Gospel Meditation

November 30, 2025—First Sunday of Advent

Matthew 24:37-44

A few years ago, my house was broken into on Super Bowl Sunday. Turns out, it's a great day for burglars. If the TV isn't on, people are probably watching the game somewhere else, so ... easy pickins'. I'll never forget walking into my bedroom and realizing someone had been there. My stuff was thrown all over the floor. The closet was torn apart. It was disorienting and disturbing — someone had invaded the space I thought was secure. After that, I bought an alarm system. And every Super Bowl Sunday since, I'm extra careful to lock the doors and keep the lights on. That experience made me more alert. Not scared. Just attentive.

That's much like the spiritual place Jesus wants us to be on this first Sunday of Advent. He doesn't start the season with soft candlelight and cozy manger scenes. He starts with two brutal images: a flood and a thief. In other words, chaos and violation.

Why? Because life will flood us. Chaos will come. And in the midst of it, Christ will come like a thief — not to steal from us, but to steal us back. He is the intruder we should want. The one who breaks in, not to ransack, but to rescue.

Christ presents himself as the thief but also the new Noah. He builds the ark of the Church to carry us through the flood. And he invites us to join him. How? By participating fully in our parishes. By making our homes places of prayer. By guarding our hearts with truth. By refusing to let spiritual complacency leave us exposed. By repentance.

This Advent, don't just stay vaguely "awake."
Prepare. Build. Watch. The flood will come. But so will he.

— Father John Muir

Mission Statement: This is a sacred place of worship. Here, upon the Altar, heaven meets earth during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Ever aware of this, it is our mission to ensure and sustain an environment where reverent liturgy, sacred music, beautiful art, and constant prayer quiets the noise of the outside world and connects us to the Divine so that we may give Him due praise and thanksgiving.

Prayer for Advent – Arise

Bless God's Holy Name!

*Prepare our hearts for Your coming, Lord.
Awaken them from any places that have become sleepy or despondent. Inspire us with new visions.
Be with us as we climb closer to You.*

Amen.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

LA TEMPORADA DE ADVIENTO

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Wide-Open Eyes

When my first child was born, we had a nursery created for him that featured images from “The Beginner’s Bible” painted on all the walls. (You may have seen this Bible before, where the Biblical figures in the book all had large wide-open eyes.) Images of Adam and Eve, David and Goliath, and Jesus were displayed on all four walls. On the largest wall was a big picture of Noah’s Ark with lots of animals. As our son got older, we would point to images on the wall as we read bedtime stories to him. Our son is now in his 20’s and living several hours from us, so those days are far behind in our rearview mirror of life.

We prepared quite a lot for his birth. When our next two children were born, the preparation time had decreased significantly. Most parents know what I am talking about. The newness of your first-born brings with it so much emotion that you are compelled to spend countless hours preparing. When the next children are born, you are certainly excited, but you act differently and with a little more reserve.

For most readers, this is not your first Advent. It probably won’t be your last. If you approach these December days simply as a way to prepare for Christmas, you may find yourself just doing the same old thing as last year. However, if you spend this time reflecting on the time when Jesus returns or when you shall see him face-to-face, you might be able to stir up some of that emotion of anticipation within you. Jesus is coming again. When people of all ages understand that reality, it can be a cause for large, wide-open eyes indeed.

SUPPORT RELIEF EFFORTS FOR THOSE AFFECTED BY HURRICANE MELISSA

The Diocese of St. Augustine encourages the faithful to donate directly to Catholic Relief Services (CRS) to help families in Haiti and Jamaica recover from Hurricane Melissa. This rare Category 5 hurricane brought catastrophic winds, flooding and landslides, leaving thousands without shelter, clean water or essential supplies. CRS teams are on the ground providing lifesaving aid, including emergency shelter, food, clean water and hygiene kits. Your gift today can make a difference. Donate at Help Families in Haiti and Jamaica Devastated by Hurricane Melissa or <https://shorturl.at/nXUvh>.

First Sunday—Dec. 7 : Novus Ordo 10 a.m. Mass

Every first Sunday of the month at the Basilica, the 10 a.m. Mass will be a High Mass in Novus Ordo form, in English and Latin. Novus Ordo is short for Novus Ordo Missae, which means the "new order of the Mass," promulgated by Saint Pope Paul VI.

On the first Sunday of every month at 3 p.m. the Divine Mercy Chaplet will be sung in the Adoration Chapel.

First Friday —Dec. 5: Adoration at 11 a.m.

There will be Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction in the Church every first Friday of the month, starting at 11 a.m., leading up to the 12:10 p.m. Mass.

On the first Friday of the month after the 7:30 a.m. Mass, Eucharistic Exposition and Adoration, Litany to the Sacred Heart and Benediction will be held. Adorers are needed.
