Reflection on Sunday's Readings

The Epiphany of the Lord

Ask anyone who the Three Kings are and they will be able to tell you that they were the men from the East who followed the star "to the place where Jesus lay". The story of the Magi is among the best known of the Gospels. Whether we know them as the "Three Kings" or the "Three Wise Men", they have a prominent place in every manger scene as well as in the story of Jesus' birth.

While today's Gospel is among the best known stories in the Bible, it is also one of the most misunderstood. Who were these Magi from the East? The Gospel does not tell us much about them. It is assumed that there were only three of them based on the three gifts which they brought to Jesus. But the Gospel never tells us how many Magi there actually were. We do know, however, that they studied the stars.

In Jesus' day, knowledge of the stars and their position in the sky was vital for travelers. There were few roads in the Middle East, especially through the desert. Only by charting their journey along the position of the stars could travelers be assured of not getting lost.

We also know that the Magi were not Jews. Like many pagans in ancient times, it is likely that they observed the stars to predict the future. They would have believed that their fate was written in the stars. Any unusual occurrence such as a comet or a large star would have gotten their attention.

And that is what happened. The Magi observed a star which predicted the birth of the King of the Jews.

As it is usually told, the Magi follow the star all the way to Bethlehem. But that is not how the story is told in the Gospels. According to Saint Matthew, the Magi went first to Jerusalem. They needed to consult the Scriptures and the teachers of the Law to learn where they were to find this great king. The star only took them so far. They needed to turn to God's word to get the whole route. If not for the prophecies of the Old Testament, they would have been lost.

The meaning for us who search for Jesus and seek to lead others to Him cannot be clearer. Without the Scriptures, we are lost. Relying on our own intelligence and experience, we can only get so far. Unassisted by faith, we may become nice people, but, God wants so much more for us. God wants us to know Jesus personally and intimately. He wants to reveal His love and power to us and use us to lead others to Him. Without the Bible as explained to us by the Church's teaching, we can easily lose our way.

In today's world, we see just how true this is. Billions of dollars are spent on palm readers, astrologers and other spiritualists. Books on new age spirituality continue to be popular. Everyone is looking for the latest thing, but they are never satisfied. Their consciences tell them that something is missing, but they are unable to find their way back by their own intelligence. They need God's Word to reveal to them that it is Jesus that they seek. To fill the missing piece in their lives, they need look no further than the Bible they have tucked away in some drawer and the neighborhood parish they pass on their way to work every day.

Today's readings, however, do not only contain a message for those who seek Jesus and do not know where to find him. There is also a message for us who claim to already know Jesus.

The Magi were seeking the newborn King of the Jews but did not know where to find him. The chief priests and the scribes knew where to find him, but they were not looking! You would think that many of them would have wanted to join the Magi on the trip to Bethlehem to witness the birth of their Messiah. But they were content to let their knowledge of the Scripture and their positions of authority replace their relationship with God, and so they missed out on the blessed event of Christ's birth.

Like these chief priests and scribes, it is easy for us who believe in Jesus to get complacent. We can make our relationship with Jesus and the Church simply a matter of following rules - going to Mass on Sundays, fasting on Good Friday, going to confession and so on. Rules are important, but they are not the whole life of faith. If we are not actively seeking God in our daily lives, then we are missing out. If our religion is not about a relationship with Jesus the Messiah, then it is dry, lifeless and uninspiring.

As followers of Jesus, we have a responsibility to be light for the world. If people are lost, we have to lead them back to Christ. Could it be that our society has turned to palm readers, new age gurus and other quacks because we have not shone forth in our lives the joy and peace that Jesus can give? Rules do not inspire people. Lives of faith and courageous witness do. If we are to be a light to those we meet, we have to ask ourselves - are we seeking to follow rules or are we seeking to follow Jesus? Only by following Jesus ourselves can we hope to ever lead others to him.

The Magi were not satisfied with merely knowing that a newborn King of the Jews had been born. They wanted to meet him, to pay him homage and to bring him gifts. We cannot be satisfied with just going through the motions when it comes to the practice of our faith. We must seek Jesus daily in a sincere manner. We must study the Scriptures and conform our minds and hearts to its teaching. Then we will become the stars leading others to the desire of their souls - Jesus the Messiah.

Happy New Year To All!

Let His Word confront your life with sin that needs to be dealt with.

Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.

Heb 11:1

If you're already in a crisis and you don't know God as David did, seek Him like you never have before! He is gracious and may meet you there if your heart is right. But the time to prepare for stress is before it hits.

We say and hear this so much in the first two weeks of a new year, and then it's gone. We hope and pray for the best, and for some people, things work out just fine, but for others, not so much. In this age of COVID – 19, Omicron, shutdowns, and masks (again), we will still say Happy New Year, but this is not a sound plan without a deeper relationship with our Lord.

How can we get closer to Christ in these times of trouble and stress? Well, the time of crisis is not the best time to build our spiritual maturity with God. The best time is when there is no crisis. The time to gain wisdom is not in the midst of a calamity, because, if we wait for a catastrophe, wisdom may turn on us.

If you're not in a crisis, this is the time to dig in deep into the Lord and His Word. From this, you will grow the roots that will provide you with the strength to weather the inevitable storms that come. Spend time alone with God and His Word, feeding your soul.

“It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

Matt 4:4

One way to always be progressing in your relationship with God is to lead a life of stewardship through thoughts and deeds. As Christ acknowledged the widow at the temple giving her last two coins in gratitude for what she had been blessed with, He also admonished the rich for their restricted symbolic giving.

Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a few cents. Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on.”

Mark 12: 41-44

If you are concerned about possible hard times, the future, or anything, the best thing to do is the easiest thing, and that's to look outside yourself and help a fellow brother or sister. There are plenty of people that need help, if only to offer encouragement to someone that may have life a bit harder than you. Comfort is one of Jesus's greatest blessings, and it is ours as well.

- Memorial Mass for †Marian Wesolowski, January 8th, at 11am.
- Board meeting on Monday, January 10th, at 7pm.

We hope everyone had a safe and Happy New Year! We pray that 2022 will be a better year and ask for God's blessings upon our nation and citizens.

Our school is looking for donations of copy paper, clear tape for dispensers, and staples for staplers. If you would like to help out, please bring your donation to the January 19th meeting,

The Columbiettes continue to offer Holy Water at the east church doors. To help offset the cost, the suggested donation is $1.00 per bottle and it is set up for self-service. From The Power of One Drop of Holy Water: "Our bodies and souls are daily exposed to danger. As often as we use Holy Water, or it is used for us, we are given strength to do good and avoid evil."

Answer a prayer and remember the poor as many people are still in need. Donations of food and money are down and the Care Ministry needs our help. Poor boxes and baskets are located near the church doors. Your generosity towards those who are less fortunate is greatly appreciated

We welcome you to become part of a great group of women who are active in community services and our church. We are caring and sharing in all that we do, and in the process, we form great friendships. If you are interested in becoming a Columbiette, or would like more information, please contact Gail Colvin at (516) 314-4440.

St. Vincent Ferrer Care Ministry

Thank you for your generosity and please continue to pray for us in our mission to help others. The Care Ministry wishes everyone a Blessed and Healthy New Year!

This Sunday is the Epiphany of the Lord.

Proverbs 22: 1-2, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold. The rich and poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all."

Thanks to your generosity listed below, the Care Ministry was able to do a few more things in the Delray Beach area during this blessed Christmas Season.

1. We sent homeless families and their children in local schools to Boston Market for a Christmas meal. Also, your gifts donated at the angel tree, and some additional gifts were delivered to 135 instead of the 110 mentioned prior (homeless children in Delray Schools).
2. The Care Ministry supports "Eat Better Live Better." They deliver food to homes and clients can pick up food at their pantry. This has been a Godsend to our clients who are suffering with cancer, diabetes, and other ailments where their diet is restricted.
3. Assistance to our Senior population who needed assistance. Many are raising grandchildren.
4. Donations to provide shoes, socks, and other goods to help the homeless population as needed.
5. Continued support to the local CROS Food Pantry and Caring Kitchen who serve meals to those in need each day.

The mission of the Care Ministry is to be a channel of God's love by providing solutions to area citizens for the many issues they call for. It could be the need for a utility payment to avoid disconnection, rent help in the event of an eviction notice, grocery store cards to purchase food, and help with other unforeseen events affecting them.

If interested in joining our ministry or attending one of our meetings, please call 561-272-7580 and leave a message for Jackie expressing your interest and we will return your call.

SVFCM is a 501 (C) (3) nonprofit Care Ministry. Your tax-deductible donations are recorded in the parish end of the year report which is available upon request.

Our St. Vincent Ferrer Care Ministry is here to help the less fortunate of our community. There is no need to give money to panhandlers. If you are approached by anyone on the grounds of the church, kindly give them our phone number. We are here to help them.
