet, sew, prepare, and pray over yarn, fabric and fleece shawls bringing God's message of kindness and compassion through their gifts.

Donations of yarn and/or one ½ yard of fleece are gratefully accepted. Prayer shawls are available for those in need of God's presence, strength, and blessings.

To request a shawl or for more information, please contact the program facilitator: Mary Therese Capone, prayershawl@nocateecatholic.com, 631-413-7267 or Marcia Garrett, 386-235-0814.

HOLY COMMUNION FOR THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

Please let our Ministry to the Sick volunteers bring you the Eucharist and pray with you. Only a commissioned minister should bring the Eucharist outside of church. Send an email to ministry@nocateecatholic.com or contact the parish office at 904-330-0153 to schedule a visit.

MOMS MINISTRY

All moms, all stages and ages, are welcome to join to pray, play and/or serve!

The Moms Ministry offers weekly, monthly and seasonal opportunities to connect:

- Weekly Rosary
- Weekly Play Dates
- Weekly Stroller Walks
- Monthly Moms' Night Out
- Triannual Holy Hours
- Service Opportunities
- Ways to support local moms...& more!

Join us on Flocknote for regular updates on SJPII Mom happenings: nocateecatholic.flocknote.com/SJP2mom

Expecting or in the process of adopting? We'd love to support you! Please contact momsministry@nocateecatholic.com for more information.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

SPRING STUDY: RECLAIMING FRIENDSHIP

Do you desire lasting and abiding friendships? Do you want to move beyond the past hurts of relationships gone wrong?

All ladies of the parish are invited to join Walking with Purpose for our spring study, Reclaiming Friendship. During this 10-week study, we will explore topics such as: how to make deep, lasting connections, what it takes to stay close for the long haul, what to look for in a friend, and how to navigate toxic relationships.

Women of all ages are welcome and you do not need previous Bible study experience to participate. Meetings will be held on Tuesday mornings from 9:45am - 11:45am at the church, beginning on January 10th. There is also a Monday evening session which meets at a parishioner's home (spaces are limited).

For more information or to sign up, visit nocateecatholic.com/wwp or email Stephanie Hardin and Stacy Meyers at wwp@nocateecatholic.com. Registration is $12.50, and you will need to purchase the book, Reclaiming Friendship, as well.

SAINT'S FEAST DAY

SAINT STEPHEN | DECEMBER 26

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD | DECEMBER 25

As we age, time seems to pass more quickly. Years seemingly fly by as one holiday flows into the next, January quickly becomes December and life maintains its hectic pace. What do we accomplish in all of that busyness? Perhaps technology is responsible for some of the frenzy, keeping us isolated in our social media worlds, communicating through texts rather than in person, and always connected to world events. We're over stimulated in many ways by information, noise, opinions, and ideologies. Yet, we still find the time to decorate our homes, purchase gifts, and plan Christmas gatherings. We know, however, that the true meaning of Christmas is not found in twinkling lights, beautifully adorned trees, perfectly set tables or exchanged gifts. We are being called to something deeper and more authentic.

Christmas reminds us to look for God along the way of our lives and not get distracted by the illusions around us. Our world's complexity can leave us feeling displaced, desperate, alone, neglected, and unimportant. Joseph and Mary felt that way too. In the midst of all that captures and intrigues us in our self-created virtual worlds, is this longing for the anchor of faith to keep us grounded and make sense of it all. Only faith can give us the perspective to see what truly matters in life. We discover our divinely blessed humanity. The uncertain and challenging journey to Bethlehem gives way to the tender moments of birth and its embrace. Christmas softens us and slows us down a bit. It shows us Jesus as the light who enlightens everyone. It shows us the truth.

The faith that comes from Christmas calms our fears and allows us to go into the nighttime of our lives courageously. We are never lost or alone. We need to stop and savor more of life's moments before they slip away in time. God is with us, loving us, and leading us where we need to be. God is born again and again in every soul willing to give birth to His presence. God connects us and provides us with a place where we feel safe and welcome: home. Merry Christmas!

FORMED PICKS OF THE WEEK

DECEMBER 25

Do you know how Christmas is celebrated in Rome?

Watch "Christmas in Rome" on FORMED.org and see how one of the greatest days on the Christian calendar is celebrated in the Holy City of Rome. Christmas in Rome follows the celebration of the Nativity throughout history, from a tiny grotto in Bethlehem to the biggest Nativity scene in Saint Peter's Square.

Fight the secular commercialization of Christmas that kids are exposed to by watching "Lukas Storyteller: The True Meaning of Christmas" on FORMED.org. Lukas' friends are focused on the gifts they expect to receive, but he will help them understand the true story of Christmas and how the birth of the Son of God should change our hearts.

Silent Night

Silent night, holy night!

All is calm, all is bright; round yon virgin mother and child.

Holy Infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Silent night, holy night!

Shepherds quake at the sight. Glories stream from heaven afar, heav'nly hosts sing, Alleluia!

Christ, the Savior, is born! Christ, the Savior, is born!

Silent night, holy night!

*Son of God, love's pure light; radiant beams from thy holy face with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.*

Our team mission is to love & serve people through the significant life experience of buying or selling real estate. Our values are honesty, humility, passion, professionalism, reverence for people & abundance. In this spirit, we are offering that 10% of the commission earned from the purchase or sale of your home be given to St. John Paul II Catholic Church OR to Comunità Cenacolo. You choose!
