*5th Sunday of Easter
May 15, 2022*

I give you a new commandment: love one another.

*As I have loved you,
so you also should love one another.*

(Jn 13:34)

It may come as a surprise to realize that Jesus gave us the command to love one another at the Last Supper shortly after Judas had left the upper room on his mission of betrayal. This was the new order the Savior had come to bring, and the sign by which the world would recognize his followers. Christ paid a great price to love us. It meant crucifixion and death on the cross at Calvary. If we are to live by this new commandment we must undergo many trials, for this love makes as many demands upon us as it did upon Christ. We need to learn how to go about loving others for the sake of God because, in the evening of life, we will be judged on how well we have loved.

Christ's rule for living life properly may not present problems as far as loving our friends is concerned. Most of us are fairly good at overlooking their faults, making allowances for their shortcomings and forgiving their failures. It is easy to love those who are kind and loving towards us but Christian love calls us to do more than this. Nobody must be excluded from our loving. What about our enemies those who have done us harm and perhaps still do? We fail miserably when we retaliate and our good intentions are shattered as we gossip about them. The making of ourselves into real Christians is the work of a lifetime. Conversion does not take place overnight and requires much patience.

The one thing we all need to experience is the kind of love that Jesus lived and preached. It's a love which finds its source in God, is a fragment of eternity within our being and without which our lives have no meaning. This is the one Commandment on which we are called to base every action and it is the very core of the gospel. Love has the power to give meaning to impossible situations, to bring light into darkness, to inspire people, fill them with hope and give them the courage to continue on the road ahead. The Lord may not be walking our pathway today in his physical body but in every age he continues the work of making the whole of creation new through his disciples. The good news is that we have been chosen to be instruments of his grace, channels through which others may experience his love. It may simply be a smile which costs nothing but means so much, because it comes from our heart. In one sense the only failure facing any Christian in life is the failure to love.

The gospel is an invitation to look into our hearts and see how we are answering this call to love in our lives and within our families. There is always the danger that we may be in love with ourselves instead of with one another. The presence of God so easily fades into the background when we give way to this inner selfishness. The real test of love is how we respect others. No one can be a friend of Jesus Christ who does not love his neighbor.

As a community united in love and filled with concern for one another, we call upon God the Father and ask for his support in our pilgrimage.

God Bless,

John Ed

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 4, pgs. 59-60, Jesus to Luisa: "My love, do you want to know when it is that an action is done for one's beloved? When upon meeting with sacrifices, bitterness, and pains, there is the virtue of changing them into sweetness and delights. This is the nature of true love: to convert pains into joys, bitterness into sweetness. If one experiences the opposite, it is a sign that it is not true love that is acting. Generally it is said that one's own will spoils everything and infects the holiest works. Yet, if one's own will is joined with the Will of God, there exists no other virtue that can surpass this. This is so, because where there is a Divine Will, there is life in doing good, but where there is no Divine Will, there is death in whatever is done; or at most one does what he does with difficulty, as though in agony." What Do You Think of Yourself?

Our self-concept is shaped by what we think others think of us, and what we think of ourselves. Most often we remember negative things we've done, mistakes, not living up to our consciences. This causes 'negative self-talk'. It makes it very hard to think God thinks good thoughts about us. Can we fix that disparity so we can feel better about ourselves?

Do you love your son or daughter? Does that influence what you think about them? Ok, then. God loves you. Because of Jesus' sacrifice for your sins and mine, they are gone. Isaiah 43:25: "I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; I will not remember your sins." Hebrews 8:12: "For I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sins no more."

Those files in your head (your hard drive) that contain all your bad deeds, don't you wish you had a 'delete button' to clear them out and forget them forever? Guess what, God has a delete button for his memory. He hit it on your sins. He has forgotten them and will never remember them again. Now, we align our thoughts with God's. That battle is going on in our minds. We capture those thoughts and trash them.

"The weapons of our battle are not of flesh but are enormously powerful, capable of destroying fortresses. We destroy arguments and every pretension raising itself against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive in obedience to Christ." Every time we think a negative thought about ourselves, we stop and say, 'That's forgiven and forgotten. I'm hitting the delete button. Out you go.' What we think will obedient to Christ – a positive self-concept. Peace be with you!

RETURN TO JERUSALEM 17

Saturday June 4, 2022

We are being called back to one of the basic principles of the church, fellowship with each other and Christ. At the conclusion of Luke's Emmaus Gospel, the two disciples return to Jerusalem to share their encounter with the risen Christ and other believers. It is in Jerusalem that Jesus then appears to His apostles, and He instructed them to stay together in Jerusalem until He sends them His Holy Spirit. They are told to grow together in faith and knowledge. They are told to encourage and strengthen each other. Please join your fellow Emmaus sisters as we come together for a day of praise, worship, prayer and encouragement.

Come with an open heart, and Jesus will meet you in Jerusalem. It's been a long time! Come and spend some time with your Emmaus #1-40 Sisters-in-Christ.

Palabra De Vida

"Porque todos necesitan ser reconfortados y, si no lo hacemos nosotros, que hemos palpado con nuestras manos 'el Verbo de la vida' (1 Jn 1,1), ¿quién lo hará? Qué hermoso es ser cristianos que consuelan, que llevan las cargas de los demás, que animan, que son mensajeros de vida en tiempos de muerte." Papa Francisco, Homilía de la Vigilia Pascual de 2020

Stewardship

“Love one another” (John 13:34)
Jesus gave His disciples — and us — a new commandment: “Love one another.” Good stewards who spend their time and talents in service to others are well on their way to fulfilling this commandment. Do we show the world we are His disciples by our love for one another?

Vocation Blessing Cup

Salt of the Earth: The Church at the End of the Millennium- An Interview With Peter Seewald by Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger

A well-known Vatican prelate and head of the Congregation on the Doctrine of the Faith, gives a full-length interview to secular journalist Peter Seewald, on a host of controversial and difficult issues facing Catholicism and Christianity at the end of the millennium. Similar to his best-selling book interview in 1985, The Ratzinger Report, he responds with candor and insight, giving answers that are often surprising and always thought-provoking on a series of wide-ranging topics regarding the present and future state of Christianity.

Ratzinger begins by discussing his own life, including his family life, being a theology professor and writer, becoming a Bishop, Cardinal and the Pope's top authority on doctrine. He then discusses the problems of the Catholic Church today and talks about the challenges and hopes of the future of Church and the world at the beginning of the Third Millennium. Dewey 282 Este All of our books are available for your spiritual growth on many different areas. We hope you enjoy this service. If you have books to return please do so at the return box.
