The Resurrection of the Lord

ST. JOHN PAUL II CATHOLIC CHURCH

"The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus."

Luke 24 : 1 b - 3

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

I just celebrated my 13th Chrism Mass here in our Diocese. The Bishop and his priests, both retired and active, celebrate this annual celebration at the Cathedral of St. Augustine. The Bishop consecrates the Sacred Chrism at this Mass and blesses the other oils. In this Mass, one can genuinely feel the close bond of the Bishop with his priests, who are his co-pastors in taking care of the flock of Jesus—the Church.

Every year at the Chrism Mass, I always look forward to the renewal of our Priestly Promises wherein the Bishop asks us to renew our resolve to be more united with Jesus, to conform our will to him, to deny ourselves, to be faithful stewards and to discharge faithfully our sacred office of teaching the flock - we all say, I am. As we were renewing our priestly vows - I WAS THINKING ABOUT YOU. After almost a year with you here at JP2, I need to be more united with Jesus in prayer, adoration, and service to you. I need to constantly remind myself that I am living a life of "in persona Christi," that it is 24/7, no day off, no time out. I am reminded to deny myself and take up his cross daily as I serve you as your Pastor. I am reminded of my duty to teach you through my preaching and, moreso, in the holiness of my life. What a tall order, but as I said to the Bishop, I am; it means I will try my best to live up to it. This Easter, it's not only me, your Pastor, who is being challenged to renew; you are also challenged to renew your Baptismal Promises. Together, we will make our renewal alive in our lives and in the service that we will extend to our brothers and sisters.

At Easter, I also look forward to welcoming our brothers and sisters in the OCIA program to the fullness of our Catholic faith. It's always an emotional moment for me, remembering the first time I met each of them to the time I embraced them to welcome them to the Church that Christ established here on earth.

Recently, a good friend and a trusted adviser forwarded to me an article written by Cardinal Dolan, an opinion at Wall Street Journal dated 3/28/2024 titled, "Why pews are packed on Easter Sunday." The good Cardinal mentioned the reality of Christs, as some of us may refer to them, but he also mentioned a fact that we all need to think about and ponder in our hearts; he says, allow me to quote him, "Faith is deeply personal, but it isn't private. By its nature, faith is communal. A congregation is a spiritual family. Many use that word "family" loosely to mean any group of like-minded friends, from which any member can part ways for any reason. A biological family doesn't work like that—it's unchosen, it's permanent, and loyalty to it doesn't wane with preference or mood. Members of a spiritual family likewise bear an obligation to remain a part of it." Here at JP2, we strive to become part of our parish family, a church of disciples making disciples. As we actively participate in our liturgical celebrations, we make it a point to participate in our ministries, particularly our outreach to the poor, materially and spiritually, and those in need in our community.

To conclude this, allow me to quote the good Cardinal one more time: he says, "They tell us they want to believe but not belong; that they want faith but not religion; that they prefer spirituality, whatever that might mean, to communal worship. They seem to want God as a Father but to remain an only child; Jesus as the Good Shepherd if they're the only lamb in the flock. They want a God by themselves, Christ without his Church. Let me challenge you: how can we embrace and welcome people in our community and make them feel they truly belong? How can we proclaim the Kingdom that Christ established here on earth to them? How can we inspire them to become disciples as we all strive to?

From all of us here at St. John Paul II, serving you, Happy Easter.

Father Rafael Lavilla
Pastor

Easter Prayer of Thanksgiving

Good and gracious heavenly Father, we come before you on this Easter Sunday with full and grateful hearts for the gift of the Paschal Mystery that you showed us in the life, death, and resurrection of your Son, our brother by adoption, Jesus Christ. Bless us and all those who profess belief in your saving love. Bless also those who have yet to profess belief in you. You are God for all. We ask all this in Christ's name.

Amen.

Ministry Activities

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY

Interested in ways to get more active in the parish? Our ministries offer many things including faith & fellowship as well as volunteer opportunities, and more! This week, we are featuring

Council of Catholic Women

The Council of Catholic Women (CCW) strives to support, empower, and educate Catholic women of all ages and walks of life in the three pillars of spirituality, service, and leadership. We are women of one faith and action, sisters of Christ, and daughters of the Church.

The CCW at St John Paul II formed in the spring of 2024. Our kickoff event was The Woman of the Parish Dinner. This now annual event brings the women of our parish together in fellowship and features an inspirational speaker. The CCW Ministry meets on the fourth Thursday of the month at 7:30pm. The topic of meetings vary month to month depending on the pillar focus. In the fall the CCW focused on community engagement. As a newly formed group we were able to provide over 50 hygiene bags for those in need at the Youth Crisis Center. Our goal for CCW this coming year is to increase our membership through community outings such as serving the YCC, nursing homes and projects to support our parish. If you would like more information, please contact CCW@nocateecatholic.com or feel free to drop in at one of our meetings. Better yet come to our upcoming Women of the Parish Dinner!

Women of the Parish Dinner

The Second Annual Women of the Parish Dinner will be held on April 29th at 6:00 PM. All women are welcome to take part in a special evening of fellowship, food and spirituality. Tickets are $35 per person and includes dinner from Poppy's Italian restaurant, dessert and coffee. Wine will be available for purchase. Seating is based on a first come, first served basis. However, reserved tables of 8 can be purchased. Please scan the QR code to purchase your tickets.

Our speaker this year is Sister Brittany Rose Samuelson SCTJM. Sister Brittany heard her call from God at the young age of 15 years old which led her to seek out a relationship with the Lord. Sr. Brittany is a member of the Diocesan Religious Institute of the Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary. Sister Brittany has been serving college students in the Catholic Campus Ministry in Jacksonville (UNF, FSCJ, JU) for the past 7 years.

CAREER MINISTRY

Job loss can feel isolating, frustrating, and overwhelming—but you don't have to go through it alone. Our Career Ministry, led by experienced professionals, provides coaching, résumé support, interview practice, and more to help you navigate your next career move with confidence. Join us on the first and third Monday of each month at 5:30 PM in the church. Bring a friend and take the next step together!

The next meeting is this Monday, April 21 at 5:30 pm. Meeting will be held in the Chapel.

Updated meeting information will also be posted to the Career Ministry website: tinyurl.com/sjpiicareer

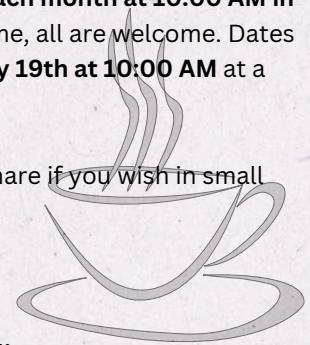

MINISTRY OF CONSOLATION

Coffee and Conversations

Coffee and Conversations for widows and widowers is held on the fourth Monday of each month at 10:00 AM in the Tent. Whether you are newly bereaved or have been without a partner for some time, all are welcome. Dates follow: 4.28.25 and 6.23.25. The May gathering due to Memorial Day will be held on May 19th at 10:00 AM at a local restaurant to be announced.

Monthly we'll discuss one aspect of your grief journey, you'll have an opportunity to share if you wish in small group discussions and socialize with others who are without a partner.

Coffee and tea will be available.

For more information, please contact consolation@nocateecatholic.com

Pre-Planning your Funeral

Would you like to choose the readings and music for your future funeral liturgy? Would you like to ensure that you have the funeral you want and save your family from having to plan your funeral at a stressful and challenging time?

Then, please join the Ministry of Consolation for Pre-Planning your Funeral Sessions on May 6, 2025 at 9:30 -11:00 AM or May 8, 2025 at 7:00 – 8:30 PM in the church.

Pre-planning a funeral Mass may be helpful for many reasons:

- Your wishes will be known, eliminating the burden on the bereaved during the stressful hours after your death.
- Pre-planning may prevent disagreement among your survivors who are grieving
- Your family may be unfamiliar with the Catholic rituals and sacramental requirements after you die.
- Advanced Planning will give your family the guidance needed to carry out decisions you make.
- Pre-planning is a sign of your love for your surviving family members.

The sessions will include:

- Introduction to Catholic Funeral Rites
- Choosing your readings from the Old and New Testaments
- Appropriate Musical selections
- Eulogies
- Disposition of the body

For more information, please contact Care@nocateecatholic.com or Consolation@nocateecatholic.com.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Looking Ahead...

This coming April we have a lot of fun events for our youth!

PICKS OF THE WEEK

April 20, 2025

Easter is here and He is Risen! There is a lot to the Resurrection of Christ but what does it all mean? Watch "The Resurrection" this week on FORMED.org. Dr. Micheal Barber unpacks the biblical account of Jesus' Resurrection from the dead and what it all means for us. He explores Jesus' burial, His appearance to the Apostles and others and His ascension and others. You will be informed and surprised by the meaning of many of these events!

Join Brother Francis as he celebrates the power and splendor of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ in this moving animated presentation! Watch "He Is Risen" today on FORMED.org with your children. This video depicts the key points in the life of Jesus Christ, His Death on the Cross, triumph over death, and Ascension to the Father. He Is Risen! is a wonderful reminder for children of the reality of God's power and presence!
