BECOMING A LIGHT TO THE NATIONS

LIGHT TO THE NATIONS CAPITAL CAMPAIGN QUARTERLY UPDATE

MILESTONES

- May 2023 - Successfully launched pledge phase of capital campaign
- Oct 2023 - Raised an amazing $1MM at Beacon of Light Gala
- Jan 2024 - Secured approval from the Diocese for our Phase One site plan

PROGRESS

- 740 total families have pledged nearly $9MM

The SJPII Building Committee is working diligently with the architects and designers to finalize the plans for Phase One.

We expect to have some even more exciting news in the next quarterly update.

WE NEED YOU!

The success of our parish depends on our community participating in all levels of stewardship: Time, Talent & Treasure.

Your generosity and commitment to St. John Paul II Parish attracts the faithful, ministers to those in need, and answers the call that God has for each one of us.

As Lent brings us to Holy Week and Easter, let us reflect on our participation in the church and the ways in which we use God's blessings to do His work.

Prayer & Worship

PRAYER OF ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

*Take, Lord, and receive all my liberty,
My memory, my understanding
And my entire will,
All I have and call my own.
You have given all to me.
To you, Lord, I return it.
Everything is yours; do with it what you will.
Give me only your love and your grace.
That is enough for me. Amen.*

Once a slave of the Irish people, after his escape he was called by God to return to them as a priest to evangelize the Irish with the Catholic faith. Follow this amazing journey to the many places of Patrick's adventure through Ireland.

Our children know of St. Patrick, but do they know why he is credited with bringing the gospel to Ireland? Watch "The Story of St. Patrick" this week with them on FORMED.org. After six years as a slave, Patrick hears the Holy Spirit and makes a daring escape. Patrick first becomes a priest and then a bishop, and then makes a stunning decision: He will return to his kidnappers as a missionary!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 17, 2024

5th Sunday of Lent

A middle-aged woman sat on the couch in my parish office and recounted to me a shocking list of terrible calamities in her life: addictions, terminal illnesses, financial loss, broken relationships, and so on. She smiled as she did so. “Please forgive me,” I asked, “but you seem to be smiling as you share this.” She said, “Father John, I am totally overwhelmed. But I’m smiling because I just can’t wait to see what good things God does with this mess.” She expected God would manifest His glory when she most needed it.

This week in the Gospel, God speaks from heaven for the third and final time in Jesus’ earthly ministry. It’s at a tough moment. Gentiles seek Jesus, who announces his terrible suffering, and then boldly prays, “Father, glorify your name!” John then writes: Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it and will glorify it again.” Was the task of drawing the whole non-Jewish world to himself overwhelming? Or was it the terrible specter of crucifixion? Whatever it was, the crushing weight triggers his turning to the Father with an unshakeable expectation of divine glory to burst through. And indeed, it did on Easter Sunday. In our burdens, our greatest strength is to turn to God and boldly ask Him for His glory.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to list out everything which is a burden to you. Write it down. Then add these words: “Father, glorify Your name in all these things!” Put that paper in your pocket or purse when you come to Holy Week liturgies next week. You might smile at the most unlikely times.

— Father John Muir
