Fourth Sunday Of Lent
March 27, 2022

“But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.”

(Lk 15:32)

“This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.” (Luke 15:2)

With what scorn the Pharisees uttered these words about Jesus! How contemptible he had become in their eyes - a man who defied their conventions and shared fellowship with the very “sinners” they condemned. Yet for all of us who have come to recognize ourselves in these wayward ones, what gratitude we feel that Jesus would indeed welcome us.

The story of the prodigal son is one of Scriptures most intimate pictures of the grace and mercy of God. It presents a father severely wronged by his child, yet never rejecting him. Instead of a heart set on vengeance, we see a heart filled with mercy and compassion, a heart that simply wants to be reunited with a loved one. Even before he was asked to forgive, this father embraced his child and clothed him in mercy.

Imagine how startled this young man must have been! Far from the anger or coldness he might have expected, he was showered with love, mercy, and acceptance. The experience must have been overwhelming. Imagine his mind echoing the psalmist’s: “I sought the Lord, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears” (Psalm 34: 4-5).

As moving as this parable is, it is also capable of addressing all our lives. Each of us has sinned against our heavenly Father and needs to make the journey home in humility. When we do, we will find him rushing to embrace us.

In this experience of forgiveness and cleansing, we come to know the truth of Paul’s words: “If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, behold, the new has come” ( 2 Corinthians 5:17). The forgiveness available to us in Christ is so powerful that it goes far beyond pardon for our misdeeds. It involves a re-creation of our hearts and minds. Today, as you receive Jesus at Mass, ask the Father to take you one step closer to this new creation. Let him shower you with the grace that not only forgives but also makes you into a new person - the image of Christ on this earth.

*“Heavenly Father, I thank you for your love.
Let me never forget your mercy toward me or your power to make me a new creation.
Jesus, I want to become like you.”*

God Bless,

Jothea E.

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 4,
2/8/1902, Jesus to Luisa:"

My Daughter, the first meaning of the Passion contains glory, praise, honor, thanksgiving, and reparation for the Divinity. The second is the salvation of souls and all the graces needed to obtain this purpose. So for whoever participates in the pains of My Passion, not only does his life contain these same meanings, but he also assumes the same form as My Humanity. And since this Humanity is United with the Divinity, the soul who participates in My sufferings is also in contact with the Divinity and can obtain whatever it wants. In fact, it's sufferings are like keys to open the Divine treasures, and this is for as long as it lives here below. But there is a distinct glory reserved for it in Heaven above, given to the soul by My Humanity and Divinity so as to make it resemble My same light and glory. Through this soul and in consideration of that which I have communicated to it, a more special glory will be given to all of the Celestial Court. This is because the more that souls will become like Me in suffering, the more light and glory will come forth from within the Divinity. And here is how the whole Celestial Court Will participate in this glory."

Word Of Life

"There is an everyday heroism, made up of gestures of sharing, big or small, which build up an authentic culture of life... Part of this daily heroism is also the silent but effective and eloquent witness of all those 'brave mothers who devote themselves to their own family without reserve, who suffer in giving birth to their children and who are ready to make any effort, to face any sacrifice, in order to pass on to them the best of themselves'... We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life" (The Gospel of Life 86).

Dear St Bonaventure Community of Faith:

During this time of Lent, which is a special time of preparation for all of us, we are asking you to especially keep in your prayers those adults that are part of our RCIA program. The Catechumens are preparing to receive the sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist). The Candidates are those who will either be joining the Catholic Church for the first time, or are Catholics who never previously had the opportunity to complete their reception of these Sacraments. We ask you to please cut out the following bookmark for use in your Lenten prayers.

Knights of Columbus The Extra Mile Christian

When the Roman army occupied Israel, its soldiers could compel Jews to carry a burden for one mile. Humiliating as it was (Romans were loathed) Jesus asks them to do this:

"Whoever will press you into service for one mile, go with him two." (Matthew 5:41).

It's against human nature but a higher purpose lay beneath it: winning over an enemy. If his instruction was followed, the occupying army might see Jews in a different and more favorable light, and so treat them more favorably. What was the power of his words to change circumstances? Will we improve our lives if we don't repudiate those we don't like?

Social anthropologists defined 'The Social Law of Reciprocity.' When someone does something nice for you, you will have a deep-rooted psychological urge to do something nice in return. As a matter of fact, you may even reciprocate with a gesture far more generous than their original good deed. Many animal species show this trait.

In Luke 6:38, Jesus predicts what happens if we first sacrifice something of ourselves for others' benefit: "Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Wow? Giving initiates the receiving process.

Reciprocity from soldiers could mean a safer life for the Jews. If we treat others badly because we don't like them, the reverse happens – negative reciprocity. Our psychology turns upside down. We forfeit a benefit we could accrue, to assure ourselves of something we don't want, like disgust, retribution. Wow! Giving initiates the receiving process.

Attitude to others is a choice - with consequences - one way or the other. Let's go the extra mile. Peace be with you.

St. Bonaventure Parish Happenings

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Lay men and women can serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion here at St. Bonaventure Catholic Church. They assist the priests and deacons with the distribution of the Eucharist to our parish community.

Being part of "the body of Christ, giving the body of Christ, to the body Christ" is such a blessing. With your participation in the holiest of sacraments; the Eucharist, you answer Christ's call to service which is a manifestation of His love and mercy in this world.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion serve during mass. They also bring Communion to the sick and homebound of our parish community.

We invite you to consider the possibility of serving as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion either in a traditional parish mass setting, the parish community sick & homebound or both.

We ask you to pray for this ministry, for the Lord's blessings and guidance as we continue to serve Him and His people. May He clear the way so that many more may answer His call to service.

For further information, please feel free to reach out to us. We will be happy discuss this with you.

In Christ,

Joseph & Tere Ingellis

John 6:57-58

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Palabra De Vida

“Está el heroísmo cotidiano, hecho de pequeños o grandes gestos de solidaridad que alimentan una auténtica cultura de la vida. ... A este heroísmo cotidiano pertenece el testimonio silencioso, pero a la vez fecundo y elocuente, de 'todas las madres valientes, que se dedican sin reservas a su familia, que sufren al dar a luz a sus hijos, y luego están dispuestas a soportar cualquier esfuerzo, a afrontar cualquier sacrificio, para transmitirles lo mejor de sí mismas'. ... Os damos las gracias, madres heroicas, por vuestro amor invencible. Os damos las gracias por la intrépida confianza en Dios y en su amor. Os damos las gracias por el sacrificio de vuestra vida” (El Evangelio de la Vida 86).

Parish Priest: Father Michael McGivney and American Catholicism by Douglas Brinkley

Parish Priest: Father Michael McGivney and American Catholicism is a biography of Father Michael J. McGivney, founder of the Knights of Columbus.

In a time of discrimination and poverty for Catholics across America, Father Michael McGivney (1852-1890), began a legacy of hope that continues to this day. Called to action in 1882 by his sympathy for these suffering people, this dynamic yet tenderhearted man—the son of Irish immigrants—founded the Knights of Columbus, an organization that has saved countless families from destitution.

At heart, Father McGivney was the model of an American parish priest: Beloved by children, trusted by adults, and regarded as a “positive saint” by the elderly in his New Haven, CT, parish—a truly holy man whose life and works are still celebrated today. Dewey number 282.0924 All of our books are available for your spiritual growth on many different areas. We hope you enjoy this service. If you have books to return please do so at the return box. This service is FREE and you have all the time you need. Any question please contact Damary Lebrón @ 954-816-9347
