Youth Ministry Update

SUMMER RECAP

Thank you for your generosity in support of the life-changing summer youth experiences! Your financial contributions and prayer support were essential to the success of the Life Teen Hidden Lake Middle School Summer Camp (32 youth), the Life Teen High School Covecrest Summer Camp (30 teens) and the Steubenville Florida Catholic Youth Conference (13 teens) in Orlando. The youth were ministered to by faithful JP II chaperones, dedicated young adult camp missionaries that led small groups discussions and prayed with them, dynamic speakers that encouraged and challenged them, friendly folks who served them delicious food, prayerful musicians who led them in praise of God, holy priests who ministered God's mercy to them in confession, drew them closer to Christ in the Holy Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration. The friendly bus drivers were even a blessing! During travel they "interviewed" each other to make new friends, played cards and prayed the rosary with youth leading each decade. These encounters have not only strengthened their relationships with God and one another, but they've also sparked a vibrant joy that continues to echo in our community. But don't just take it from us, take it from them:

"Covecrest allowed me to strengthen my personal relationship with God in a way I will never forget. Not only did I grow individually, but I also grew in new friendships and with my parish."

"Camp Covecrest helped me become closer to God and my friends. I met new people and got to know others better. I feel like the Lord really showed his love to me and my friends this week."

"I went into camp thinking that it would just be one week to get through and then I go home to my normal life, but church camp definitely changed my life, and it makes me want to spread God's love even more."

A Message from Matthew Crews

Dear St. John Paul II Family,

As I prepare to step away from this incredible community, my heart is overflowing with gratitude. Serving as your youth minister has been a joy and it has molded my heart in ways that always affect me.

To the teens, I want to say thank you. From walking through muddy fields, late-night worship, bonfires and retreats, to service projects and adoration, thank you for stepping out into the deep, and allowing the Lord to meet you there. You showed up with curiosity, questions, laughter, and honest faith. You've challenged me to grow, inspired me with your courage, and reminded me what the Lord looks like. In the words of St. John Paul II, "Be not afraid!" Don't let fear have the final word in your life. The Lord has more for you than you could ever imagine, you just have to step out in faith. The world needs your faith and your boldness. It needs your kindness now more than ever.

To the families, volunteers, and the wider parish community, from the bottom of my heart, thank you for trusting me with your young people! Thank you for showing up with hearts and hands ready to serve. Your faithfulness has been the backbone of our ministry. We really could not do any of it without you.

I'm not leaving this community behind; I'm carrying it with me. Jesus has shown me his heart in ways I could've never imagined. Through friendships, prayers, the small moments of grace and growth, he laid bare his heart for me to see. While my role here is ending, I believe that God's work is just beginning. You're a part of something beautiful and alive.

Know of my prayers for each one of you. And please keep me and my fiancé, Sydney, in your prayers as we prepare for the sacrament of Marriage!

This isn't goodbye, it's "see you soon."

In Christ,
Matthew Crews

Ministry Activities

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY

Interested in ways to get more active in the parish? Our ministries offer many things including faith & fellowship as well as volunteer opportunities, and more! This week, we are featuring our

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

USHERS

The Usher Ministry is a special ministry, which often allows you to be the first encounter a visitor or potential parishioner has with our Church. The main goal of this ministry is to welcome parishioners and guests to the Mass and to perform certain functions during the Mass, such as helping with seating, orchestrating the offertory collection process and ensuring an orderly distribution of communion, both for those going to the front to receive and facilitation for those that need it at their seats. We also assist with distribution of bulletins and other items after the service. It is our responsibility to provide a safe and comfortable environment for all in attendance, so they may focus on the Mass and fully participate in the sacrament. We are also responsible for assisting with any needs those in attendance may have, while ensuring the Mass is distraction free for other parishioners and the presiding priest.

It's a casual ministry and a lot of fun, as you meet many folks while working and getting to know "Mass regulars". Ushers choose the Masses they want to work, with the usual commitment being once or twice a month. It is a very flexible schedule that allows for travel and other commitments.

Please think about joining us! You can volunteer alone, with a friend, or even as a family. We welcome new ushers to all our Masses but we are extremely short at the 10 am and Noon Masses. We would love to have you join our team!

SACRISTANS

Being a Sacristan is a very special blessing, and your role as a Sacristan is to prepare for the celebration of the liturgy of the Mass by setting up the books, the vessels, and the bread and wine. You may be called to assist with other liturgical celebrations as well, such as Confirmation, Baptism, Funerals and Marriage. Your service will include weekday and weekend Masses.

Setting up for Mass you will turn on the lights in the Church, turn on the Sound System, prepare the Creedence Table with the Priest's Chalice, Water and Wine Cruets and the Lavabo bowl and towel. Prepare the ciborium's with the proper number of hosts to be consecrated at the Mass. You are the main point person for the clergy and liturgical ministers and must be able to attend to anything the clergy may need. After the Mass, you are responsible for putting away all the sacred vessels.

If you feel called to serve as a Sacristan, please contact the Office at (904) 330-0153 and you will be contacted to set up an orientation and training session. If you become a Sacristan, you will be added to the schedule and will be able to select the days you wish to serve.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

The primary mission of an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion is to serve our parish by assisting our priest to distribute the Most Holy Eucharist during Mass. Through this humble service, you are a servant of Christ fulfilling His will to feed the hungry. By sharing the Body and Blood of our Lord, we are formed more intimately into the Body of Christ bringing us into communion with Him and with one another.

To join this Ministry you will attend a training session at our church after which you will be commissioned by our parish priest during Mass. You will serve during the Mass of your choice on a rotating schedule. All practicing Catholics in good standing and who are confirmed may apply to be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. Applications are available in the church office and trainings will be advertised in the bulletin in the fall and in the spring. Come, join this ministry and experience a closer connection to Christ through the sacred act of distributing the Most Holy Eucharist.

Ministry Moments

National Tragedies May Cause a Secondary Grief Response

Few of us have been immune to the continuous news of the tragedy in Texas and the many lives especially children who have died. Those of us who have experienced a significant personal loss may begin to react to the tragic news with responses like those we experienced when our loved one died.

Our personal experience of death and loss may affect our reactions, and we may have a significant secondary grief response. A secondary grief response refers to the emotional, physical, spiritual, and psychological reactions that individuals may experience when reminded of their own past losses by watching or hearing about new tragedy or loss.

What may help:

- Praying
- Decreasing the amount of time, you spend watching or listening to tragic news and social media.
- Taking loving care of yourself with focus on rest and sleep, exercise, and nutrition.
- Seeking supportive environments or your happy place whether it be with family and friends, taking a walk on the beach, or spending time with your pets.
- Identifying your feelings and recognizing why the national tragedy might be causing you to experience them again.
- Remembering what you are grateful for....practicing gratitude may be helpful to restore a sense of balance in your life.
- Helping others, in doing so we help ourselves.

For more information or support, please contact consolation@nocateecatholic.com

Watch "The Angel God Gave Me" with them this week on FORMED.org for a great explanation from the Storytime Series of Brother Francis.
