TODAY'S READINGSFirst Reading

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-31

A Special Message from Father MariaDear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As you ponder today's Gospel reading, put yourself in Thomas' place. When Jesus appeared to the other disciples, you were absent. Now they are insisting that not only did they see him, but he breathed the power of the Holy Spirit on them. Poor Thomas! You definitely felt left out. So you insist that you will never believe unless you get to stick your finger into Jesus' wounded hands and side. A week later you have an opportunity to be true to your word. Jesus once again appears and invites you to touch and examine his wounds. Your doubts are blown away! You exclaim, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus points out that you believe because you have seen him for yourself.

Today's Gospel lessons are still relevant to our lives today. Many of us have struggled with our faith during times of stress. Sometimes we hide behind the locked doors of doubt, fear or anger. Some people may resist believing as they are having trouble seeing the proof of Jesus among all the loss and sadness they sometimes see unfolding around them. But just as Jesus did not abandon his disciples, he will not abandoned us. He gave the disciples the gift of the Holy Spirit; a gift they would need to carry out the work that God has assigned to them. We, too, have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit and with his help, we can rise above our own selves and move forward in the name of Jesus. We, who believe without seeing and have met the risen Christ, can unlock the doors around us and bring his peace and goodness into the world. This week, I ask you to resolve to make Jesus' presence known to all those you meet. Spend time in prayer renewing your personal encounter with Jesus as you give your heart to him with complete trust and faith.
