GRACE & RECOVERY

The Grace and Recovery Ministry meets the 1st and 3rd Mondays each month at 7pm in the Church. All are welcome. The purpose of these Grace and Recovery meetings is to bring freedom, in complete anonymity, to those who love someone with an addiction and those personally struggling with addiction. We hope that we can find a personal relationship with Christ as we heal through each other's experiences, strengths, and hopes, as we grow through our journey in recovery. Because of the serious nature of our discussions, we ask that participants be at least 17 years of age.

Sign up through Flocknote or reach out to the team leads directly at: graceandrecovery@nocateecatholic.com Or visit our website: www.graceandrecovery.org

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

August 25, 2024-21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The famous Russian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky said, “Love in action is a harsh and dreadful thing.” In the Gospel reading this week, Jesus does something harsh and dreadful – he watches his own disciples abandon him. What could possibly be loving about that? Well, we notice the context is Jesus’ teaching about eating and drinking his body and blood. His followers hear this and say, “This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?” (John 6:60). We shouldn’t imagine we’d do anything different, because not even the ones who stay, like Peter, seem to understand what Jesus is saying. Then we hear this devastating line, “Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him” (John 6:66). Besides the night of the Last Supper, only now do Jesus’ disciples abandon him. And, painfully, Jesus just lets them go. The best way to make sense out of this is love. Jesus is God’s love in action. He wants to become one with those whom He loves. He wants to love them as His own body. Yes, the oneness manifested in the Eucharist sounds harsh and dreadful because it is rooted in love which is willing to risk abandonment and separation to attain its goal: to be one body with the beloved. It is both terrifying and wonderful that Jesus will risk losing us in order to be one with us. Our response? Lord, we cannot grasp a love so great, but please help us never to abandon it, either.

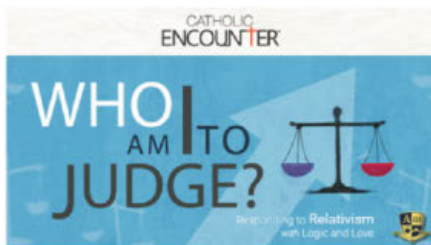

– Father John Muir

PICKS OF THE WEEK

August 25th, 2024

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time? Watch "Who Am I To Judge" this week on FORMED.org. We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her own morality—that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. Learn how to respond to today's relativism in a positive and Catholic way.

Our Saints play an important role in our faith, but do your children understand why? Watch "Brother Francis: The Saints" with them this week on FORMED.org. In this episode Brother Francis introduces children to their heavenly friends, the saints! Learn about the wonderful comfort, encouragement, and help given through those who serve God in His Heavenly Kingdom. The Saints is a wonderful way to help children better understand who the saints are and why they are so very important.

To set up your free account visit formed.org/signup and insert the SJPII zip code (32081)

Be inFORMED, be transFORMED, with FORMED.org

In today's first reading, Joshua challenges the people to decide whom they will serve. Recalling God's faithfulness to them and to their ancestors, the people declare, "We also will serve the Lord, for He is our God." May we, too, be mindful of God's gifts to us and renew our commitment to serve Him with grateful hearts.

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life.
