"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." (Mk 12:43-44)

We have all heard the saying It's the thought that counts, it's the self giving in the gift which expresses love' and that is what Jesus is telling us in the story of the window's mite. What makes her gift valuable and important is not its size but the heart and the sacrifice behind it. In the eyes of the passers by, the widow's offering is virtually worthless but in the sight of God it is most precious.

After throwing her last two coins in the box, she is available to say: 'This is the best I can do for it's all that I have got.' What wins her the Lord's favor and earns his commendation, is the fact that she keeps nothing back for herself. Her small gift is her all. In a way she is making an offering of her total life to God.

This little incident outside the temple is worth recalling because it draws our attention to the manner in which Jesus weighs us up and judges us. While we are content to be guided by appearances, to judge people by what they possess and to value present by how they cost, Christ measures us in a totally different way. His searching eyes penetrate into souls and reveal the inner motives and the hidden intentions behind our actions. He is concerned with the sacrifices we are making, how much of our lives are surrendered to him and whether we are taking his demands seriously.

The hidden value of the widow's offering teaches us that material goods are not the most important factor in the world. The issue being discussed in this gospel is discipleship: generosity of spirit, not money, for we all have something more precious than money to offer God. What God is looking for is our lives. He wants our hearts and not our possessions. So often our giving and contributions to worthy causes are conscience solvers. They amount to a fulfilling of the externals without indicating any real compassion of heart. We can use them as an excuse to avoid personal involvement and dedicated service to the marginalized of our area. What is hardest to give is ourselves in love and concern, because it costs more than reaching for our purses. Our Christmas presents are another case in point.

Learning to give generously to God is a difficult lesson to master and yet there is no true following of Christ without such self denial. This gospel story invites us to live in a way that hurts and does not count the cost, for it is in giving that we receive. Our life story can easily be one of non response to the needs of others, indicating how we really give of ourselves to God. There is an image gap between what we are and what we should be. The life giving sacrifice of Jesus, who gave up everything for us on the cross, can inspire us to bridge that gap.

Our hearts go out in prayer to God the Father who gives bread to the hungry and who upholds the right of the widow and the orphan.

God Bless,

Beginning this weekend the Archbishop has stated that all those who are vaccinated do not have to wear a mask at Church. All unvaccinated are required to wear a mask.
All other Covid 19 requirements remain in place at the current time.

St. Bonaventure Parish Happenings

Whose Needs? Mine, Yours or Both?

We are driven to satisfy our needs. If someone else has a need, do we share? A poor widow in the Bible learned the answer to this question in First Kings 17:7-16 from the prophet Elijah after God spoke to him:

"Go at once to Zarephath in the region of Sidon and stay there. I have directed a widow there to supply you with food." So, he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, "Would you bring me a little water in a jar?" As she was going to get it, he called, "And bring me, please, a piece of bread."

"As surely as the Lord your God lives," she replied, "I don't have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it—and die." Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small loaf of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son. For this is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says: 'The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the Lord sends rain on the land."

"She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So, there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family. For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the Lord spoken by Elijah." By sharing the little we have God makes a way for us and those we help. But we have to do it to prove God's Word true. Remember the little boy who gave two fish that fed 5,000? Have faith in God. As Knights of Columbus, we give. Then we get more. His Word to Elijah is true for us Knights and for you. Peace be with you.

Stewardship

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." (Mark 12:43-44)

We are all called to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance.

No gift is too small or insignificant! Support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center Women's Weekend Retreat

At Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center in North Palm Beach, you will find a beautiful, relaxing setting for prayer, reflection, sharing and worship. The retreat theme for this year is "Be Compassionate As Our Heavenly Father is Compassionate (LK. 6:36). Compassion is the most powerful force in the world. It can defeat indifference, intolerance, and injustice and help us to reinstate peace, love, and unity. Our Savior humbled Himself to live among us, identifying with us. On our behalf, "though He was in the form of God... emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant" (Philippians 2: 6-7). And feeling as we feel and weeping as we weep, He died on a cross, sacrificing His life to save ours.

Come and join us along with other women of our Parish, on our annual retreat on the weekend of January 21st -23rd, 2022. If you do not wish to stay overnight, you can commute each day. The retreat will begin with registration at 5pm and dinner at 6pm on Friday night. It will end on Sunday after the 11am mass. You can register online @www.ourladyofflorida.org or call 561-626-1300. Should you have any questions, please call Theresa Kline at 954-249-3924.

#because we care... #we're reaching out

#we'll be calling you soon!

Volunteers from St. Bonaventure are reaching out and making phone calls every Saturday to check up on our parishioners and see how everyone is doing. These have certainly been long and trying times. Let us know how you are when we call. The volunteers will also update your contact information at the same time in case it has changed since you first registered in the parish.

Divine Will

 Book of Heaven, Volume 4, pgs. 75 - 76, Jesus to Luisa: "The charity most acceptable to Me is toward those who are closest to Me. Now those who are closest to Me are the purgatory souls, because they are confirmed in My grace and there is no opposition between My Will and theirs. They live continuously in Me; they ardently love Me and I'm forced to see them suffer within Myself, while they are powerless to give themselves the slightest relief. Oh how tortured My heart is by the state of these souls, because they are not far from Me, but near - and not only near, but inside of Me! And how pleasing to My heart is someone who takes interest in them. The second charity most acceptable to My Heart is toward those who, though living on earth, are almost like the purging souls; that is, they love Me, they always do My Will, and they interest themselves with My things as if they were their own. Now if these are oppressed, in need, or in a state of suffering, and someone concerns himself with relieving them and helping them, this is more pleasing to My Heart than if it were done to others." The creation of woman was a marvelous moment in time, but somehow the wonder of that moment has been lost and women have become the heiresses of imprisoning stereotypes. "Go In Peace" points the way to reclaiming the full blessing and potential of womanhood in the spiritual liberation of the Lord Jesus Christ. "This manuscript," says Barbara Leahy Shlemon, who wrote the Foreword, "is sure to provide a source of healing for many women (and men too)...It is an excellent work."
