

6th Sunday
OF EASTER

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me tell you, 'I am going away and I will come back to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father; for the Father is greater than I." - Jn 14:27-28

Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 22, 2022

“The Advocate, the Holy Spirit,
 whom the Father will send in my name,
 will teach you everything
 and remind you of all that I told you.”

Jn 14:26

Occasionally we all experience the wrenching pain caused by saying goodbye. Here we have Jesus gently breaking the news of his departure to his disciples. The thought of his going away was so painful that their minds were almost numbered to what he had to say. Without him the future would be bleak and meaningless, as the whole focus and direction of their lives was gone. Yet Christ did not abandon them for, as his parting gift, he left the offer of peace which the world cannot give. This deeper peace, of walking with God, is difficult for the unspiritual mind to grasp. It was not a promise to preserve them from hardships and suffering, but a pledge to bring them safely through all trouble to eternal life. The peace Jesus was offering was the confidence of being loved, the assurance of knowing that God can be relied upon and trusted in hard times. It flows into our lives when we open our hearts and allow God’s healing presence to work within us. His strength is a powerful help to ease the tension and restlessness of life’s difficulties which afflict our minds and souls. This peace which Christ makes available is not easily won as it comes from striving consciously to live according to the known will of God.

Peace which means the absence of war, a lack of noise, the avoidance of conflicts, an hour without pain and suffering, was not the peace announced by the angels at Christ’s birth, nor willed at his death. The peace which is proclaimed is achieved by victory over sin due to the power of God, and Christ could speak of it on the night before he died. To obtain it means shutting out of our lives all that is selfish and greedy, all haltered and bitterness, and putting in their place forgiveness and the desire to help others and share with them the good things of life. The basis of peace is God. The secret of peace is trust, but the soul of peace is love which comes from the love of God and expresses itself in our love for people.

The question we have to ask is whether we are at peace with ourselves, which is the wonderful effect of being accepted by God. If his Spirit dwells within us we can accept others in his name. Excluding others from our company means we are erecting barriers which prevent God’s love and peace from reaching us.

We pray now to the Father in the name of his son and ask him to pour out upon us the gift of his spirit of peace.

God Bless,

Jathea E

Divine Will

Book of Heaven, Volume 4, pgs. 174-175, Jesus to Luisa:” My daughter, it can be said that all virtues are My qualities and attributes. However, love cannot be called an attribute of Mine, but rather, My very Nature. So all virtues form My Throne and My qualities, but love forms My very Self. Love has this property: to form of two objects, one alone; and of two wills, only one. So if the soul who loves Me forms one single thing with Me - one single will - how can it then be separated from Me? What’s more, being that My Nature is love, wherever it finds a few sparks of love in human nature, it immediately unites them to the eternal love. Therefore, just as it is impossible to form two souls out of one soul, or two bodies out of one body, so it is impossible for one who truly loves Me to become lost.” For information on living in the Divine Will call Rosalie 954-290-0436 or Cecilia Gomez DelCampo 954-240-5731

My Body, My Choice

May this poem capture the life-or-death drama the pregnant woman feels when entering a Planned Parenthood Clinic...

I have a choice: a life to save or a life to take.
Life or death power I have, my choice to make.
Two bodies are here alive, the tinier by my choice.

Would I choose death if hearing the tiny voice?

I think I will choose death. To give me free rein.
Free from care, duties, motherhood, labor pain.
Free from him or her who might have spoken.
Free from the many nights when I'd be woken.

Yes, death's a good choice – but how many say,
'How is death good, to never see the light of day'?

Well, what if my mother had chosen death for me?

What would my voice ask her, if her I were to see?

Ah! Maybe this: Did your choice make you free?
Were you free of the dreams you had of me?
When the innocent died, did you feel satisfaction?

Admit it, I got the death sentence from your action.

So, Mom, as you didn't, life was the better choice.

You were free to love me, awakened by my voice.

Attending the tiny body that was once inside yours.

Now we have each other, an eternal bond endures.

Stewardship

"Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid"
(John 14:27)

Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist troubled some of His followers, and they lost their faith. Do we, as Christian disciples, understand that Christ's Body and Blood is the foundation of our faith in the Lord?

La trágica decisión de la Corte Suprema de EE. UU. de Roe vs. Wade ha permitido la destrucción de millones de vidas inocentes por medio del aborto legalizado. La Corte Suprema está ahora en el proceso de decidir un caso que tiene el potencial de debilitar, o incluso anular, Roe vs. Wade. Mientras la Corte Suprema se prepara para hacer pública su decisión en el caso Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization, los cristianos en todo el país se han unido para rezar por este importante caso. How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization by Thomas E. Woods, JR.

Ask someone today where Western Civilization originated, and he or she might say Greece or Rome. But what is the ultimate source of Western Civilization? Bestselling author and professor Thomas E. Woods, Jr. provides the long neglected answer: the Catholic Church. In the new paperback edition of his critically-acclaimed book, How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization, Woods goes far beyond the familiar tale of monks copying manuscripts and preserving the wisdom of classical antiquity. Gifts such as modern science, free-market economics, art, music, and the idea of human rights come from the Catholic Church, explains Woods. In How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization. No institution has done more to shape Western civilization than the two-thousand-year-old Catholic Church—and in ways that many of us have forgotten or never known. How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization is essential reading for recovering this lost truth.
