4th Sunday of Easter

May 8, 2022

*We are his people,
the sheep of his flock,*

Psalm 100

There is such a need for religious vocation in the church that the Holy Father has set this Sunday aside as a world day of prayer that the Lord of the harvest may send laborers into his harvest. We all have a mission in life, because the word of God, which came to birth in our souls at baptism, is within to blossom forth in a more total way in each of us. God has created us for some definite service. While we may not be able to gauge with any real accuracy the effectiveness of our lives, there is nowhere we walk in life without leaving the imprint of who we are upon the ground we tread. We can be a little bit of Christ in our own homes and do our best to cooperate with his invitation to 'come, follow me.'

The gospel picks up the idea of Christ the good shepherd calling each of us by name as we journey through life by different ways. Youth is a time of great generosity, idealism and hope. Evidence of this is in the way young people give of their time and talents to deprived groups in society. In these loud and frantic days it may be more difficult for them to hear the voice of the Lord calling, so we should pray that, as they face the decision about their future role in life, they will leave open the possibility of a religious vocation and ask God's help to make the right choice in their calling. There are enormous riches within the hearts of youth riches that are theirs to spend lavishly during life. Many of them are unaware of their giftedness and never draw on their talents because they are afraid to take the risk of faith which is needed. By opening their hearts in prayerful service, God, and not material things, will be the focus of their attention. The special calling facing them is to be Christ to others in times of need, to be healers in times of sorrow, towers of strength in times of distress and a shoulder to lean upon when support is needed.

It is always easier to wash one's hands of the responsibility of proclaiming the gospel than to become involved. However, the duty of fostering vocations is the concern of the whole believing community and we discharge that responsibility by living full Christian lives. Parents, vocations come from families like your own, where there is a climate created within the home based on solid Christian values, and where encouragement is given to follow the Lord in a special way. Your support is particularly important, because your own, where there is a climate created within the home based on solid Christian values, and where encouragement is given to follow the Lord in a special way. Your support is particularly important, because your child's faith grows through the example of your own faith by the practice of prayer in the church and in the family. We preach not something exterior but the life we live and lead. God does not knock at every door looking for something to respond to a religious vocation. If he happens to knock at your door, be generous enough to let him in. How otherwise will the needs of the flock in the next generation be met?

Mindful that the kingdom of God has the need of dedicated young people prepared to spend their lives in living service, we make our prayer to God the Father.

God Bless,

John Ed

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 12, pg. 242, Jesus to Luisa: "My daughter, the first "yes" in My Fiat, I asked of My dear Mother, and oh, the power of Her Fiat in My Volition! As soon as the Divine Fiat joined with the Fiat of My Mother, It became one. My Fiat raised Her, divinized Her, overshadowed Her, and without any human work, conceived Me, the Son of God. Only in My Fiat could She conceive Me. My Fiat communicated in a Divine way: the immensity, the infinite, and the fecundity. Therefore, the Immense One, the Eternal One, the Infinite One was able to be conceived in Her. As soon as She announced the " Fiat Mihi" (Be it done unto Me), not only did She take possession of Me, but also She overshadowed all creatures and all created things. She felt the lives of all creatures within Her. And so, She began to be Mother and Queen of everyone. How many portents this "yes" of My Mother contains. My origin in time had the "Fiat Mihi" of the Immaculate Mother. Therefore, all My works carry the mark of Her "Fiat Mihi". Therefore, Her "Fiat Mihi" is in every sacramental host. If man rises from sin, if the newborn is baptized, if Heaven opens to receive souls, it is the "Fiat Mihi" of My Mother that marks, that follies, and provides everything."

How Does Scripture Help Us?

The answer, of course, is in the scriptures. Matthew 28:19-20:
"Go make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you." Scripture contains the "all" that we must observe.

"One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4) Staying immersed in scripture and applying it, according to Jesus, is not optional. It is what the 'saved' do because Jesus is our Lord. Nothing replaces scripture.

Matthew 7:7: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven." Scripture teaches us God's will.

Romans 10:13: "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." The Apostle Paul urges us all to call on the Lord for salvation. We will be heard. Even in our lowest point in life, he is there to save us. Scripture contains the promises our destiny hangs on.

John 6:37: "Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me." We come because the Father has given us to Jesus. That's what made Peter confess Christ's divinity. Christ is the living Word of God. Scriptures reveal Christ to us.

2 Timothy 3:16-17: "All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work."

Let's devour the Word of God. Peace be with you!
