33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." - Mk 13:30-32

*Thirty - third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 14, 2021*

And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."

(Mk 13:26-27)

The end of another season and the approach of winter. The church, on this Sunday every November, invites us to pause momentarily for serious thought. It directs our attention to the end of the world, the last judgment and the Lord's coming in glory. Every age has its share of false prophets, scare-mongering, predicting doom and calamity, so we may not take easily to such a message. It's apt to release, within our minds, great surges of fear about punishment, destruction and death. Yet scripture is not meant to frighten or threaten but to give consolation, hope and encouragement in life's difficulties. The great truth of the gospel is that God's love has triumphed over the power of evil and will put things right. God is on our side and will see us through our present troubles.

The readings aim to focus our minds on an overall view of life's purpose so as to encourage us to live on a more spiritual level. We are no earthly pilgrimage and have within us deep seated longings for a better world. At journey's end we are hoping for an everlasting happiness, for a bright dawn to emerge out of our present darkness. What is important to remember is that our own death spells the end of our particular world. At that moment, life's mission is accomplished and we go forward to meet Christ face to face. It may happen at any time and we've got to be prepared for the encounter. While we cannot avoid a sudden death, we can take steps against an unprepared death by living each day carefully as if it is our last and by keeping God ever in our sight.

Nowadays we seldom hear talk of hell. It has become a forbidden conversational topic and yet the reality of it all is, Christ states that it is possible for us to shipwreck our lives, turn our backs on him and not be called into his company on the last day. Hell means eternal separation from God who is love; a calm and deliberate rejection of his mercy. It will be a sad parting, a missed opportunity, but God will always respect our freedom. We will have no one to blame but ourselves for preventing God from drawing us to eternal life. Where we will stand when Christ comes, will depend on the way we are trying to live now. Being his friend at the moment of death will not be a matter of luck. We are what we are doing. Christ comes to us each day offering us his life and inviting us to his side. The call he makes at death is only the final in a series of approaches. Judgment is happening all the time.

If we are carrying God in our hearts wherever we go, heaven will not come as a surprise, but as a full blossoming of the world we have been building for ourselves, It makes sense to pause and to do some spiritual stock taking. We can all check what our relationship with God is like and where our hearts and values lie. Have we put our confidence in the way he has shown us? We are people with a glorious future so let's not spoil it by refusing to live upright lives.

Having taken to heart the saving words of scripture, encouraging us towards final perseverance, we now approach God the Father in prayer.

God Bless,

John S.

Do We Ever Doubt His Goodness?

Did the millions martyred for Jesus doubt God's goodness? "We estimate that more than 70 million Christians have been martyred over the last two millennia, more than half of which died in the 20th century under fascist and communist regimes. We also estimate that 1 million Christians were killed between 2001 and 2010 and about 900,000 were killed from 2011 to 2020." Source: Christian Martyrdom.

<https://www.gordonconwell.edu>.

There may be millions more martyrs before Christ returns. In 2 Timothy 3:12, St. Paul writes: "All who want to live religiously in Christ Jesus will be persecuted."

How do we respond to the vicissitudes of normal living in an imperfect world? Every complaint we utter about anything is an opportunity to give thanks instead. "In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thessalonians 5:18) Even martyrdom doesn't merit a complaint or a doubt about God's goodness. Three scriptures should dispel all doubt about His Goodness: "After recalling the apostles, they had them flogged, ordered them to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So, they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name." Acts 5:40-41

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus, they persecuted the prophets who were before you." Matthew 5:11-12

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28) No reason to doubt God's goodness in life or death if we love and serve Him. Let's always be joyful. Peace be with you.

Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center Women's Weekend Retreat

At Our Lady of Florida Spiritual Center in North Palm Beach, you will find a beautiful, relaxing setting for prayer, reflection, sharing and worship. The retreat theme for this year is "Be Compassionate As Our Heavenly Father is Compassionate (LK. 6:36). Compassion is the most powerful force in the world. It can defeat indifference, intolerance, and injustice and help us to reinstate peace, love, and unity. Our Savior humbled Himself to live among us, identifying with us. On our behalf, "though He was in the form of God... emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant" (Philippians 2: 6-7). And feeling as we feel and weeping as we weep, He died on a cross, sacrificing His life to save ours.

Come and join us along with other women of our Parish, on our annual retreat on the weekend of January 21st -23rd, 2022. If you do not wish to stay overnight, you can commute each day. The retreat will begin with registration at 5pm and dinner at 6pm on Friday night. It will end on Sunday after the 11am mass. You can register online @www.ourladyofflorida.org or call 561-626-1300. Should you have any questions, please call Theresa Kline at 954-249-3924.

#because we care... #we're reaching out

#we'll be calling you soon!

Volunteers from St. Bonaventure are reaching out and making phone calls every Saturday to check up on our parishioners and see how everyone is doing. These have certainly been long and trying times. Let us know how you are when we call. The volunteers will also update your contact information at the same time in case it has changed since you first registered in the parish.

Divine Will

BBook of Heaven, Volume 11, pgs. 204-205, Jesus to Luisa: " My daughter, the world is unbalanced because it lost the thought of My Passion. In the darkness, the world did not find the light of My Passion that was illuminating it, which, making it know My Love and how many pains souls cost Me, man could return to love the One who truly loved him. And the light of My Passion, guiding man, was warning him of all dangers. In his weakness, man did not find the strength of My Passion that was sustaining him. In his impatience, he did not find the mirror of My Patience that fused calmness and resignation into him. And in front of My Patience, shaming himself, man made a duty for himself to dominate himself. In his pains, he did not find the comfort of the pains of a God, who, sustaining man's pains, was infusing love of suffering to him. In sin, man did not find My Sanctity, which, providing for him, was infusing hate of sin into him. Ah, in everything, man has been abusive, because he moved away, in everything, from the One Who could help him. Therefore, the world lost its equilibrium. It has acted like a child that no longer wanted to recognize its mother; like a disciple who, disowning the teacher, did not want to hear its teachings anymore, nor learn its lessons. What will be of this child and of this disciple? They will be the pain of themselves, and the terror and pain of society. Such has man become: terror and pain, but pain without pity. Ah, man becomes worse, always worse, and I cry for him with tears of blood."

St. Bonaventure Adult Library

"The purpose of this work is to unfold the meaning of the spiritual life and the meaning of emotional suffering in order to speak to those who see no meaning in their pain and by this to provide the reality of a healing effect," writes Robert Fabing. To this end, the author examines the spiritual life, "movement toward God," and its meaning, positing emotionality as its essential ingredient. To know God is to know ourselves, completely, inside and out, journeying to the dark recesses of our unconscious, the seat of emotional and psychological strife, and ascending to the light of consciousness with the help of reflective prayer and insight that leads to healing, union with God, and "holiness." In short, the spiritual life is an emotional journey toward self-knowledge in the company of God. Complete with spiritual and psychological resources, explications of the problems and stages of the spiritual journey, and end chapter questions and bibliographies, as well as an overall bibliography at the end of the book, the author provides a comforting, inspirational, and well-considered guide for individual or group sojourners working through, and seeking meaning from, the pain of the spiritual quest. Dewey number 248.4 All of our books are available for your spiritual growth on many different areas. We hope you enjoy this service. If you have books to return please do so at the return box. This service is FREE and you have all the time you need. Any question please contact Damary Lebrón @ 954-816-9347

Word of Life

"We can't imagine loving a child whom we conceived more than we love Andrew. It is amazing how he fits our personalities so well... Adopting Andrew has made us more aware of God's power and of his love for us. We realize that he always has a perfect plan for our lives."
USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities,
"An Adoption Love Story" (respectlife.org/adoption-love-story)

We need Ushers for our Sunday 10:30 AM and 12:00 Mases. If you would like to volunteer to help greet and seat parishioners please call Wade at (954) 931-1877 or email: wrbrabble2@gmail.com

"No podemos imaginar amar a un niño que concebimos más de lo que amamos a Andrew. Es sorprendente lo bien que se adapta a nuestras personalidades... Adoptar a Andrew nos ha hecho más conscientes del poder de Dios y de su amor por nosotros. Comprendemos que siempre tiene un plan perfecto para nuestras vidas".
