The Christ Our Light Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is grateful to all who donated coats and gloves these past few weeks. We now have a variety of styles and sizes to offer people who need winter outerwear and we would like you to know how appreciative people are when receiving these items. Also, recently there have been offers to donate clothing and other items. This need is generally not a part of our program and is covered by other area agencies. Again thank you for your care, prayers, and support.

Walk Where Jesus Walked

Join Fr. Paul Hrezo and Crown of Bethlehem Tours for a Pilgrimage to the Holy Land which has been postponed to June 14-25, 2021.

Our tour conductors are from Catholic families from Bethlehem and the tour is fairly comprehensive to include the northern area around the Sea of Galilee and Nazareth, the southern area including Jerusalem and Bethlehem, as well as going to Mt. Sinai and Egypt. For registration information, please call Fr. Paul at 740-432-7609. The pilgrimage remains $3,550 per person, round trip from Pittsburgh.

Respect Life

“As chief teachers in the Church, we must therefore explain, persuade, correct and admonish those in leadership positions who contradict the Gospel of life through their actions and policies. Catholic public officials who disregard Church teaching on the inviolability of the human person indirectly collude in the taking of innocent life.” (US Bishops, Living the Gospel of Life, 1998, n. 29)

The Chalkboard

St. Benedict School

Faithfully Educating God's Children Since 1911

Happy New Year! Students and staff are back from a much-welcomed break, rested and ready to “hit the books”!

Thank you so much to everyone who participated in our “Virtual Turkey Trot” fundraiser this past November. We have been blessed with a profit of $6,000.00! None of this would have happened without the dedication and coordination by Mrs. Susan Wright. We are so thankful for her leadership and commitment to St. Benedict School.

We continue to have a tremendous response to our Annual Appeal. Thank you to everyone who has donated thus far. Sr. June will continue to process incoming donations throughout the upcoming weeks.

The school year will be at the half way mark on Friday, January 15, as we conclude second quarter. And that means Catholic Schools Week is just around the corner!

Please pray for our students, staff and school as we continue on our journey this year with “Jesus as our Guide”.

In His Name, Sue Sanders

ST. BENEDICT SCHOOL Annual Auction

ONLINE FORMAT

Saturday, February 27 thru Saturday, March 6, 2021

All donations must be dropped off at the school office by February 1, 2021

The annual St. Benedict Auction is quickly approaching. As we all face the challenges of the COVID-19 crisis, the success of our Auction is very important and we have had to make some major changes.

This year the Auction will be held in an online format. We are contracting with a professional online auction agency and the Auction will be held for one week, Saturday, February 27, through Saturday, March 6, 2021. This format will not only be the safest option for everyone involved, but also has the potential to reach more prospective buyers.

The revenue generated by the Annual Auction held each year in March is counted on as a part of the school's operating budget and helps us keep tuition costs low. In past years, parishioners of Christ Our Light Parish have been very generous in donating items to the Auction and we would appreciate any help you may offer again this year.

Thank you so much for your help and dedication. We all look forward to another successful year!

Due to the online format, we are limited to 100 items that can be offered for auction. In place of donating smaller items, we are asking for the following:

- Scrip gift cards
- Monetary donation
- Higher value items if you are able in lieu of monetary donations. (example - Antique furniture in good condition, side of beef, a new bicycle, etc.)
- Larger items can be dropped off at the school by appointment by contacting Missy Nau (740-260-4440) or Tracy Saling (740-509-2034)

The Auction Committee will use the gift cards and cash donations to purchase large ticket items. All donations must be dropped off at the school office by February 1, 2021.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 17, 2021

The call to discipleship is not always easy, for we are often distracted by the allurements of this passing world. The Lord, however, is persistent in calling us. To better prepare ourselves to enter into these sacred mysteries, let us place ourselves in the presence of the Lord.

Our readings for the Second Sunday focus on “call and response.” The emphasis in the call of Samuel is on listening: “Speak to me, God. I am listening.” Samuel is called to be a prophet – one who must constantly listen to God in order to truly speak for God. The emphasis in the Gospel is on seeing, “come and see.” To “see” means more than to view with the physical eye. Biblically it means “perceiving with the eyes of faith.” The disciples must “see” that Jesus is the Messiah and follow him in faith. Samuel hears and responds. The disciples drop everything to “come and see.”

Our prayer response draws us personally into the theme:

- You ask me to listen.
- Here I am; I come to do your will.

The prophet/disciple has only one goal – to proclaim and live the will of God. The theme of “call and respond” will continue through the Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time and will recur throughout this season which presents the public life and ministry of Jesus.

1 Samuel 3:3b-10, 19

Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening.

Do I set aside time to pray and “listen” to the Lord or am I so busy I never hear him?

1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit.

How do I respect my body and others as temples of the Holy Spirit?

John 1:35-42

They saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him.

When do I most feel that I am in the presence of the Lord? What might I do to make his presence more of a reality in my life?

We begin this new year of Sundays in Ordinary Time next week near the beginning of the Gospel of John. This year we will often alternate between the Gospel of Mark and the Gospel of John for our Sunday Mass readings.

St. John the Baptist makes a statement that we echo at every Mass. “As he watched Jesus walk by, he said, ‘Behold, the Lamb of God.’” Do you remember different aspects of Jesus’ birth that we recalled during the Christmas season that could help us appreciate this statement? The key point related to this passage is that evidently the flocks of sheep raised near and around Bethlehem were some of the special “spotless lambs” that were raised for sacrificial offerings in the Temple in nearby Jerusalem. Where was Jesus born? Was he born in a royal palace or even in a comfortable inn? No, he was born in a stable in the midst of those spotless sacrificial lambs. And so, Jesus’ birth foreshadowed both John the Baptist’s statement today identifying Jesus as the ultimate spotless lamb, “the Lamb of God,” and Jesus’ death at the hour of sacrifice near the Temple in Jerusalem on Good Friday. He is the Lamb of God “who takes away the sins of the world.” We can turn to Him for His mercy in our lives!

In addition to connections with Christmas and Jesus' birth, today's readings also point us forward as Jesus begins to gather and form his disciples and to form the Church. John the Baptist had prepared them with his baptism of repentance. Jesus begins now to prepare them for the eventual baptism in the Holy Spirit.

One of two dimensions of the experience of the first Christian disciples – dimensions that are also reflected in the Old Testament reading from the First Book of Samuel – is that when they were called by Jesus to become his disciples, it was a very personal invitation. Jesus offered them to stay with him and experience life with him firsthand. They were also called by name. This happened to St. Paul, too, when he first experienced Jesus even after Jesus' Resurrection and Ascension.

The second dimension is that the Lord usually then transforms us so that we see ourselves as a new person in Him. This is symbolized by Simon receiving the new name of Peter (a.k.a. "Rocky") and Saul taking the name Paul (a.k.a. "humble one"). St. Paul says in next Sunday's second reading that as this transformation is happening our very bodies become truly sacred. We become temples of the Holy Spirit. Both St. Peter and St. Paul experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit causing a deepening and strengthening of the courageous gift of humility within them. Instead of becoming puffed up and "holier-than-thou" about being a temple of the Holy Spirit, they gratefully experienced it as a gift, enabling them to be more generous with their lives than ever before.

May the Lord help us to experience these dimensions of being a Christian: a) God's profound and personal love for each of us individually and b) the transforming presence of the Holy Spirit enabling us to be ever more generous and courageous.

Pastor's Letter

As we transition into this New Year of 2021 may we recognize the need for God's grace to govern us, to give us wisdom, and to help us to appreciate that we are members of both a nation blessed with exceptional freedoms and a worldwide community of faith that draws us beyond political freedom into freedom from sin and the fear of death.

We also enter into an annual season of remembrance of unjust laws against the sanctity of life. May the Lord give us both the courage and the joy to proclaim a culture of life.

Please note that we are planning an evening of prayer on Friday, January 22nd, which will include a Holy Hour as well as other prayers and reflections about the sanctity of human life. We have not been able to develop substantial plans for participation in the March for Life in Washington, DC, this year. Therefore, the prayer service on the 22nd will be a key alternative to that. Nevertheless, since the March for Life is the following week this year, on Friday, January 29th, I will keep you posted if some plans to go to DC do develop relatively spontaneously!

Furthermore, we are beginning to re-emphasize the journey to the Holy Land, which had been postponed from this past October until this upcoming June of 2021. Hopefully as quickly as plans for so many activities in the Church were postponed or cancelled this past year we will hear of things being reaffirmed with effective and ethically-developed vaccines or decreases in cases. Those plans for the journey to the Holy Land will be confirmed or changed again very shortly as the possibility of travel in Israel and Egypt is clarified.

Finally, the matching funds campaign for our sister parish in Caracol, Haiti, has likewise been a casualty of communication issues between a couple of organizations. I have been assured by representatives of the "twinning" organization that we will be notified as soon as the matching funds are available. You might remember that I had heard from one of the organizations – Food for the Poor – that funds had been offered/pledged for that matching funds campaign in November. The other organization, however, had not been notified if the pledged funds had been actually sent. So, that's the green light that we are still waiting for!

And, FYI, my blood pressure has returned to a much more normal level. A good combination of things seems to be helping. Thank you especially for your prayers as well!

May the Lord continue to bless us with joy and peace as disciples of Jesus and to help us to be always ready for the gift of eternal life in Heaven
