Online Giving

Did you know that you could give online instead of using offertory envelopes? Research shows that most active parishioners attend Mass at their parish only 40 out of 52 weeks during the year due to holiday and vacation travel.
Giving online means you don't have to "catch up" or be concerned about missing a week.
To create your online account, visit our website at https://www.spcccmacon.com, and click on our Giving button.

HOLY NAME PROVINCE (HNP) INVOLVED WITH JUSTICE, PEACE AND INTEGRITY OF CREATION (JPIC)

For more information go to: www.hnp.org

The pursuit of Justice, Peace and integrity of Creation (JPIC) flows naturally from the Life of St Francis and the Franciscan movement that he inspired in pursuit of the Gospel Life.

DIRECT SERVICE TO THE POOR: HOMELESS/AFFORDABLE HOUSING EFFORTS

As followers of St. Francis, we are called to stand in solidarity with those made poor and homeless. With so many in our world today living on the streets or facing foreclosures, the prospect of working to help meet that breadth of need is daunting. We can draw inspiration and courage from words attributed to St. Francis: "Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible."

Lectors

Your October schedule will now be done by email and text.

Please look for an email from Father Bill.

The 2021-2022 Lector workbooks are in. You may pick them up at the back of the Church. Please contact the Parish Office if you need to update your email or cell phone number.

Our Condolences to…

…Valerie, Donna Lynn, Joshua and Dominque Newby, on the death of their beloved,

Erma Newby

As a parish, we pray for the happy repose of her soul. May she rest in peace with Jesus in Heaven.

Fraudulent Mail Alert

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC DIOCESE of SAVANNAH

Over the last year, many parish ministries were "inactive" due to the pandemic. If you are now returning to volunteer in a ministry you must ensure you are up-to-date on your Safe Environment Compliance. Please call the Church Office to ensure your status.

Protecting Our Youth: Effective June 28, 2012*, Diocesan policy requires ALL employees and volunteers (age 18 and up) to be Safe Environment Compliant. This means he/she receive VIRTUS Protecting God's Children for Adults training, undergo a background check, and read and acknowledge a Code of Conduct in advance of employment or volunteering ministry. A five-year training refresher is required for all active volunteers/employees, and certain roles require monthly training bulletins.

If you have any questions, please contact your parish/school Safe Environment Coordinator, or Joan Altmeyer, Director Safe Environment (912) 201-4074.

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura:
Mientras Moisés preparaba a los israelitas para establecerse y vivir en la Tierra Prometida, los instó a permanecer cerca de los mandamientos y estatutos de Dios para convertirse en una "gran nación". ¿Por qué crees que tantas naciones se desvían de esta idea?

Segunda Lectura:
En los primeros versículos de su carta, Santiago insta a sus lectores a que "pongan en práctica esa palabra y no se limiten a escucharla, engañándose a ustedes mismos." ¿Por qué crees que este es un buen consejo?

Lectura del Evangelio:
Volviendo al Evangelio de Marcos, escuchamos hoy cómo los líderes religiosos de Jerusalén cuestionaron a Jesús acerca de mantener "la tradición de sus mayores." Jesús respondió con la importancia de tener un corazón limpio. ¿Por qué es este un ejercicio espiritual tan desafiante?

MEDITACIÓN AL EVANGÉLIO

Estamos viviendo un contexto social muy difícil, muchas personas, a estas alturas del año, todavía no tienen trabajo y su salud es muy precaria. Las injusticias están a la orden del día. Gracias a la Palabra de Dios que nos guía, nuestro corazón se fortalece en la esperanza. Litúrgicamente, hoy regresamos al Evangelio de Marcos, ciclo B, después de haber escuchado el capítulo 6 de San Juan, donde se da el discurso del Pan de Vida. Iniciamos la lectura de Santiago, después de haber escuchado la de los Efesios. Hoy las lecturas apuntan a una misma dirección. ¡Hacia la coherencia en la propia vida! Hacer y vivir lo que decimos es una tarea de todos los días. Seguir los mandamientos con fidelidad es lo que pide el Señor. La enseñanza de Dios de vivir moralmente es el objetivo desde la creación del mundo.

"Y ahora, Israel, escucha las normas y los mandamientos que yo te enseño, para que los pongas en práctica" (Deuteronomio 4:1). La Carta de Santiago lo describe de la siguiente forma: "Hermanos muy queridos, no se equivoquen: son las cosas buenas y los dones perfectos lo que proceden de lo alto" (Santiago 1:16). Y en el Evangelio, Jesús lo pone más claro todavía explicando la manera de ser coherentes: "Ninguna cosa que de fuera entra en la persona puede hacerla impura; lo que hace impura a una persona es lo que sale de ella" (Marcos 7:15-16). Jesús habla un lenguaje desconocido para la gente de su tiempo, muchos de ellos eran muy apegados a la ley. Por lo tanto, no podían comprender lo que es la verdadera pureza. ¿Tú lo comprendes? ¡Vivir como Dios manda es lo ideal!

Vivir la Liturgia

¿Qué hace que una persona sea sabia e inteligente? Ciertamente, no es la capacidad de memorizar hechos o detalles minuciosos sobre una situación. Lo que hace a una persona sabia e inteligente es cuando sus palabras y acciones se unen armoniosamente y producen virtud. Una persona puede conocer muchos hechos e incluso realizar las acciones correctas, pero aún así tener un defecto grave en su carácter. A veces queremos engañarnos a nosotros mismos pensando que mientras "hagamos" todo correctamente, automáticamente estaremos en la relación correcta con todos. Lamentablemente, ese no es el caso en el reino de Dios. Estamos llamados a no ser solo oidores de la Palabra, sino también hacedores. Eso significa llegar al corazón de lo que las leyes y los rituales deben significar y nutrir. Si no llevamos las acciones a casa, donde pertenecen, y les permitimos hablar de la bondad, la misericordia, la compasión y el amor de Dios, entonces son simplemente gestos vacíos e inútiles. Acoge la Palabra que ha sido plantada dentro de ti para que puedas ser un discípulo verdaderamente sabio e inteligente de Jesucristo.

Oh Señor Jesucristo, recompensa el celo apostólico de Fray Pedro de Corpa y sus cuatro compañeros, Blas, Miguel, Antonio y Francisco, quienes trabajaron por el bienestar espiritual del pueblo indígena Guale de Georgia, y entregaron su vida en testimonio de la fe cristiana. Por sus méritos e intercesión, concédeme el favor que humildemente te pido, para que así su heroico sacrificio pueda ser oficialmente reconocido por la Iglesia para la gloria de Tu Santo Nombre. Amén.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give it all Back

Pop culture has given us a unique idea of the term justice. Justice, we often think, is about taking. Taking what's owed. Taking revenge. Taking what we deserve. This worldview tends to make mincemeat of our Catholic social teachings. Seeking the good of the poor, a call to community and participation, solidarity — on the face of it, in a society where everything must be earned and we are encouraged to hoard for ourselves whatever success we can achieve, these principles look a lot like highway robbery.

But when you remember the presence of an omnipotent, all-loving and all-merciful God, it turns our gunslinging sense of justice on its head. For how does justice inhabit the same universe as a God who is so quick to give and indeed to forgive?

Well, very easily, when we remember Who exactly is the source of every good and perfect thing in this world. There is no law that cannot be traced back to the Word. And the Word saves our souls.

Is that justice? No, that is a gift. It is the reckless, indulgent gift of a father whose love is greater than His anger. What is justice in the Biblical sense?

The answer is simple. Look at your life. See the hours in your day? See your spouse, your kids, your grandkids? See the house they live in, the money in your wallet, the food in your fridge, the breath in your lungs?

Calling it all your own, refusing to share any of it — that's robbery. Giving it all back to the One who gave it to you — that's justice.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
