Prayer & Worship

LABOR DAY PRAYER

God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the worker. Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities. Ensure a place for the men and women who are struggling to find work. Grant us your wisdom to greet and care for those who are unable to work due to illness or circumstances that prevent their participation. Be with the children who are not able to run and play, but instead must put in a hard day's work to help their family afford to eat, to live. Be with us all, Christ Jesus, as we go about the busyness of our work. Hold us accountable not only for our actions, but most importantly to each of our neighbors. May we continue to work together to bring about your reign! We ask this in your holy name, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen

PALMER CATHOLIC ACADEMY

Palmer Catholic Academy offers award-winning academics including Stream Education (Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Arts and Math) along with a successful competitive athletics program, after school extra-curricular activities, and performing & fine arts programs. But the best part is we use "tried and true" parochial education, which provides everything necessary to help students develop important strengths, using morals and values (in a Christ-centered environment) to make good decisions.

GRACE & RECOVERY

The Grace and Recovery Ministry meets the 1st and 3rd Mondays each month at 7pm in the Church. All are welcome. The purpose of these Grace and Recovery meetings is to bring freedom, in complete anonymity, to those who love someone with an addiction and those personally struggling with addiction. We hope that we can find a personal relationship with Christ as we heal through each other's experiences, strengths, and hopes, as we grow through our journey in recovery. Because of the serious nature of our discussions, we ask that participants be at least 17 years of age.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 1, 2024 Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Purity isn't popular at the moment. Or is it? Look at a rack of health magazines or at popular podcasts. You'll see an infinite ocean of regulations and rituals of diets, intermittent fasting, morning sun rituals, intense juice detox practices, lists of dangerous foods, mental practices, as well as long lists of dos and don'ts for the proper cleaning of clothes, dishes, cars, houses, pets, and children. Like it or not, we long to be pure, clean, and without blemish.

This question of purity haunted people in Jesus' day, too. The Pharisees and scribes (the leading purity authorities of the day) criticize Jesus, asking, "Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" (Mark 7:5). Jesus responds by saying, "There is nothing outside the person that can defile him if it goes into him; but the things that come out of the person are what defile the person" (Mark 7:15). What does he mean, and how can it help us be pure?

We've probably all heard the somewhat shopworn interpretation that Jesus replaces the ritual, exterior notion of purity with a moral, interior one. Christianity is thus seen as a kind of moral re-tooling, as if religion doesn't make us pure. Good moral intentions do. But this doesn't take the rest of Jesus' ministry seriously enough, nor our obsession with purity. The better reading is that Jesus audaciously offers himself as the ultimate source of human purity – from within each human heart. Both our religious ritual practices and our moral actions are meant to flow from this encounter with Jesus the Lord. When we are in friendship with him, everything becomes pure for us.

– Father John Muir @LPi

FORMED

PICKS OF THE WEEK September 1, 2024

Do you always understand the meaning of our daily readings? We can't all be theologians so let Dr. Tim Gray, President of the Augustine Institute help you. Watch "Daily Reflections" each day on FORMED.org. Each Daily Reflection is a short video (4-5 minutes) that features Dr. Tim Gray commenting on the daily Mass readings, explaining the Scriptures, and providing you with concrete ideas on how to apply them to your life.

Have you seen the recent feature film about Mother Teresa? If not, watch the film "Mother Teresa" this week on FORMED.org. This film brings to life all you have read and heard about Mother Teresa. It follows her life through the slums of Calcutta as she mingles closely with her people, dispensing help, joy, and smiles to everyone, and also shows her stubbornness with the people who wanted to block her way.

Every worthwhile gift, every genuine benefit, comes from above," says St. James in the second reading. But, he reminds us, true worship of God involves using those good gifts to benefit the less fortunate. Good stewardship is not optional; it is the hallmark of our faith!

JUBILEE YEAR PILGRIMAGE WITH BISHOP ERIK POHLMEIER

JAN 12-22, 2025

I invite the Catholics from the Diocese of St. Augustine to consider attending an inspiring pilgrimage to Italy for the 2025 Holy Year. This 11-day pilgrimage replaces the one planned for Israel. Due to the ongoing conflict in the Holy Land, the destination was changed, and we have decided to focus on the Jubilee Year. Please continue to keep our brothers and sisters in Israel in your prayers for an end to the violence and that peace may come to their homeland. The pilgrimage, Jan. 12-22, 2025, will center on Rome, Padre Pio's home and the Eucharistic miracle in Lanciano. The January dates keep us outside the peak season and will help us avoid some of the crowds expected later in the year. May God guide us all on our pilgrim journey. A deposit for the pilgrimage is due by Oct. 7, with the final payment due by Nov. 13, 2024. For more information, download the Pilgrimage Package by visiting <https://dosaf1.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/08/Bishop-Pohlmeier-Italy-2025.pdf>
