This past year, 17 Vincentians of The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Christ Our Light Conference have remained active in various ways to assist the residents of Guernsey County who struggle to meet their financial needs and who also have assisted with the administration of our Society. We have responded to 887 requests for help with utility bills, gasoline, bus tickets, car payments and repairs, appliance and home repairs, rent and mortgages, lodging, and food and clothing.

Assistance with most of these requests has been possible through partnering with area agencies and the financial support of $22,922 from Christ Our Light Parish parishioners and area organizations. Working by phone, FAX and email rather than direct contact has presented challenges, however, there has been much joy in experiencing the relief from worry and anxiety that these folks have had in struggling to meet basic needs. Please accept our sincere gratitude for your very generous support and prayers to keep us afloat. May you be abundantly gifted by our Blessed Lord.

ST. BENEDICT SCHOOL Annual Auction

ONLINE FORMAT

Saturday, February 27 thru Saturday, March 6, 2021

All donations must be dropped off at the school office by February 1, 2021

The annual St. Benedict Auction is quickly approaching. As we all face the challenges of the COVID-19 crisis, the success of our Auction is very important and we have had to make some major changes.

This year the Auction will be held in an online format. We are contracting with a professional online auction agency and the Auction will be held for one week, Saturday, February 27, through Saturday, March 6, 2021. This format will not only be the safest option for everyone involved, but also has the potential to reach more prospective buyers.

The revenue generated by the Annual Auction held each year in March is counted on as a part of the school's operating budget and helps us keep tuition costs low. In past years, parishioners of Christ Our Light Parish have been very generous in donating items to the Auction and we would appreciate any help you may offer again this year.

Due to the online format, we are limited to 100 items that can be offered for auction. In place of donating smaller items, we are asking for the following:

- Scrip gift cards
- Monetary donation
- Higher value items if you are able (example - Antique furniture in good condition, side of beef, a new bicycle, etc.) in lieu of monetary donations.
- Larger items can be dropped off at the school by appointment by contacting Missy Nau (740-260-4440) or Tracy Saling (740-509-2034)

The Auction Committee will use the gift cards and cash donations to purchase large ticket items. All donations must be dropped off at the school office by February 1, 2021.

Thank you so much for your help and dedication. We all look forward to another successful year!

"In an age of artifice, many voters are hungry for substance. They admire and support political figures who speak out sincerely for their moral convictions. For our part we commend Catholic and other public officials who, with courage and determination, use their positions of leadership to promote respect for all human life."

(US Bishops, Living the Gospel of Life, 1998, n. 31)

Children's Offering Envelopes

If you would like your child/children to receive offering envelopes for 2021, please contact the parish office at col\_office@catholicweb.com, 740-432-7609 or leave a note in the offertory basket at Mass. The envelopes will then be left for you in the Marian Room at St. Benedict Church or sent to Sts. Peter and Paul Oratory.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

January 10, 2021

John the Baptist proclaims the might of the Lord — The Messiah. In the sacrament of Baptism we put on Christ. In the sacraments we are strengthened not only to be Christ present to others but also that they may see Christ in our actions.

Isaiah 55:1-11

Isaiah invites us to seek the Lord our God and he promises that God will come to us free and without reservation.

How might I walk in the light of Christ and give witness to Him in the coming weeks?

1 John 5:1-9

By witnessing to Christ we show that we are begotten of God.

As children of God we are asked to follow His commandments. How will we prove God's love in our lives?

Mark 1:7-11

John the Baptist proclaims that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah.

How faithful am I in proclaiming Jesus as the beloved Son of God?

The following notes are largely from “lectorprep.org” and “miamiarch.org”

“Catholic Conversations on the Scriptures,” both accessed on December 30th, 2020.

Regarding the first reading from Isaiah 55, When the Jewish people returned home after two generations in exile in Babylon, rebuilding was distressingly slow. The prophet responded with images of hope: good food and drink, a worthy king, prestige among the nations; then a description of the power of the word of God.

In the second reading, from 1 John 5, for a community divided by false teaching, St. John gives a clear teaching that Jesus is indeed the Son of God. He asserts that holding the correct faith makes it possible for believers to love each other completely and generously, following the example of Jesus. The Holy Spirit helps us to do this. The basic experience of Christianity is that the Lord transforms us from within, through the Holy Spirit, helping us to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Messiah, and then to live and to love as Jesus did.

Then, in the Gospel from seven verses into the beginning of St. Mark's Gospel, John the Baptist proclaimed a baptism of conversion for the forgiveness of sins. Before John, no Jewish person had ever been baptized with a baptism of repentance. Such penitential rite was not necessary for the Jews, sons of Abraham, who had already been chosen. The baptism was for the sinners, tax collectors, publicans, prostitutes or anyone from Gentile background who wished to come into the Jewish faith.

Mark tells us in a simple way that Jesus came from Nazareth and was also baptized by John. It is at this moment that Jesus hears the statement “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” In the Gospel of Mark, these words are addressed only to Jesus. In contrast to Matthew and Luke, this is a personal experience, and the words of God are not heard by others. Jesus acts as the Beloved Son, and begins his public ministry, not as a triumphant, powerful Messiah, but as the Suffering Servant; his throne will be sacrificial love, not temporal power. The baptism of Jesus by John foreshadows the Gospel being extended beyond the Jewish people and marks the beginning of a new era guided by the loving action of the Spirit.

May the Lord help us to be open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, helping us to know that we, too, are beloved sons and daughters of God. Jesus did in fact enter into human history to help us experience a new freedom from sin. Acknowledging our sins and acknowledging Jesus as Lord and beloved Son of the Father opens us up to experience the Holy Spirit's assistance more continuously. May we as a community help each other to respond to that guidance of the Holy Spirit and experience life in the Lord giving us a deeper joy and hope and a deeper capacity to be like Jesus, people of sacrificial love.

Pastor's Letter

May this New Year of 2021 truly be a year of grace and peace! I can hope, from hearing from so many parishioners recently and from my own experience of testing and health care, that even as specifically as we a parish are beginning to develop some substantial herd/"flock" immunity!

These past several weeks – and this past week in particular – have seen the passing of a number of parishioners or relatives of parishioners. This included my own step-grandmother as well. We have observed in a surprisingly regular manner "things happening in threes" with regards to deaths. This week was at least 3 x 3!

Please keep in mind a support group that has developed in our parish that has served many people as a bridge during times of grief, namely our Bereavement Haven. Because healing in the face of the loss of a loved one takes an indeterminate range of time – it is unique for each person, in other words – some members are facing the recent passing of a loved one, while other members have lost a loved one many years ago. Still, it is helpful to have a group of people in the same boat and who are familiar with the choppy seas of grief and bereavement.

Again, this group has been very ecumenical, having members from many area churches and denominations. And, the themes focused on during each monthly gathering means that someone could join in any month without having attended before or after several months away from the group. Finally, the amount of time as a participant in the group varies from person to person as well. The Bereavement Haven meets on the second Sunday afternoon of each month at 2:30 p.m. in the St. Benedict Social Hall. See you next week?

Well, what if? What if 2021 doesn't mark an end to the confusing and unprecedented circumstances of 2020? What if a fair measure of information and demands that are political, medical and even in terms of our Catholic faith continue to add turbulence to our times even in 2021?

Hopefully, the effects of facing life in 2020 will bear fruit in us both individually and as a parish community so that we will be able to face 2021 with courage, generosity and even a surprising measure of joy! Troubled times throughout Church history have often been when some of the greatest saints have been raised up by the Lord.

So, may the Lord be the One, ultimately, who we turn to at the beginning of this new year for the grace and peace that we seek. We do indeed identify this as "the Year of Our Lord 2021." May we experience life in Jesus Christ throughout this year as surprising us with a profound level of encouragement and joy and holiness!

God bless!
