BECOMING A LIGHT TO THE NATIONS

March 19th, the Feast of St. Joseph, the Worker, holds special meaning at St. John Paul II Church. In 2020, through the intercession of St. Joseph, our parish eliminated the debt on our current facilities as we prayed the 44-day Consecration to Jesus through St. Joseph. On May 1, 2020, we celebrated the Feast of St. Joseph astoundingly debt-free.

Last Spring, through a 7-week prayer journey, Father Pagano led the parish in the practice of Lectio Divina and we reflected deeply on our commitment to God's plan for ourselves, our church, and our community.

The Arise & Build program confronted us with the needs of our world and introduced us to the resources that St. John Paul II parish will provide to meet these needs as we build out our campus.

Your steadfast prayers and continued financial generosity have launched our Light to the Nations Capital Campaign and enabled us to achieve important milestones in our design and development process with our architectural team.

As March 19th approaches, we prepare to pray together, once again, the 44-day Consecration to Jesus through St. Joseph and to ask, through his intercession, that he guides our hearts and minds as we labor and sacrifice to provide a sanctuary where we welcome all people who are seeking consolation, mercy, and community to come and participate in the plan God has for His people.

We invite you to join with us this Lenten season through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving to reflect on ways we can use our gifts from God to share His mercy and love with those in our families, our parish, and our communities.

St. Joseph, pray for us.

Watch “The Three Temptations” this week on FORMED.org. Dr. Brant Pitre explains each temptation, why the devil chose it and how these three temptations get to the heart of the meaning of Lent.

Lent and Eucharist go hand in hand, and our children need constant education and reminders about this extra-special sacrament. GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 3, 2024

3rd Sunday of Lent

I am the Lord your God ... You shall not have other gods beside me. —Ex 20:2-3

One of the greatest golfers of all time — if not the greatest — was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, as we begin Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to “have no other gods besides me.” This is our “grip.” Is our connection to God one of absolute fidelity and exclusive worship? Am I willing to let go of my precious idols, the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say “yes” to this fundamental question of our spiritual “grip,” then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life. Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment. The more we focus on worshiping God alone, the better we navigate the complexity of life with panache, effectiveness, and love.

Lenten challenge: This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this “idol” to better hold on to God alone in faithful worship. Remember: the best love the basics.
