GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 29, 2025

Sts. Peter And Paul, Apostles

Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day?

Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus, or in Peter and Paul?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Some Say

At first, the Apostles try to dodge the question.

When Jesus confronts them — and make no mistake, it is a confrontation — with the question "Who do you say that I am?" they act like a man whose wife has just asked him if she looks fat in these jeans.

The evasiveness of their answer puts politicians to shame: "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

Some say.

But Jesus doesn't let them off easy. He repeats himself. He wants an answer. "Who do you say that I am?"

They all know the answer. They all believe the answer. And they all know the answer could get them thrown in prison or killed. Only Peter is brave enough to say it: "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."

People have a lot of opinions about God. They always have. They have a lot of opinions about Jesus and the Bible, about the Catholic Church and the Pope. Some of these opinions are well-founded, well-researched. Some of them are based in ignorance. Many are born of painful misunderstandings. But they are all just that: opinions.

Some say.

We know who Jesus is. We know who the Eucharist is. We know what the truth is. Amid the chaos and the violence and the excruciating loudness of this fallen world and all the words it shouts into the void about God and Jesus and right and wrong, we know.

But will we answer?

Ministry Activities

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY

Interested in ways to get more active in the parish? Our ministries offer many things including faith & fellowship as well as volunteer opportunities, and more! This week, we are featuring

THAT MAN IS YOU

That Man Is You! (TMIY) – A Brotherhood of Faith, Growth, and Purpose

TMIY is our parish's Friday morning men's group, open to all men who desire to grow as leaders in their families, faith, and community. Rooted in Scripture and guided by the teachings of the Church, we meet weekly on Fridays from 6:00–7:30 a.m. to share coffee, watch a short engaging video, and break into small group discussions that challenge and support us. Whether you're a young dad, seasoned grandfather, or somewhere in between, you'll find a band of brothers walking the same journey toward Christ.

Our mission is simple yet profound: to become better men—better husbands, fathers, sons, and brothers—through authentic friendship, accountability, and formation. We leverage spiritual education, synthesizing faith and reason, in order to foster personal growth, masculine fellowship, strong leadership, traditional Catholic values and community impact, preparing ourselves to live out our faith as leaders in our families, parish, and society.

As one TMIY member put it, "TMIY changed the way I approach my home, my prayer life, and my sense of purpose. I finally feel like I'm leading my family the way God designed." Another added, "It's the one hour in my week that reminds me who I really am."

We are always looking for more men to join us—no registration needed, just show up and see what it's all about. If you're ready to grow, build real friendships, and strengthen your spiritual foundation, come grab a cup of coffee and pull up a chair. We'd love to meet you.

Bishop Barron's "God, The Bible and Humanity" Series

Join the TMIY Men's Group this summer for a powerful new video series by Bishop Robert Barron: "God, The Bible and Humanity". Starting Friday, July 11, we'll meet weekly to explore the nature of God, the meaning of Scripture, and discuss how these truths shape our lives as husbands, fathers, and leaders.

Fridays at 6:00 AM
Coffee & donuts provided

No registration needed. Open to all men seeking truth, brotherhood, leadership, and faith.

O Heart of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Heart of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, overflowing with gentleness, tenderness and charity, I bury in the abyss of The Mercy, all my iniquities and all my negligence. I offer Thee my labours and my sufferings, my sorrows and my miseries, I recommend to Thee my life and my death. Solace my doubts, Sweet Jesus, calm my fears and grant, that day by day, I may become more united to Thy Sacred Heart, learning Thy love and Thy holiness. Amen

USHER MINISTRY

New Usher Training, Thursday July 10th - 5- 7 PM

Are you looking for a way to get involved in a parish ministry but have limited time to volunteer? Have you been an usher/greeter in a past parish and enjoyed the role? We are looking to grow our ministry at SJPII and would welcome adults, teens and families to join our team.

The main goal of our ministry is to welcome parishioners and guests to our Parish at all Masses. We also perform certain functions during the Mass, such as helping with seating, taking up the collections, orchestrating an orderly process for receiving communion and distributing bulletins after Mass. This is a special ministry, which often allows you to be the first encounter a person has with our Parish, as you provide a welcoming atmosphere for all who enter our doors.

Ushers can choose the Mass dates and times they prefer to work and it is usually one or two days a month. Schedules are very flexible. Please consider joining this ministry and join us at the next orientation on July 10th at 5 PM in the Church. No need to RSVP.

Questions contact: usherministry@nocateecatholic.com

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"O God our Creator... we ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith."

USCCB, "Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty"

FAITH FORMATION

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

July 15 at 6:30pm

Know someone who wants to become Catholic? All are invited to one of our OCIA Interest Sessions (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, previously known as RCIA) at 6:30pm on Tuesday, July 15. Participants will receive an overview of the OCIA process and hear from past participants on their experiences. If you or someone you know is interested on exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic, please fill out the OCIA Interest Form at <https://nocateecatholic.com/ocia-interest-form//> or scan the QR code.

You may text Helene Kirkpatrick at 904-514-3837 or call Dominic Salamida at 904-330-0153 if you have any questions or if you would like to join the OCIA ministry.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Sharing Comfort and Prayer

The Prayer Shawl Ministry supports the Ministry of Consolidation by creating prayer shawls and lap blankets that are a tangible expression of our prayers for God's love, comfort and healing for those who are suffering with grief, illness, or other stressful life events.

Requesting a prayer shawl or lap blanket:

If you, or someone you know, is grieving, sick, a caregiver, or is otherwise in need of extra prayer and support, you can request a shawl or lap blanket by emailing PrayerShawl@nocateecatholic.com or by contacting the parish office. Each shawl is lovingly crafted and blessed before being given to its recipient.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry is a gathering of community members who have an interest in or a talent for knitting, crocheting, sewing or no-sew techniques to create the shawls and lap blankets. We invite you to join us in wrapping others in God's love and comfort.

There are several ways that you can participate in this ministry:

- Attend any of our meetings on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month, from 2:00 to 3:30 pm, at the back of the church (yarn, hooks/needles, and patterns (if needed) can be provided for knitters, crocheters and for those who would like to learn to crochet)
- Make shawls and lap blankets at home, if meetings are not possible (again supplies can be provided)
- Donate yarn, needles/hooks or other supplies and/or 1 ½ yards of fleece (we're especially low on this)

THERE WILL BE NO PRAYER SHAWL MEETINGS DURING THE SUMMER.

Meetings will re-start in September. Prayer Shawls and lap blankets are still available for anyone who needs one.

Email PrayerShawl@nocateecatholic.com if you have questions, need additional information, or want to set up a time for a quick crochet lesson and/or to pick up supplies for your project.
