The Chalkboard

St. Benedict School
Faithfully Educating God's Children
Since 1911

Some of our Auction benefactors from last spring are “cashing” in on their winnings. Last week, with the school looking on, Mr. Daniels received a pie in the face compliments of his son Luke. Throughout this month, “principal and custodian of the day” will be honored, along with a pizza party in First Grade, extra recess and ice cream in Kindergarten and a lucky third grader will get a fast food luncheon of his choice.

We are excited to welcome our new Second Grade teacher, Ms. Stephanie Hitchcock, who replaces Ms. Sandidge who resigned last month. Ms. Hitchcock, who recently returned to the Cambridge area after teaching five years in southern Ohio, will begin on Monday, November 9, and the students can't wait to meet her!

To all our parish family veterans – Thank you for your service! Your commitment to serving our country and protecting our freedoms is more appreciated than words can express. May God continue to bless you as you have blessed us.

This Sunday, November 8, is the last day to order books online. Please visit our Book Fair homepage at www.Scholastic.com/fair. All proceeds benefit St. Benedict School.

Please pray for our students, staff and school as we continue on our journey this year with “Jesus as our Guide”.

In His Name, Sue Sanders

many are unemployed or displaced for various reasons and unable to meet their basic needs. The members are not receiving clients at the parish office, however they are working to help as many people as possible by phone, FAX, mail and email. Please continue to keep our volunteers and our clients in your thoughts and prayers. Your donations to the 'Monthly Collection for Those in Need' are appreciated and are being distributed with prayerful guidance and prudence. Thank You.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THE 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 15, 2020

The final judgment will come upon us even as the pains of labor overtake a pregnant woman. Once it begins there is no turning back. Be prepared for Jesus' return in glory.

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year, and the Gospel, like last week's, directs our thoughts to the end of time. Last week the focus was vigilance. This week and next it is "rendering our account." God has given each of us talents, grace, a vocation in life. It is clear from the Gospel that we are meant to use those talents for the good of the reign of God. The importance of the parable is that our reward, "Come, be happy with me forever," is not dependent on the size of our talents, but on our use of what we have been given.

The woman in the first reading is praised because she lived her vocation as wife and mother in a most charitable and noble way.

Each of us is called to do that.

Proverbs 31:10-13, 16-18, 20, 26-31

This prudent woman, wife and mother demonstrates practical wisdom in daily life.

How much do we employ "practical wisdom" in our lives? Think of examples.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

The last days will not come until everything is fulfilled. In the meantime, let us not be asleep, but awake and sober.

How are we preparing for the "last days?"

Matthew 25:14-30

As servants of the last kingdom, we are to invest and to multiply our gifts creatively and generously.

How am I investing and multiplying my God/given gifts?

*For to all those who have, more
will be given,
and they will have an abundance.*

Matthew 25:29, NRSV

God has a plan for the salvation of the world

and for the salvation of each one of us in particular. For the unfolding of that plan God has a particular role for each of us. And, to help us carry out our particular role, God blesses us with specific gifts of the Holy Spirit. We experience life in Jesus as what we were created for by putting these spiritual gifts into action. And, these spiritual gifts enable us to care for others, especially people who are difficult to love.

In light of all of this, next Sunday's Gospel speaks of talents that a person entrusts to various servants to help the enterprise of his household to continue to flourish while he goes away on a journey. Upon his return he asks the servants to give an accounting about how those talents were employed during his absence. On the literal level of the parable, the servants were given money to invest. Or, we could see them as abilities they were given for developing other sub-businesses.

There are at least two spiritual ways we can understand the talents that can help us to become more alive in Jesus. We can see them as those spiritual gifts that God gives each of us and that he wants us to use for building up the Body of Christ, the Church. They are ways his reign and his kingdom can be more visibly and actively renewing our world, our lives and the lives of people around us.

Here is a brief array of spiritual gifts drawn from various Bible passages, identified by a Catholic ministry called the Siena Institute. When the Holy Spirit gives us one or more of these spiritual gifts and we put them into action others grow in their relationship with the Lord. The spiritual gifts include craftsmanship, discernment of spirits, encouragement, evangelism, faith, healing, hospitality, intercessory prayer, knowledge, leadership, mercy, a missionary lifestyle, music, pastoring, prophecy, service, teaching, voluntary poverty, wisdom and writing. Has anyone told you that when you exercised a gift like what's listed here that it helped him or her to grow substantially in their faith in Jesus? That's one key way that we can discover which spiritual gifts the Lord has given us.

Another way to understand the "talents" in next Sunday's Gospel parable is as the people the Lord puts in our lives. As we appreciate them and cultivate those relationships and friendships, the Kingdom of God is built up. We become better prepared for the life of Heaven, where we can experience loving God and others purely and completely. This can help us to appreciate the people in our lives better. Yes, sometimes we might want to dig a hole in the ground for them (!), but the Lord wants to help us at least to “put them in the bank.” This can mean that we turn to the Holy Spirit, as St. Paul teaches in Romans 8:26-27, to help us to pray for them when we experience difficulty and weakness in loving them.

May the Lord continue to bless us with specific gifts of the Holy Spirit for the unfolding of His kingdom in our midst here in Guernsey County. And, may the Lord help us to love the people he places in our lives – all of them!

Pastor's Letter

In the monthly packets of offering envelopes you have probably seen the one for All Souls Day. On that envelope there are several blank lines for names. Those are for names of loved ones who have died who you would like to pray for in a special way this month. Having both All Saints Day and All Souls Day in November is the key month for remembrance. As we have done in the past, during this month of November we will gather those envelopes and place them on the altar.

If you have already utilized that envelope without having written names on it you may write names on a 3 x 5 card, or on a small envelope (if you would like to include an All Souls Day offering), and return them to the offering boxes or parish office and we will try to check the boxes daily and add them to the envelopes on the altar.

Thank you for your participation in the Knight of Columbus ultrasound machines campaign for purchasing two new machines. We have received close to $4,000 in donations from two weeks of that campaign simply in Christ Our Light Parish donations. With pledges from other K of C councils that means one of the machines is basically paid for and we're starting to collect for the second machine!

On a related note, next weekend we will have a representative from an international Catholic missionary and outreach organization called “Cross Catholic” visiting our parish. Their representative is Fr. John Fischer. He is a priest from a religious community called the Comboni Missionaries. He is living and serving in the Cincinnati area now, but previously served as a missionary in Kenya for many years. Fr. Fischer will be able to give us a firsthand understanding about what is helping the Cross Catholic organization’s ministry to be so effective.

May the Lord continue to bless us with joy and peace as disciples of Jesus and to help us always to be ready for the gift of eternal life!
