The Chosen

Have you ever wondered what it was like to travel with Jesus as one of his disciples? Then join us for the first episode of “The Chosen” on Sunday, October 17, from 4:30-6:00 p.m. in the Marian Room of St. Benedict Church.

We’ll continue this eight-week season with additional viewings of the entire first season of “The Chosen”. Families are welcome.

“The Chosen” is the first multi-season series about the life of Jesus. It offers the viewer a glimpse into what the daily and extraordinary life of Jesus Christ and His disciples might have looked like 2,000 years ago and invites the viewer into His story. Based on scripture and historical references, “The Chosen” makes the story of Jesus come to life.

The first episode, titled “You Are Called,” introduces us to Mary Magdalene, Nicodemus, Matthew and Simon (Peter) just before Jesus calls them to be His “chosen” disciples.

St. Benedict Marian Room

The following Sundays at 4:30-6:00 p.m.

- October 17, 24, 31
- November 14, 21
- December 5, 12, 19

Many thanks to those who remembered my 81st birthday. Your prayers and support are greatly appreciated.

Also, thanks for your concern as I dealt with COVID. I’m glad I got the Moderna vaccination earlier in February and March. I’m told that dealing with the consequences of a positive test could have been much more difficult and probably would have led to hospitalization. If you have not taken advantage of the program, I truly hope you will consider doing so as soon as possible.

READINGS FOR THE 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

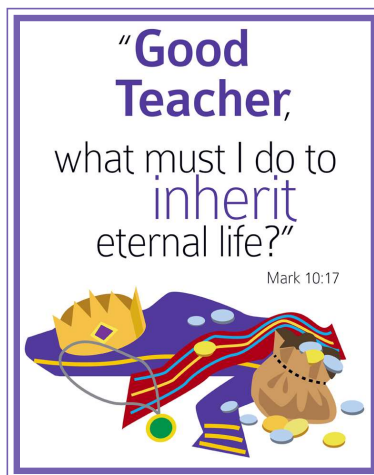

October 10, 2021

Jesus tells us in plain language what we need to do to enter heaven. Let us pray for ears to hear the Word of the Lord.

The readings from Wisdom and the Gospel focus on the choice to be made between God and riches. In the first reading, Wisdom is desired more than “all the riches I could have.” Wisdom here is not knowledge, but a personification of God, an image of God. It is, therefore, God who is preferred more than riches. In our Gospel passage, Jesus challenges disciples that it is harder for a rich person to enter heaven than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle.

Biblically, riches seem to be an obstacle to a deep relationship with God. But the meaning of the Gospel goes beyond material wealth. It is a call to put aside anything and everything that keeps us from wholeheartedly following Jesus.

Wisdom 7:7-11

A prayer for wisdom.

How do you seek to know God?

Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God discerns hearts.

How faithful are you in your attempt to hear the word of God and live it in your life?

Mark 10:17-30

The rich man went away sad.

What “things” are preventing me from following the Lord wholeheartedly? Is there a “false god” in my life?

In next Sunday’s Gospel we encounter the “Rich Young Man” with Jesus. With great eagerness he asks Jesus to teach him what more he needs to do, beyond observing all the commandments and laws of the Lord, to inherit eternal life. Jesus taught him about how to build up treasure in heaven rather than only treasure here on earth. This was not an easy teaching for the Rich Young Man to accept, “for he had many possessions.”

Next Sunday’s First Reading has been selected as a kind of echo of the Gospel to help us see the key points of the Gospel. That First Reading is from the Old Testament book of Wisdom. As the very title indicates, this book teaches both about the value of wisdom itself and about how to grow in it. We are to prefer having wisdom more than having titles of honor and all kinds of riches. Wisdom helps us to have a “detachment” from these other things.

Jesus, likewise, in next week’s Gospel, teaches us about detaching from those things – and people – that can become possessions in our life; they can actually take possession of our hearts more than we possess them.

Jesus provides a positive approach to detachment. He teaches us that in becoming detached from people and things for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven we actually receive back an abundant measure of people and things – with a purified heart as well! “Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters...for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age... with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come.”

The October 2015 issue of the Magnificat devotional magazine published a very beautiful reflection by Pope St. John XXIII on detachment from where he was in his late teens.

“Everything I possess, my being, life, understanding, will and memory – all were given [to] me by God, so all belong to him. Twenty short years ago, all that I see around me was already here. Everything was proceeding in its appointed way under the watchful eyes of divine providence. And I? I was not here. Everything was being done without me; nobody was thinking about me, nobody could imagine me, even in dreams, because I did not exist. And you, O God, with a wonderful gesture of love, you who are from the beginning and before all time, you drew me forth from my nothingness, you gave me being, life, a soul, in fact all the faculties of my body and spirit; you opened my eyes to this light which sheds its radiance around me; you created me.”

May a similar gratitude about our Lord’s love for each one of us help us to experience an eternal life-giving humility and detachment. May it help us to enter into life around us because of the love of God, for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Pastor's Letter

Thank you very much to Sr. Sharon who had so many of the key details of last Sunday's Mass of Anointing so well organized. May the Lord continue to increase His blessings of healing, conversion and new life in Jesus, helping us to respond to difficulties of body and soul that can weaken the gift of faith.

I was especially happy to welcome back Fr. Bob. He con-celebrated that Mass of Anointing and has returned to offering 2-3 daily Masses during the week as needed and at least one of the Sunday Masses over each weekend. As much as I don't mind pacing things a bit differently throughout the week and weekend when I was on my own these past couple of weeks, there are many circumstances when it is especially reassuring to know that another priest can be available – and is actively available!

Again, I was grateful that Fr. Jeremiah was able to cover for us at the end of August when both Fr. Bob and I were quarantined, even helping with two funerals that week. And priests from the surrounding counties were on notice if an anointing was needed. Still, may that always be the exception!

This year's Sunday morning Parish School of Religion (a.k.a. "CCD," "Religious Education" or in some circles "Sunday School") is now underway. As for the past 20+ years, the classes meet conveniently at 9:15 a.m., between the 8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses. Thank you to Sr. Mariadele who is providing First Reconciliation and First Communion classes for both St. Benedict School and our Sunday morning PSR.

This week will be the first gathering of RCIA for this year. As in the past, we plan to begin with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the St. Benedict Social Hall, on Thursday, October 7th. RCIA, which stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, provides sessions of faith formation in preparation for the Baptism, First Reconciliation, Confirmation and First Communion of adults. It looks like we might have a group of 4-7 adults in various stages of formation, so we will likely need additional team members who can serve as sponsors for some of this year's candidates and catechumens.

Next Sunday, October 10th, at 2:30 p.m. in the St. Benedict Social Hall, we are planning another gathering of our Bereavement Haven. It is open to all, both parishioners and beyond, who would like additional support in facing the loss of a loved one. We have been drawing from a resource whose chapters are independent themes, meaning you need not have participated in a past meeting in order to connect with the theme of this month's meeting. We will also be considering new resources for future gatherings as well.

May Our Lord Jesus Christ help us to experience the transforming power of His mercy as He helps us to be always ready for the gift of eternal life in Heaven!

Happy Fall!

As we begin a new month, there is much to look forward to and much to reflect on. This week, 7th and 8th graders planned the school Mass which focused on the Archangels. 5-8th graders continued working on their peace posters, using art to represent the theme that, "We Are all Connected." We wrapped up our September service project, honoring healthcare professionals and began our October service project, focusing on helping animal shelters. It is fitting that we will help animals this month as we are looking forward to celebrating The Feast of St. Francis with the blessing of the pets on October 4th. On this day, we also honor our Franciscan Sisters.

We appreciate your prayers and support as we continue to navigate this uncertain time!

Blessings,
Monica Quinn

It is almost time to start working on the 2021 St. Benedict School Auction and Raffle. We are in need of a chairperson/co-chairpersons and volunteers to get preparations underway. Please contact Traci Mitchell at St. Benedict School at 740-432-6751 for additional information. Many hands make light work, and your participation is greatly appreciated. Thank you for your consideration.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE®

THE BEGINNING OF THE END OF ABORTION

The visible, public centerpiece of 40 Days for Life is a focused, 40-day, non-stop, round-the-clock prayer vigil outside a single Planned Parenthood center or other abortion facility. Each day during 40 Days for Life, individuals, churches, families and groups will be asked to join together in prayer for a specific request so the entire Body of Christ can unite around a common focus. (You are encouraged to check the website for more info ... 40daysforlife.com)

“In five days, we know of 52 moms who have chosen life!” Shawn Carney

Devotional for Day 12, Sunday, October 3

Intention: May the King of the Universe, who entered this world as a helpless infant, give us the humility to be healed.

Scripture: My power is made perfect in weakness. —2 Corinthians 12:9

Prayer: Lord, during these forty days, we ask that with each day of this sacred vigil, everything in us that separates us from your perfect will would be pruned from our hearts and souls. In this blessed freedom may we experience a powerful anointing of your Holy Spirit. Filled with confidence and trust may we proclaim with the mother of Jesus, “Let it be done to me, according to your Word.” Amen.

Devotional for Day 13, Monday, October 4

Intention: For all fathers who are terrified of being fathers.

Scripture: A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy habitation. —Psalm 68:5

Prayer: Heavenly Father, we thank you for caring about each of us so deeply. Help us to see and know you as our Father in heaven each and every day of our lives. Your loving hand also rests on every child today carried in its mother’s womb. May they be born into this world and come to know fully and personally your endless love. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

40 Days for Life prayers are being prayed in English, Serbian, Hindi, German, Swahili, Spanish, Croatian, Portuguese, and many other tongues around the world; different countries, different cultures, and different languages, but one shared language of prayer to our one Father in Heaven. With the United States once again funding and aggressively promoting abortion in developing countries, those prayers are more important than ever.

Devotional for Day 14, Tuesday, October 5

Intention: Pray that the abortionists and all workers in abortion facilities would be troubled in their souls regarding their work and would seek truth.

Scripture: Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and (reviling), be put away from you, with all malice. And be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake has forgiven you. — Ephesians 4:31-32

Prayer: Dearest God, You teach us in Proverbs that the foolish and the wicked lack wisdom and understanding. I pray you will trouble the souls of those in the abortion industry so that they hunger for truth and cry out for freedom. I pray that my life would reflect my redemption so others may see it and trust in You. In obedience to You, and by your grace, I choose to forgive others as you have forgiven me. In the name of Christ I pray, amen.

Devotional for Day 15, October 6

Intention: May God's people awaken to the fact that we are our brothers' keepers.

Scripture: Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him. Then the Lord said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?" He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?" And He said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground." —Genesis 4:8-10

Prayer: Father, help us to embrace the fact that we are our "brother's keeper." When, due to selfish motives, we try to cast off this responsibility please call to us to account. We would be pleasing to you and to our "brother," through the help and grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Devotional for Day 16, Thursday, October 7

Intention: Pray for the mothers going into pregnancy help centers. The personal care, the free ultrasound, the ongoing practical help is designed to deliver them from those who profit in shedding innocent blood.

Scripture: Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
—Matthew 11:28

Prayer: Father, hear our prayer! Snatch desperate mothers from the fire. Bring them out of our abortion businesses and into our pregnancy help centers. Deliver them from evil. Use us to help them chose life and see your hand of provision. Amen.

Devotional for Day 17, Friday, October 8

Intention: May all understand more deeply that the pro-life message is rooted in two basic truths of life: 1) There is a God 2) He isn't me

Scripture: And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.
—Genesis 2:7

Prayer: Lord, we are yours. Thank you for breathing into us the breath of life. Thank you for claiming us as your own. May our words and actions in defense of human life proclaim to all the world that you alone are Lord of life and death, Lord of our freedom and of our choices. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Devotional for Day 18, Saturday, October 9

Intention: We pray for a flowering of the joy of parenthood.

Scripture: Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb is a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth. Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them; they shall not be ashamed, but shall speak with their enemies at the gate. —Psalm 127:3-5

Prayer: Heavenly Father, please keep me from taking for granted the gift of children. Help us to remember this heritage that you have given us. Make us faithful stewards of these precious lives, that each generation might be raised in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
