Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 29, 2022

“Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

Acts 7:56

By virtue of our calling as Christians, we are meant to be optimistic people, full of hope and deep rooted confidence about our future. The ascension, which marks the final departure of Christ from his friends on earth, celebrates that hope. It proclaims that Jesus, who spent his life in Jerusalem and the surrounding countryside, achieved the work he was sent to do and now in heaven in the company of God the Father, beyond the boundaries of death and decay. What the feast does is to give us a glimpse of the destiny that awaits us. It spells out in no uncertain terms that our home land is heaven. Where Christ has gone we hope to follow, once our earthly journey is over. In his own person Christ has made available a sharing in his complete happiness which death cannot take from us or interrupt. This is the joyful hope we have as a safe and sure anchor for our lives. The Ascension assures us that the longing for happiness and fullness of life which is deeply imprinted within every person can ultimately be realized.

The final words of Jesus to the apostles were brief and to the point. ‘I am with you always. Go teach all nations.’ No longer confined to a bodily presence, he will be with his disciples in a new way, through the power of the Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life. Now that his earthly mission is over, he entrusts the continuation of his work to his friends who believe in him. Their task is to spread out from Jerusalem and to proclaim to all nations the salvation that he has won. In the same way as the first disciples, we are called to follow Christ and proclaim his message, by living in this passing world with our hearts set on a world that will never end. The best place to make a start is to get our lives in good spiritual shape. Actions speak louder than words. We carry on his mission more by what we are than by what we say. If the love of God burns in our hearts, people will see from our joy that life is good, has a purpose and is worth living. We preach the values of Christ in our neighbor by good example. The faithful love of a husband for his wife and the concern shown for the welfare of their children speaks more effectively about marriage and the family than any sermon. In the absence of Jesus we are placed firmly at the center of the stage to busy ourselves being his healing hands, his warm smile and his comforting words. The ascension reveals the work we must do in order to be with Christ forever. Our way to glory is none other than to witness to the Lord by taking up our cross and following in his footsteps.

On this day of hope and promise, we open our hearts to God the Father, whose power is at work in our lives and we ask his help in all needs.

Divine Will

The Virgin Mary in the Kingdom of the Divine Will, pg. 136, Mary to Luisa:" Now, dear child, My beloved, arisen Son Jesus remained forty days on earth. He appeared very often to the Apostles and disciples to confirm them in the faith and certainty of His Resurrection. And, when He was not with the Apostles, He was together with His Mother in the cenacle, surrounded by the souls who had come out of limbo. But at the end of those forty days, beloved Jesus instructed His Apostles, and, leaving His Mother as their guide and teacher, He promised the descent of the Holy Spirit. Then, blessing us all, He departed, taking flight through the vault of the heavens together with that great multitude of people freed from limbo. All those who were present, and they were a great number, saw Him ascend. Then, when He was up high, a cloud of light took Him from their sight. Now, My child, your Mother followed Him into Heaven and assisted at the great feast of the Ascension. And this was so since the Heavenly Fatherland was not foreign to Me. Then, without Me, the feast of My Son's Ascension into Heaven would not have been complete."

Palabra De Vida

"El Señor nos dice: 'No temas, porque yo estoy contigo' (Isaías 41,10). Él habla no solo como alguien que observa nuestro dolor, sino como quien ha sufrido inmensamente. Y esas heridas indican la esencia de nuestra identidad y valor: somos amados por Dios. Al reflexionar sobre las heridas sanadas del Cristo Resucitado, vemos que nuestras pruebas más difíciles pueden ser el lugar donde Dios manifiesta su victoria. Él hace que todo sea hermoso, que todo sea nuevo".

Stewardship

As he blessed them, he parted from them" (Luke 24:50-51)

Jesus ascended into heaven, blessing His disciples and promising that they would soon receive the power of the Holy Spirit. We, who have received that promised gift of the Spirit are now empowered to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth — to use our time and talents to spread the Good News of salvation

YOU: Unique with Unique Purpose

Each winter about 1 septillion (1, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000, 000 or a trillion trillion) snowflakes fall from the sky. No two are identical. No two sets of fingerprints match, nor two sets of DNA, except from identical twins. Scientists estimate that there are 2 trillion galaxies, each with about 200 billion stars. Our Milky Way galaxy has 400 billion. Most have planets. None identical from the thousands discovered so far.

You are absolutely unique! And that is how He knows you, and keeps up with every change in you throughout your life. Are there other ways you and I are unique? Gifts, abilities, interests, knowledge? Our uniqueness was made to fit a unique purpose? You don't want someone else doing your job, getting the reward that should come to you. But how do you find His will for you?

Romans 12:1-2: 'And so, I beg you, brothers, by the mercy of God that you offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, with the subservience of your mind. And do not choose to be conformed to this age, but instead choose to be reformed in the newness of your mind, so that you may demonstrate what is the will of God: what is good, and what is well-pleasing, and what is perfect.' We are able to demonstrate what the perfect will of God is for us AFTER we have offered up our lives to Him with a subservient mind.

What then is your high and holy purpose? While some know generally, some with specifics, some with details still to be unraveled, for all pursuing their unique calling it is exciting and fulfilling. They keep sacrificing their will to discover more about their uniqueness. Do you (Really!) have any idea how valuable you are? When you find your purpose and fulfill it, others will clearly see that God was at work in you.

RETURN TO JERUSALEM 17

Saturday June 4, 2022

We are being called back to one of the basic principles of the church, fellowship with each other and Christ. At the conclusion of Luke's Emmaus Gospel, the two disciples return to Jerusalem to share their encounter with the risen Christ and other believers. It is in Jerusalem that Jesus then appears to His apostles, and He instructed them to stay together in Jerusalem until He sends them His Holy Spirit. They are told to grow together in faith and knowledge. They are told to encourage and strengthen each other. Please join your fellow Emmaus sisters as we come together for a day of praise, worship, prayer and encouragement. Come with an open heart, and Jesus will meet you in Jerusalem. It's been a long time! Come and spend some time with your Emmaus #1-40 Sisters-in-Christ.

Word of Life

"The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Be Not Afraid"
