Pentecost Sunday

June 5, 2022

*And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues,
as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.*

(Acts 2:4)

Receive the Holy Spirit. (John 20:22)

On this day of celebration, we are brought back to the upper room to be with the disciples when they first met the risen Lord. John tells us that when Jesus came to them, he showed them his hands and side. There was something about seeing Jesus' wounds-now glorified-that thrilled their hearts.

We don't have to look too hard to identify the work of the Holy Spirit here. It was the Spirit who showed the disciples that Jesus didn't just come back from the dead but that he had actually defeated death and had been declared Lord of heaven and earth. By the Spirit, they realized that because of Jesus' wounds they too could be filled with divine life, just as their Master was. And this revelation filled them with excitement.

Brothers and sisters, the Holy Spirit wants to give all of us the same revelation. After all, this is what Pentecost is all about-seeing Jesus in a whole new way. Whenever we pray, whenever we go to Mass, the Spirit wants to reveal Jesus to our hearts-his love, his mercy, and his power. He wants to break down the walls that keep us trapped in a narrow, shallow understanding of God's plan. He wants to do this so that he can form us into a people on fire with love for him, willing to surrender our lives to him, and eager to bring his good news to a wounded world.

We don't have to fear the Holy Spirit. He may come in fire, but only to burn away the things that keep us from Jesus. We can carry so much "baggage" in our hearts-fears, anxieties, and resentments. But by the power of the cross, the Holy Spirit wants to lighten our load so that we can embrace Jesus as our just and loving Savior who wants the very best for us.

"Jesus, I want to rejoice in you just as the apostles did.

Holy Spirit, burn away everything that keeps me from your presence.

Come, Spirit, and give me a new revelation of Jesus."

God Bless,

Divine Will

The Virgin Mary in the Kingdom of the Divine Will, pgs. 140-141, Mary to Luisa:" Now, you must know that when My Son departed for Heaven, I continued to remain together with the Apostles in the Cenacle, waiting for the Holy Spirit. I took up the word to instruct them or to tell them some anecdote about My Son that they did not know, as for example: the particulars of His birth, His tears as a baby, His loving gestures, the incidents that took place in Egypt, the numerous marvels of the hidden life in Nazareth. Well, the time arrived, as promised by y Son, for the descent of the Holy Spirit in the Cenacle. What a transformation, My child! As they were invested, they acquired new science, invincible strength, and ardent love. A new life flowed in them that rendered them fearless and courageous, such that they dispersed throughout the entire world to make known the Redemption and to give their life for their Master."

Do You Want to be Well?

John 5:2-9 describes a supposed supernatural phenomenon. When the water of a particular pool began stirring or bubbling, the first infirm person who entered the water was healed. A man was there who had been debilitated for thirty-eight years.

When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been ill for a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be well?"

On the face of it, Jesus's question seems unnecessary. Why wouldn't he want to get well after 38 years of misery? But, his question probes into the man's motivation. His debility may have become his identity. Others were providing for his basic needs. Did he really want the responsibility of caring for himself? Perhaps he thought, 'I'm just a cripple. I'll never be anything else.'

Each of us has debilities. Like this man, we may tell ourselves and others that things will never improve. The sick man answered Jesus, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; while I am on my way, someone else gets down there before me."

We might be emotionally crippled. We may blame others for our situation. We may have brought disaster on ourselves for bad financial decisions. Jesus asks us the same question: "Do you want to be well?" If we do, his instruction is the same: "Rise...and walk." The man obeyed and was healed. Suppose he had replied, 'I can't get up?' He would have remained in his misery.

The time for him to be dependent on others was over. He wanted to be well and did as Jesus instructed him. Whatever our debility, it's between us and God. He let it happen for a reason – for us to take responsibility for our situation and learn that he is our provider. In verse 14, Jesus encounters the man again and tells him, "Look, you are well; do not sin anymore, so that nothing worse may happen to you." He was liable, at least partly, as we all are. When we want to get well, let's acknowledge our sins and forsake them. Then we can rise up and keep walking in our own strength. Peace be with you!

GOSPEL MEDITATION ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day. ©LPi

Dear God,

We pray that you give our children wisdom and direction in making decisions, and in each new situation and journey you have for them now. Teach them to listen closely to your voice, that they would have a heart to obey your word and have a desire for right choices.

Speakers:

Fr. Ignatius John Schweitzer, O.P. is a Dominican priest of the St. Joseph (Eastern) Province. He was ordained in 2011. He spent six years living as a monk in a Carthusian monastery. He then returned to the Dominicans, discerning a strong call from the Lord to help others grow in the spiritual and mystical life. He is the prior of St. Catherine of Siena Priory in New York City.

Fr. Jesse Maingot O.P. is a Dominican priest of the Irish Province. He was ordained in 2019. He was chaplain to Dominican College, Newbridge, Ireland where he ministered to hundreds of young people. Across Ireland he was frequently asked to preach talks and retreat days. Fr. Jesse is currently studying for an STL in Dogmatic Theology at the Angelicum University in Rome.

Dr. Thomas Carr, O.P. received his Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary and his Master and Doctorate in Philosophy & Theology from the University of Oxford. A convert to Catholicism and a Lay Dominican, Dr. Carr served as Professor of Philosophy and Religious Studies at the University of Mount Union for seventeen years.

Mrs. Ina Carr, O.P. is a mother of two, a Lay Dominican, and a convert to Catholicism. She has a Master in Leadership and Management and a Graduate Diploma in Christian Studies. She has many years of experience in various ministries, e.g., serving the poor in a post-conflict area; in a nursing home; in inner city, prison, prayer and deliverance ministries; and as a church planter.

Prayer is the life of the soul. It is our contact with the living God. Many times we erect barriers to God who is constantly drawing us to Himself by his grace. This retreat is about letting ourselves be drawn to Him.

Delve deep into Catholic tradition through the writing of the saints, to learn how prayer can help us hear the Father more clearly, conform our mind to that of Christ, and be led by the Holy Spirit to the fullness of our calling in life.

Through talks, confession, adoration, worship, and times for contemplation ...
