SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 11, 2021

By virtue of our baptism, we are called to share in the mission of Jesus Christ. As we prepare our hearts to celebrate the sacred mysteries, let us seek the Lord's mercy and pardon for the times we have wavered in our call to serve.

The focus of the readings for the 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time is mission. The apostles (the word means "sent") are sent out to preach. They are warned, however, that they must be true to their mission and that for this they may be rejected. In the reading from Amos, the prophet was rejected because he preached the Word of God which was in opposition to the civil authorities. The message of God is not always in harmony with the ways of the world. What matters most is fidelity to the message. For the prophet/apostle there can be no question of watering down God's message—even in the face of rejection.

Amos 7:12-15

Go, prophesy to my people Israel.

Who is the prophet of God's mercy and power in our times?

Ephesians 1:3-14

In love, He destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ.

How have you come to know your redemption through Jesus Christ?

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two.

Who has the Lord called to journey with you? How did you come to know the two of you were called and sent by the Lord?

As many of us are enjoying life just as it is, here in the middle of July, in the midst of summer, and as some people are taking a vacation from God and from going to church the readings given to us from the Church for next Sunday's Masses have a focus on prophecy!

When we think about prophets and their task, we usually think about someone who is crying out words of warning with anger for the sake of instilling fear in their listeners. Yes, a prophet does have an unpopular task because he or she does need to motivate people to change their lifestyle. But an authentic prophet also has another key aspect to their actions of prophesying: they are motivated out of love rather than out of hatred. They are filled with an obedient love of God and a sincere love of the people to whom they are called to prophesy.

Next Sunday's First Reading comes from someone who did not expect to be a prophet. Amos grew up as a shepherd and a tree farmer. He was perfectly content doing that as well.

Then, the Lord prompted him to become a prophet!

Amos began prophesying to the people throughout the areas of what had been the Kingdom of Israel under King David about their unjust violence especially toward the poor. Amos was prompted by the Lord to call them to conversion. He did not want to do that task because he knew the kind of resistance people would direct toward him. But, Amos responded obediently, motivated by the desire that God be revered and the people to be saved.

In next Sunday's Gospel, we see Jesus preparing his apostles for prophetic tasks. All of them were very similar to Amos. They had been fishermen and tax collectors and even revolutionaries, striving to overthrow the Roman army. They had not been members of a "professional" guild of prophets.

Jesus prepared them by helping them to see the Gospel message as a whole. On the one hand, it would be a message of healing and mercy. On the other hand, it would mean that people who had been sinners were going to be welcomed back to the community. So, some people would welcome the apostles into their homes and villages but others would not.

Jesus had shown that his own preaching of the Gospel was out of love. Looking at the people with compassion he saw them as “sheep without a shepherd” (Mark 6:34). The apostles, too, were to “preach repentance” (Mark 6:12) with great compassion as well. The healings and the liberation from evil spirits that would accompany their preaching were signs of the great love that God has for us.

May the Lord help us to hear his message of conversion not as hatred directed toward us but rather as a loving plea for us to experience healing and new life. May we respond to invitations for us, too, to preach repentance and to see others from the perspective of the love of God. May we want our neighbors as well as our enemies to experience the conversion and the call to be prepared for eternal life to which God is calling us.

Pastor's Letter

Thank you to all who organized and participated in last week's Sts. Peter & Paul Feast Day Mass and picnic in Lore City. Despite singing “Rain Down” as our closing hymn at St. Benedict and “Hail, Redeemer King” as our closing hymn at Sts. Peter & Paul at our Sunday Masses on June 27th, Our Lord provided trouble-free weather that day! In fact, even though it was so blazing hot during the day, after simply staying in the air-conditioned social hall for the picnic foods, by the time the children's picnic games began, the sun had ducked behind some clouds and the temperature had dropped by ~10°, making it more comfortable for that part of the picnic. May the Lord continue to bless us as a parish as a whole because of the community and resources we have through Sts. Peter & Paul Oratory!

It looks like the pilgrimage to the Holy Land and Egypt can now move forward with a greenlight. Hopefully free from other negative developments, we are planning for the journey to be Monday, October 11th, through Friday, October 22nd, leaving from the Pittsburgh airport. I will be contacting those who have expressed interest in the past to solidify our group numbers. At this point it looks like we have a sufficient number of participants to be our own group rather than needing to join together with another parish from Texas. We'll be making more information known over these next several weeks, including Bible passages and historical information to connect with the sites we would be visiting each day!

As I mentioned in last week's bulletin, we currently have 3 groups of 3-5 people that meet weekly as small faith-sharing groups, called “Discipleship Quads.” They have a curriculum of discussion topics and reading material to prepare for and to facilitate the weekly time of reflection. I would like to invite all parishioners who would like to participate in a faith sharing group like these. We would plan to form them specifically as men's and women's groups and these groups have proven to flow well even with differing age groups and backgrounds. My own parents have participated in groups like these for many years and could testify to their benefit. We had a couple of people this past week express interest, especially for a daytime group. Please let me know if you would like to participate in one of these newly forming groups. The current groups meet on Wednesday evenings, but, again, additional groups could meet on other days and at other times of the day.

Among the national issues for which Bishop Monforton and the U.S. bishops as a whole have asked our response is regarding potential changes to the Hyde Amendment and other similar legislation. As noted at our diocesan website, “The Hyde Amendment and similar laws have protected taxpayers from funding elective abortions for 45 years ... Both Democrats and Republicans have supported [this amendment] for nearly half a century. [Now it is facing pressures to be overturned.] Billions of taxpayer dollars could be used to pay for abortion. It is critically important for Catholics to send a strong message before Congress moves forward to impose taxpayer-funded abortion. Catholics are urged to sign the petition on NoTaxpayerAbortion.com.”

May the Lord help us to experience the transforming power of God's mercy! May Our Lord help us to be always ready for the gift of eternal life in Heaven!
