The Chalkboard

St. Benedict School
Faithfully Educating God's Children
Since 1911

On Wednesday the third and fourth grade classes received a visit from Congressman Bill Johnson. The classes invited him to talk about the election process. What a privilege for our students to meet a standing U.S. Representative!

Congratulations to Annie Saling in grade 7 for being chosen as the school winner in the annual Lions Club Peace Poster contest. Her poster will now move on to the community level. Good luck, Annie!

Students in grades K-3 celebrated All Saints Day at the weekday Mass this past Thursday. Thank you to Sister Mariadele who made each student a halo to wear at Mass. The church was full of saints in the making!

The Turkey Trot is just a few weeks away!
Contact the school office for a registration form or if you are able to be a sponsor.

Please pray for our students, staff and school as we continue on our journey this year with "Jesus as our Guide".

READINGS FOR THE 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday, November 8, 2020

The true disciple is alert to God's voice. It is wise to be ready and waiting when the Lord calls us to action in this life or home into eternal life in Heaven.

The focus of the readings is wisdom. It is common in the Old Testament to find wisdom as an expression of God. In the reading from the Book of Wisdom, we see wisdom praised as the gift which lasts forever. As the presence of God, she is available to all who seek her. She guides their ways to the good.

The Gospel takes this poetic text and puts it into a tangible parable. The focus of the parable is seen in the last line, "always be ready, for you do not know at what hour the Lord is coming." From the first reading and the parable, we know that being ready comes from wisdom.

Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom was present at creation and encourages us to seek and to love her.

How do I seek to know the wisdom of God?

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Paul explains that those who survive until Jesus comes will have no advantage over those who have already died. Both the living and the dead will share in the parousia.

Do I pray for the dead?

Matthew 25:1-13

The parable of the bridesmaids tells us to be prepared to wait, for no one knows the day nor the hour.

How am I preparing for "the hour" when the Lord will call me home?

God wants us to be wise and active-minded. God wants us to live our lives wisely and fully aware of the eternal destiny to which we are moving – and fully aware that the end of our lives on earth could be upon us either at any given moment or a long "distance of time" away.

In next Sunday's Gospel, Jesus describes readiness for eternal life as being like ten teenage girls (i.e. ten virgins) who are serving as greeters for the bridegroom and the wedding party when they return from his going to the bride's house to bring her and the rest of her entourage to the groom's family compound for the wedding ceremony.

We could probably understand why a bridegroom might be delayed if he couldn't begin his return trip until the bride was ready to leave! So, anyone who was serving as a greeter needed to be prepared for likely delays. Five of the teenage greeters were ready and five of them were not. Five had additional oil to be able to relight their lamps after an extended time of waiting and five of them did not prepare for a delay.

What could the oil represent? The oil can represent the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and being truly open and attentive to the Holy Spirit's assistance, guidance and promptings. The Lord wants to help us to face temptations and to have a relationship with Him that has both lively and dynamic moments, on the one hand, and, on the other hand, quieter times when waiting for additional blessings helps to strengthen the gift of faith he has given us.

The importance of being wise and not dull-witted is reinforced in next week's First Reading. In that passage from the Old Testament book of Wisdom, God's desire to help us is again emphasized. "[Wisdom] is readily perceived by those who love her and [she is] found by those who seek her. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire" (Wisdom 6:12-13).

So, God is generous with blessing people with wisdom when they seek it. And, even if that seems like the emphasis is back on us needing to take the initiative to seek wisdom, especially practical knowledge about topics such as eternal life, the last verses of next week's First Reading re-emphasize that God is actively searching for souls who want wisdom: "because [Wisdom] makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her, and graciously appears to them in the ways, and meets them with all solicitude" (6:16).

This desire of God for us is emphasized in the scene of Jesus with the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:7. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, in the section about growing in personal prayer and the spiritual life, recognizing God's stronger thirst for us is described as a key starting point for growth in holiness.

May God surprise us, therefore, by responding more generously than we can even imagine when we express to God our desire to know His love!

Pastor's Letter

Bishop Monforton has produced a five-minute video for guiding our voting decision-making. Please view it at the Diocese of Steubenville website: www.diosteub.org.

Thank you, again, to all who are serving as poll workers this week as well as all who are reaching out to neighbors and friends who need assistance to go to polling places for those who prefer to vote in person. We are also blessed to have the Guernsey County Board of Elections Office so conveniently located directly across from Theo's Restaurant on Wheeling Avenue for having the early in-person voting option so accessible.

We must keep our nation in prayer at this time. It seems especially timely that our daily Mass reading this past week on Thursday was from Ephesians 6:10-20. There, St. Paul teaches that when we encounter divisiveness and bitterness in our midst – even if it's with family members, co-workers and neighbors – “our struggle is not with flesh and blood.” We are to look beyond the disagreement with the other person and ask the Lord to ultimately be the one to heal that division. He continued to say that we struggle instead “with the principalities, with the powers, with the world rulers of this present darkness, with the evil spirits in the heavens.” In other words, there are spiritual strongholds that try to sow divisiveness amongst us. We need to have spiritual protection, “the armor of God” surrounding us.

It is okay and even a gift from God to be able to see right and wrong on various issues and topics that we are debating and implementing. But, to keep the process from affecting our eternal salvation and that of others, we are to pray that each other – even someone we might see as a political “enemy” – be protected from those spiritual realities and be blessed abundantly with the graces of salvation. The friendship between the two former Supreme Court Justices Scalia and Ginsburg comes to mind. Though they differed radically in their views on almost every ruling, they had a sincere friendship. I could see them sincerely praying for each other's eternal salvation, putting Ephesians 6 into practice for each other in effect even if not knowingly.

So, we plan to have some additional time for prayer on Monday evening, November 2nd. After the 6:30 p.m. Mass for All Souls Day at St. Benedict Church, we plan to begin Eucharistic Adoration and pray a “Patriotic Rosary” for blessings and protection on our nation. It is a time asking the Lord for graces of peace and for “spiritual armor” around our nation for Election Day, November 3rd, and afterwards, both for us locally and in other places where it seems that spiritual strongholds of divisiveness are “reigning.” We will continue Eucharistic Adoration on Monday evening, November 2nd, at least until 9:00 p.m. If we have at least two “adorers” in the Church we will continue that prayer vigil longer. For safety's sake, after the Patriotic Rosary (concluding ~ 8:00 p.m.) we will only keep the ramp door unlocked.

Thank you to all who participated in the first weekend of the Knights of Columbus fundraising campaign for the two ultrasound machines for Open Arms Pregnancy Center. We raised just over $2,000 this first weekend. That puts us under $9,000 remaining to be raised, again depending upon how much the Noble County parishes will raise from their second collection.

Checks should be written to “Knights of Columbus Council #1641” with a note on the memo line of “ultrasound machines.” The donations could then be placed in the collection boxes at either the front or the back of St. Benedict Church or in the entrance of Sts. Peter & Paul in Lore City. You could also mail a donation directly to our parish offices with checks addressed in the same way. We will continue with in-pew envelopes for this weekend as well, and then have a couple of different fundraising appeals in November.

May the Lord continue to bless us with joy and peace as disciples of Jesus and to help us always to be ready for the gift of eternal life!
