*3rd Sunday of Easter
May 1, 2022*

Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.

(Jn 21:13)

Do you love me? (John 21:15).

Jesus' questioning of Peter in such a direct way was not intended to make Peter feel guilty. And neither was it an ego trip for the Lord. Jesus didn't need Peter's love to feel better about himself. He already knew-better than Peter himself - how much Peter loved him. Rather, Jesus wanted Peter to reach deep within himself and see how much love for the Lord was actually there.

Jesus questioned Peter at a pivotal moment to show that Peter's love for him was greater than any opposing power that might try to keep him bound in the memory of his failures. He wanted Peter to see that while he would make mistakes, his love for Jesus could still cover a multitude of human failings. This was probably one of the most encouraging interrogations anyone could experience! True, Jesus' questions must have disturbed Peter. But in the end, they actually restored his faith in himself as a child of God and as a chosen apostle. They helped Peter understand that even in spite of his imperfections, he could still serve Jesus fully.

Today, Jesus asks each of us, "Do you love me?" even though he already knows the answer. We should welcome this kind of questioning. He doesn't doubt us. He only wants to burn away any unbelief in us with the fire of his love - a love that will create an even deeper love for him in our hearts.

Today at Mass, welcome Jesus into your heart so that he can expand your capacity to love. Yes, you will make mistakes; no one is sinless. But know that as you declare your love to Jesus, he will strengthen you and empower you to take up the work he has called you to. Then your love for him will become the visible proof that his kingdom really has come to earth.

*"Jesus, you know how much I love you.
Continue refining me with the fire of your love so that I may love you more and show my love to you and my neighbors."*

God Bless,

John E.

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 6, pgs. 121-122, Jesus to Luisa: "My daughter, they say that the road of perfection is difficult. It is difficult for whoever does not walk it, because not knowing grace, nor the consolations that one must receive from God, nor the assistance that it receives, it seems difficult to the soul. And by not walking it, the soul feels all the weight of that road. But, for whoever walks it, the road becomes easy, because the grace that inundates the soul fortifies the soul, the beauty of virtue attracts him, and the Divine Spouse of souls carries the soul, leaning it upon His arm, accompanying it on the road. And the soul, instead of feeling the weight, the difficulty of the walk, wants to hurry the walk, in order to arrive quicker to the end of the road and to its center from where it came forth."

Faithful or Fainting? At Your Limit?

In Luke 18:1, he writes: "Then He (Jesus) told them a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart."

Failing to pray and losing heart in a crisis correlate. Likewise, prayer and faithfulness correlate. It's prayer or panic.

Not many issues take us to our limit. Does that minimize the need for prayer? Luke says the parable is about praying continually. Continual prayer prevents losing heart. Staying 'prayed up' is the point. "Give us this day our daily bread." We need bread every day; we ask for it every day, along with everything else we and others need.

If our faith grows through trials, should we hope to avoid trials or lose heart during them? Of course, neither. Pleasant times are great, but they don't stretch our faith. When Jesus said in the Beatitudes, 'Blessed are the poor in spirit,' and 'Blessed are they that mourn,' he was talking about the outcomes St. Paul listed in Galatians 5:22: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." People with that fruit in their lives have reached their limit many times, but got through it - not around it - by prayer and enduring faith.

Jesus invited Peter to walk on the water toward him in the middle of a raging storm (Matthew 14:30): "But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." When we doubt, we go down. Of course, Jesus saved him. He wants all of us to step out in faith and he will save us when we reach our limit. Your prayer will save you too in a crisis but don't wait until then to start praying.

If you are a praying man, join your prayers with ours in the Knights of Columbus. Together, we bring the fruit of the Spirit to our Parish and beyond.

RETURN TO JERUSALEM 17

Saturday, JUNE 04, 2022

We are being called back to one of the basic principles of the church, fellowship with each other and Christ. At the conclusion of Luke's Emmaus Gospel, the two disciples return to Jerusalem to share their encounter with the risen Christ and other believers. It is in Jerusalem that Jesus then appears to His apostles, and He instructed them to stay together in Jerusalem until He sends them His Holy Spirit. They are told to grow together in faith and knowledge. They are told to encourage and strengthen each other. Please join your fellow Emmaus sisters as we come together for a day of praise, worship, prayer and encouragement.

Come with an open heart, and Jesus will meet you in Jerusalem. It's been a long time! Come and spend some time with your Emmaus #1-40 Sisters-in-Christ.

Date: Saturday, June. 04, 2022

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

Lay men and women can serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion here at St. Bonaventure Catholic Church. They assist the priests and deacons with the distribution of the Eucharist to our parish community.

Being part of "the body of Christ, giving the body of Christ, to the body Christ" is such a blessing. With your participation in the holiest of sacraments; the Eucharist, you answer Christ's call to service which is a manifestation of His love and mercy in this world.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion serve during mass. They also bring Communion to the sick and homebound of our parish community.

We invite you to consider the possibility of serving as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion either in a traditional parish mass setting, the parish community sick & homebound or both.

We ask you to pray for this ministry, for the Lord's blessings and guidance as we continue to serve Him and His people. May He clear the way so that many more may answer His call to service.

For further information, please feel free to reach out to us. We will be happy discuss this with you.

John 6:57-58

Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.

I Heard God Laugh: A Practical Guide to Life's Essential Daily Habit by Matthew Kelly

Is Your Life Working?

Most of us are trying to put together the jigsaw puzzle we call life without a very important piece. Over time this becomes incredibly frustrating. Matthew Kelly powerfully demonstrates that we cannot live the life we have imagined, or experience the joy we yearn for, unless we learn to tend the soul. From there, with his classic style of practical wisdom, he teaches us how to remedy this problem.

Are you taking care of your soul? Are you feeding it and nurturing it? Or are you ignoring it and neglecting it? The reality is, most people have never really been taught how to tend their souls. I Heard God Laugh will help you to do just that, and so much more.
