Prayer for Protection

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the American People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Adopted from Pope Francis.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Reparation Rosary Join us at Holy Comforter every Friday from 3-4PM for the 20-decade Rosary of Reparation with Penitential Psalms at 2:45 PM. It is a very powerful rosary that is much needed in the world, especially now. For more information, please contact Tina Blumenfeld, tmsblum@gmail.com.

LITURGICAL NOTES

It does not happen often that a feast day supersedes a Sunday. And what a feast! Today we celebrate the divinely revealed truth that the Mystical Body, the Catholic Church, spans the barriers of death. We, the Church Militant, share a living and filial relationship with the Church Triumphant, those in heaven. They are here to help us by their earthly example and their prayers. The Offertory Antiphon assures us that "the souls of the just are in the hand of God" and that they are at peace. The concluding remark in the antiphon should comfort us greatly: "in the eyes of the unwise, they seem to have died..." Many a saint lived an extremely hard life and some even died not seeing their life's work fulfilled; missionaries and martyrs come to mind. What great faith this requires! The Communion Antiphon, sampling the latter part of the Gospel, highlights the necessity of having a pure heart. Putting God first in our lives is what will ultimately give us the happiness Christ promised, ultimately, through perseverance, uniting us with all the blessed in heaven FOREVER.

All you saints and angels, pray for us!

Daniel Kirkland, Director of Liturgy and Music

FROM THE PASTOR

WE TURN TO YOU OH BLESSED MOTHER; YOU ARE OUR REFUGE.

PART III

Very Rev. Joseph Mary Lukyamuzi, V.F.

“O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those most in need of Your Mercy.” (Fatima Prayer)

It is a consoling thing to know that God has entrusted to the heavenly Mother above all else the salvation of people in sin, of souls led astray, of souls in despair, who turn to her for help. St. Gertrude saw the Holy Virgin in a vision, wearing a great mantle, and under it many animals of every kind appeared who sought refuge. Then Mary gave her to understand that all sinners who appealed to her were finding refuge and salvation. What do other saints say about this concept of the Blessed Mother being our refuge? St. Augustine declares that Mary is the only hope of sinners. St. Hilary, speaking of true devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, consoles us by saying that no matter how sinful one may have been, if he has devotion to Mary it is impossible that he be lost. For one who dies possessing this devotion, surely dies in God's friendship. St. Peter Damien states, "O Mary, it is possible for you to restore hope of salvation even to the most despairing soul." St. Anselm adds, "O Mary, it is impossible that anyone who has recourse to you should perish." For one who sincerely appeals to Our Lady with right intentions certainly moves her motherly heart into action. Another consoling assurance that the Saints give us is Mary's boundless, merciful charity toward those devoted to her who, according to justice, would deserve hell.

There is a chorus of strong voices from St. John Chrysostom to St. Bernard, from St. Alphonsus to St. Maximilian M. Kolbe, who teach that, while Jesus is King of mercy and Justice, the Blessed Virgin Mary is Queen of Mercy only. St. John Chrysostom forcefully and clearly declared, "Mary's immense mercy saves a great number of unhappy persons who, according to the norms of divine justice, would be damned." St. Gregory the Great rightly declared, "Nothing resists thy power O Mary, and thy Son appears to be fulfilling a duty when He grants your prayers." It cannot be that Jesus stands against His Mother. In the life of St. Gemma, we read that one day during an ecstasy the Saint asked Jesus for the conversion of an obstinate sinner who was a high-ranking mason. Jesus would not hear of it. "He has abused grace too much. He is hardened in his evil way. I have abandoned him." St. Gemma did not give up. She appealed again but had no success. Finally, in view of Jesus' decisive refusal, the Saint exclaimed disappointedly, "Very well. I understand, Jesus. I will speak to Your Mother. And it is up to You to say no to her!" She spoke to His Mother. Then Mary cast a glance at Jesus, and Jesus smiled. The favor was granted. That very day the sinner went to confession. I can confidently say that Mary has the will to save us, for she is our Mother and desires our salvation more than we can desire it ourselves. She has the power --- it is impossible for the Mother of God to pray in vain. Her requests can never be refused; she obtains whatever she wills.

As we enter into the month of November, which is known as the month of the Holy Souls in purgatory, I want you to be aware that the Blessed virgin Mary has a great concern that they get into heaven as soon as possible. Our Blessed Mother once said to St. Bridget, "I am the Mother of all the Poor Souls, for my prayers serve to mitigate their sufferings every single hour that they remain there." We are informed that she even visits these souls from time to time and mercifully comforts her suffering children. Through her they receive continual consolation and refreshment. What other consolation can they enjoy, except Mary and her merciful relief? Once St. Bridget heard Jesus say to His holy Mother: "You are My Mother, the Mother of Mercy, and the consolation of the souls in Purgatory." To be continued...
