Mass Time Updates!

On Saturday August 10, the Misa time changes to 7 PM.

This weekend, Sister Helen Murage of the Sisters of Mary Immaculate is here to tell us about her order's work.

As part of our diocesan Missionary Cooperation Plan, donations made at Masses will be divided equally among the various missionary groups speaking at diocesan parishes. That way, a missionary who comes to a smaller parish will receive the same amount as one going to a larger parish.

If you choose to donate by check, please make your check payable to the parish and note that it is for the mission appeal. For cash donations, please use a pew envelope and write that your donation is for the mission. Thank you for your generosity!

Let Us Pray

Prayer is a two-way spiritual conversation with God. While we are familiar with offering prayers of adoration, thanksgiving and intercession, we also need to be aware of what God wants say to us. So how do we start a conversation with God? Simply ask!

Talk to him and share your inner most thoughts, ask Him for an answer and then listen.

God loves us more than we can ever comprehend; and he wants to spend time with us, to hear what's on our minds, and to share His wisdom and guidance with us.

In the next few weeks we'll take a closer look at prayer and how it can enrich our spiritual life.

CATHOLIC RADIO can be heard on 540 AM WETC – We're Every Thing Catholic! Divine Mercy Radio offers great shows like "The Doctor Is In", "Called to Communion", and "Catholic Answers Live", along with devotions such as daily Mass, the Chaplet, and the Rosary. The team provides practical tools for improving your marriage. Unlike marriage counselors, they will share how they were able to benefit from these techniques themselves. After each presentation you will have time for reflection and discussion in complete privacy with your spouse. USING OUR TIME WISELY

A jar of honey lasts practically forever. The oldest jar of honey ever discovered was over five thousand years old. Honey is quite different from market-fresh produce, then; because most fruits and vegetables last only a few days, we treat them carefully. At this time of summer, we rush to find recipes for cherries and cucumbers so we won't waste a single one. We wouldn't feel that same urgency about honey.

In our own way, we are as delightful and fragile as ripe produce. Today's readings urge us not to spoil, but to make good use of our limited time on earth. Ecclesiastes reminds us that because God provides for us now and always, we can manage our daily affairs without anxiety. Saint Paul encourages the Colossians to keep thoughts of heaven in everything they do, and Jesus himself asks us to treasure not earthly wealth, but God alone.
