Question of the Week

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How can we in our parish community become more inclusive of people from other nations and cultures? Each week, members of the staff gather to study and reflect on the upcoming Sunday's Gospel, and from that study and reflection they prepare the Question of the Week. Refer back to today's Gospel to reflect on your personal response. Matthew 2:1-12

PREGUNTA DE LA SEMANA

¿Cómo podemos, como comunidad parroquial, acoger mejor a las personas de otras culturas y naciones?

Cada semana, miembros del personal se reúnen para estudiar y reflexionar en el próximo evangelio del domingo y en base de ese estudio y reflexión ellos preparan la Pregunta de la Semana. Usa el evangelio y las lecturas para encontrar tu respuesta personal a la pregunta. Mateo 2:1-12

Whatever else Catholics know, they must know that they are loved by the people of the Church. We at St. Thomas Aquinas have been working to create a smaller, more personal experience of church for every member of our Parish. We call these Small Faith Communities.

Small Faith Communities are groups of 8-12 adults who gather in homes to share their experiences of faith and love. Hundreds of adult parishioners participate in Small Faith Communities at St. Thomas Aquinas.

Won't you come join us? Contact Terry Zobel at tzobel@sta.org for more information.

STEWARDSHIP UPDATE

As of 12/20/2021 – as we end the calendar year, we are down almost $370,000 annually in offertory and AoA Annual Appeal contributions compared to 2017 and down almost $89,000 compared to 2020. This current trend continues to limit our ability to meet our 2021-2022 budget and may require additional reductions in hours, services, and line items beyond general maintenance. The campus infrastructure is showing its age. As we all know, the cost of everything is increasing, as we feel the same pressures (cost, availability) our parishioners do for basic supplies, vendor services and equipment.

We will continue to defer fixing the AC in the preschool as the weather change has allowed that but we will need to make that repair in March. Each of the councils has been briefed on these circumstances and challenges. Clearly, the growth of our parish in numbers and level of engagement is the long term solution for STA. We are testing a Newcomer program and plan to expand it in 2022. Please join all of us in prayer and reflection to find the best path for the Parish and our neighbors in these difficult times.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

January 2, 2022

The Epiphany of the Lord

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying,

"Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

2 de enero de 2022

La Epifanía del Señor

Aun en estos tiempos, la humanidad continúa buscando la estrella, esa estrella que muchas veces se pierde entre la injusticia, el odio y la discriminación. Sin embargo, hay que seguir el camino y alzar los ojos al cielo para encontrar el centro de su luz. "Levántate y brilla, que ha llegado tu luz y la Gloria de Yavé amaneció sobre ti (Isaías 60,1). La Gloria de la Manifestación de

Jesús en su Evangelio y en la Eucaristía se hace presente entre nosotros en la Liturgia de hoy. El Papa Francisco nos explica acerca de la belleza de esta celebración. "La manifestación de Jesús, simbolizada por la luz: Levántate y resplandece, Jerusalén, porque llega tu luz; la Gloria del Señor amaneció sobre ti". Él nos exhorta al movimiento, a no quedarnos ahí fijos como estatuas sin hacer nada.

También, nos explica sobre la participación de los magos del Oriente y lo que ellos representan. "Los Magos, venidos de Oriente, representan a todos los pueblos lejanos de la fe judía tradicional: se dejan guiar por la estrella y se enfrentan a un largo y arriesgado viaje; se postran ante Jesús y le ofrecen regalos simbólicos: oro, incienso y mirra; la búsqueda del Señor implica también la generosidad del corazón" (1/6/2019). ¿Qué le estoy ofreciendo a Jesús en esta etapa de mi vida? ¿Qué tipo de manifestaciones he tenido de Dios a lo largo de mi vida? Pidamos, en esta Eucaristía, que la luz de Cristo se manifieste en estos tiempos turbulentos y oscuros que experimentamos en el mundo entero. Sigamos vigilantes, caminemos por sendas nuevas, sigamos el ejemplo de los Magos. Ellos, regresaron a su país por otro camino.

Amen Corner Kathy Kuczka

One of the first questions my mother would ask my brother whenever he told her of a new love interest was, "Is she Catholic?" My mother's question was due in part to the fact that she was a devout Catholic and wanted my brother to find a mate who practiced the Catholic faith. But, her question was also motivated by growing up in a Catholic Church that didn't always view other faith traditions in a positive light. In fact, the older Code of Canon Law (1918) forbade Catholics to participate in any non-Catholic religious service including weddings and funerals.

The Second Vatican Council reexamined the Church's view of other faith traditions. The Council was the 21st ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church and included more than 100 observers from non-Catholic churches. The Council's documents called for a new openness to other faith traditions, including non-Christian traditions.

In the landmark document Nostra Aetate, The Declaration on the Relation of the Church to Non-Christian Religions, the Council decried any forms of anti-Semitism and stated that the Jewish people, as a whole, did not bear responsibility for the death of Jesus.

Another document, Unitatis Redintegratio, the Decree on Ecumenism, set the stage for new relationships with our Eastern Orthodox, Protestant and Anglican brothers and sisters. In this Decree, the Council embraced all Christians as members of the Body of Christ, saying,

"It remains true that all who have been justified by faith in Baptism are members of Christ's body, and have a right to be called Christian, and so are correctly accepted as brothers by the children of the Catholic Church."

The unity of Christians was not a new concept, even in the 1960s, when the Second Vatican Council took place. Jesus prayed that all his disciples be one. This unity began at his birth and is commemorated today in the Epiphany of the Lord. On this day we remember that Christ was revealed to pagan astrologers, a sign that the Gentiles would now be co-heirs with Jews of the promises of God. The Solemnity of the Epiphany celebrates the reality that Christ has come for and among all people.

Today is a good day to contemplate our relationship with persons of other faith traditions and to respond to the Decree on Ecumenism, which called all Catholics to participate in the work on Christian unity. Learn about other traditions by having a conversation with someone of another faith or by reading about other religions. Observe a prayer service at another church, synagogue or mosque. Participate in the annual Alpharetta interfaith prayer service in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., typically held on the federal holiday honoring Dr. King (January 17 in 2022) at St. James United Methodist Church. Finally, pray, as Jesus did, for the unity of all.
